

Patenaude Howled Down When He Spoke in Montreal

Audience Gave Respectful Hearing to Sir Robert Borden When He Spoke on National Service, but Hooted French-Canadian Minister

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Sir Robert Borden to-night opened his National Service campaign with what promised at first to be a magnificent meeting in the Monument Nationale. It developed into something like a bear garden. The Prime Minister came into Quebec with an eloquent and straightforward message to the manhood and womanhood of the province, and personally he was well received. His colleagues on the other hand, were subjected to frequent interruptions. The meeting opened with the National Anthem and "O Canada," while the band of the 244th Kitchener's Own Battalion, and sung by over two thousand men.

Ludger Gravel, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and H. B. Walker, president of the Board of Trade, spoke briefly in introducing the subject of national service. Mr. Walker observing sarcastically that there were in Canada "a great many people doing nothing, and doing it well." He predicted a long struggle.

Sir Robert Borden was given an ovation on rising, the band again playing "O Canada," while the audience stood and cheered. Sir Robert opened his remarks in French, his use of the provincial language being received with another round of enthusiastic applause.

Delivering his main address in English, the Prime Minister spoke first of the justice of the British and allied cause, of the fate that would have been well deserved had not the British people responded to the call and of the splendid effort already put forward by the army of the country. "Do not mistake me," he said, "I have not come to make a recruiting speech, but to address you in the interest of national service. This meant, he said, that every man should give whatever service he could to the State. The Prime Minister's explanation of the object and plan of national service was listened to attentively, with occasional applause. The Prime Minister concluded with an earnest tribute to those who had fallen and with a declaration that the Canadian people wanted no peace that was not victorious. He sat down amid prolonged applause while the band played "Rule Britannia."

A Different Reception If the hearing given to the Prime Minister was respectful and on the whole sympathetic, the reception given to Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Minister of Inland Revenue, was very different. There had been rumors before the meeting of an organized movement by Laval students to spoil the meeting. The gallery was filled with young men of apparently military age, apparently bent on mischief. These young men followed nearly every sentence of the Minister of Inland Revenue with boos and hisses. They represented, it is stated, the younger element of political clubs in Montreal hostile to the Government, but it is difficult to say positively that they actually represented any particular organization.

The hall was numerous, if not well policed, but interruptions, calls and hoots continued through Mr. Patenaude's speech. The Minister spoke in French, urging national service as a high patriotic duty, but his appeal was interrupted and drowned in dissonant howls. He perorated in his address for 15 or 20 minutes, but the last part of his speech was drowned completely. The band then played the Belgian National Anthem, which was received in silence. Then a man in a box, got up and said: "My friends in the gallery, you have given me a very good idea of what the Kaiser would do if he had been here." This remark elicited more noots.

ONTARIO MEN AMONG WINNERS

J. Lloyd Jones, of Burford, Takes Prize at Chicago Stock Exhibition

Chicago, Dec. 7.—The Canadian colony was prominent again yesterday among the winning exhibitors at the International Stock Exposition. The judges of sheep are expected to finish their work to-day. All the Ontario exhibitors have won their usual share of the blue ribbons. Among the Canadian sheep men who have prize winners in the sheep-houses are Peter Arkell and Sons, Tewaters; J. Lloyd Jones, Burford; John Kelly and Sons, Shakespeare; F. B. Gosnell, Highgate; H. M. Lee, Highgate, and Robert McEwen, of London.

Mayor Cane, who has been mayor of Newmarket for the past twenty-seven years, told his associates after a council meeting that he would not stand for re-election. He thinks that it is time for another man to hold the post.

Don't Bake

It is penny wise and pound foolish to do your own baking when Butter, eggs, etc., are so high in price. Baking as we do hundreds of dozens and buying all the ingredients in large quantities, we are in a position to sell them at a price that is much cheaper than you can possibly make them for. Then you have an assortment of the best cakes and pastry to choose from, not only is the quality right but you are saved the trouble and annoyance incidental to baking.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application two, your hair becomes beautifully thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delivious toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALLIES PLEDGED TO THEIR WAR AIMS

Declares Berlin Journal, Which Holds Out No Hope Of Early Peace

Amsterdam, Dec. 6.—The Berlin Voerwaerts, the organ of the German Socialists, in an article headed, "Peace Blind," throws cold water on those who believe that peace is near.

The paper says: "We must be reconciled to the bitter truth that our enemies are too deeply pledged to their war aims to see anything else. They are peace blind. The worst calamities are not to be spared the European people, but one consolation remains and that is that harsh rulers do not rule for long. When even their strong men do not admit their failure."

A Berlin despatch says that the war aims of the German Radicals, as set forth by Prof. Doermann, leader of the Radical party in the Reichstag, are as follows: "We do not reject negotiations if our rulers believe them necessary from a military or economic point of view. We cannot permit the contents of a treaty to be the cause of a new war. We must get back all our colonies. Germany must be assured of her right to exist independently and to develop as she chooses."

Bible Sunday in Toronto

Toronto, Dec. 6.—In connection with Bible Sunday, or annual bible review day, which will be observed next Sunday, December 10th, statistics compiled here show that there has been a large increase in the circulation and study of the bible since the war began. The issue of bibles, in whole or in part, by the British and Foreign Bible Society last year was 11,959,000 copies, those of the American Bible Society over 7,000,000; those of the National Bible Society of Scotland and of the Continental Bible Societies over 4,000,000.

If to these are added the issues of the private bible publishing houses, there will be a total of more than 25,000,000 copies of the scriptures, in whole or in part, published in the past year. This is seven million more than the total estimated issue in 1913. A noteworthy feature is that the circulation in the English language has doubled since the outbreak of the war. The bible, or portions of it, is now translated in 600 languages, 18 new languages having been added since the war, by the British Bible Society. If the estimated number of bibles issued by the Roman Catholic and Greek churches and the Hebrew scriptures among Jews be added to the foregoing totals, the aggregate of last year will be 40,000,000 copies against 28,000,000 or 30,000,000 in 1913.

MUNITION SMASH KILLS TWENTY-SIX

Explosion in London Factory Will, However, Not Affect Output

London, Dec. 6.—Twenty-six women were killed and about thirty injured by an explosion in a munitions factory last night, according to an official announcement, which adds that the effect of the accident upon the munitions output will be negligible.

Official figures from the mines of district 18, Fernie, yesterday, show that 99 per cent. of the men are now at work pending the settlement by a government committee of their claims for increased pay.

ITALY PREPARED FOR LONG FIGHT

Has Now 2,100 Munition Factories in Full Blast

WILL MAINTAIN The War Until Noble and Essential Objects Are Attained

Rome, Dec. 6.—The allies do not desire to force Greece into war, nor do they support any anti-dynastic movement in Greece, asserted Premier Baselli in his report on the war delivered before the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

Premier Baselli reiterated the determination of Italy to maintain the war with her allies until the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro was accomplished. He termed this "the noble and essential object of the war." At the close of his speech he sent a message of greeting to "our valiant Latin sister, Roumania," trusting for her final success. The premier's speech was very long, and in it he recapitulated the whole history of Italy's participation in the war and enumerated the reasons which induced King Victor to enter into the struggle. As a proof that Italy was prepared to push her operations vigorously the premier announced that there were now 2,100 factories working on munition material, the workers being one-fifth women, whose participation both in industries and agriculture was increasing daily. The premier declared that victory would ensure the equilibrium on the Eastern Mediterranean, which he termed one of the chief foundations of Italian policy. He said that Valona would be Italy's strategic post on the Adriatic, from which would radiate her future commercial expansion in the Balkans.

BRITISH TANKS NOW IN DOBRUDJA

Have Taken Part in Fighting There, But None Have Been Lost

London, Dec. 7.—Commander Locker Lampson, who has been in three actions on the Dobrudja front with British naval armored cars, has been wounded, says Reuters' despatch adds that six British petty officers are missing, but that none of the cars have been lost.

Roumanians Will Save Crops

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Dec. 7.—Since the hostilities against Roumania began 100,000 Roumanians have been brought to German prison camps, according to the Exchange Telegraph Company quoting The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger. The paper attributes to German military authorities the belief that the Roumanians tend to withdraw from Moldavia, abandoning the whole of Wallachia. By this step they would have only a one hundred mile front to defend. The Lokal Anzeiger reports that prior to its capture, Bucharest was nearly deserted, and the city was uninjured.

An Iron Cross For Civilians

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Dec. 7.—The German Emperor has established a decoration for civilians such as munition workers similar to the Iron Cross, according to the Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, quoting The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger.

SECRET SESSION. Paris, Dec. 6.—10.45 p.m.—(Delayed)—The Chamber of Deputies held a ninth secret sitting here today at the conclusion of which the doors were unlocked. After deliberation it was decided to hold another brief session at two o'clock tomorrow at which motions arising out of the week's secret discussion will be examined. This session will be followed by a public one at which the motions will be debated and voted upon.

Personnel of the New Cabinet

Continued from page one. Provincial Liberal newspapers The Manchester Guardian and Liverpool Post, make a plea to Liberals to give the government fair chance, as it is generally agreed that it is the embodiment of British determination to win war. According to one estimate Mr. Lloyd-George can rely on support of virtually all the Liberal members and 79 Liberals, hopes to obtain the backing of Labor members who will come final decision at a meeting to be held at the end of the week. As far as the cabinet is concerned, the new premier has a new in A. Bonar Law, Lord Derby, Curzon, Sir Frederick E. Smith, Sir Edward Carson, while Viscount Reading, the lord chief justice, likely to join the ministry. Liberal members may be expected from such as Sir Fred Cawley, member of the House Commons from the Prestwick division of Lancahire, and Sir G. Pollard, member from the division of Lancahire, who after the public has heard little of
