SOME DEFINITIONS

Baseball—A game in which the young man who bravely strikes out for himself receives no praise.

Bone—Once Dollar—The original price of a wife. Note, Adam, who had to give up one bone before he got Eve.

Unlucky—An ailing individual frequently troubled by scabs and liable to strike without warning.

Virtue—A quality frequently associated with intelligence but rarely with beauty.

Family—Originally a wife and several children; a matter of pride to the possessor. Now obsolete among the careful, or confined to the wife, a bull pup and a canary bird.

Engagement—In war, a battle. In love, the salutary calm that precedes the real hostilities.

Love—A man's insane desire to become a woman's meal ticket.

Leaky—A church fast that is slow to go; or something loaned which is slow to come back.

Obesity—A surplus gone to waste.

Postscript—The only thing readable in a woman's letter.

Onion—The all-round strength champion of the vegetable kingdom, garlic and cabbage being close rivals.

Optimism—A cheerful frame of mind, that enables a teakettle to sing though in hot water up to its nose.

You Can Get Along Without Glasses

even though you need them quite badly, but you not only subject your self to immediate discomfort, but you may also be laying the foundation for serious trouble in the future.

The sense of sight is your most precious gift from Nature. You cannot afford to neglect or trifle with your eyes. To do so might mean not only loss of employment, but also of sight itself.

Take care of your eyes in time.

Favor Conscription

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Ottawa, June 9.—The Sons of England of the Ottawa and Hull districts have passed a resolution in favor of conscription in Canada and calling upon the Supreme Grand Lodge of the order which meets in Halifax next August to make a move in that direction. A copy of the resolution has been forwarded to Sir Sam Hughes.

The Cook Quit

And we were "up in the air" about it because the wife knew nothing about cooking. She tried her best and meant well, I guess, but her first attempt at a meal convinced me.

So we had just about decided to eat in restaurants when suddenly my wife struck a bright idea. "Why don't you call 139 and insert a help wanted ad for a cook in The Courier?" she said. And I did—

-and the next morning there were many to choose from
