BULGARS AIM AT EXTERMINATION OF SERB NATION

Insurrection Caused by Unspeakable Atrocities Committed.
HANG MAN BY TONGUE
Children Exiled To Turkey
Choose Suicide to Slavery

Paris, Sept. 13.—(Correspondence of Associated Press.)—These have come into the possession of the Serbian authorities, recently, a letter, written by a Serbian patriot who barely escaped hanging by the Bulgarians. He describes in some detail the insurrections in Serbia in April last, the fate they met, and unspeakable cruelties visited upon the insurrectionists by the Bulgarians.

His letter (the original is at present in the Serbian archives, but can be seen at any time) is written with his blood from his hiding place in the Serbian mountains, and is addressed to his friend, a Serbian captain, serving with the Saloniki forces. The captain fell into captivity not long after the receipt of the missive, but succeeded in smuggling it out by means of a Serbian sentry.

Hang Them By Tongues
The letter frankly advises all Serbians to kill themselves rather than to submit to capture; it tells of the forcible deportation of thousands of children to Constantinople; of the frightful tortures inflicted upon prisoners before they are executed by the Bulgarians, such as hanging by the tongue, of gibbets erected everywhere to dispose of Serbian prisoners of war, especially of insurrectionists.

The names of both sender and recipient have been suppressed for obvious reasons, but both are on file with the original letter, which runs as follows:

"Here I am in a mountain which is actually, my sad residence. I escaped on April 25 from the Bulgarian prison, where I was incarcerated with twenty comrades after having been surrounded and captured in the revolt near ——. There had been 25,000 of us insurgents; we had moreover fought with a German division that defeated us and drove us to flight. Then we had been attacked by two Bulgarian divisions armed with cannon and machine guns. I was taken, put in prison and condemned to be hanged, but, during the night my friend—, arrived with a band of sentinels and rescued me. In consequence I was able to reach the mountain. There are more than 5,000 of us insurgents. Nearly all of the other mountains are filled with insurgents."

Hang Women and Children
"The Bulgarians had summoned all the male population between the ages of 15 and 45 in order to incorporate them in the army and sent them immediately to the front. At the same time they had gathered together all young people between 13 and 15 and had sent them to Constantinople. It was this vapid process of these monstrous Mongols that provoked the revolt. The unfortunate mothers, exasperated by the cries of their children as they were carried off by force, attacked the Bulgarians with stones. This was a genuine revolt, to which the Bulgarians replied with gibbets to which they hanged women and children. Finally the people, exhausted and revolting, threw themselves upon the Bulgarian depots. Men and women carried off arms and ammunition, first at Leskovatz, Lebane, Vranja, Vlasotintze, Zayetchar, Knjagevatz, Pofarevatz and the villages."

"It was agreed that the insurgents of Zayetchar and its suburbs should march on Nish, that the rest of us from Prokupatz, Leskovatz and Vranja, should do the same and, reunited, should take possession of the city. Unfortunately those from Zayetchar were later, we got ahead of them and had, alone, to withstand an attack from a German division. We beat them and took away two batteries and 800 soldiers. The battle took place near Gitoradja. From there we carried Lebane, Leskovatz and Prokupatz of which we made ourselves masters. Then we attacked Nish, carrying the depots and half of the city."

Defeated by Cowardly Strategy
"Meanwhile two Bulgarian divisions arrived, and a bloody battle developed; we should have been able to defeat the Bulgarians, as we had defeated the Germans if they had not used a cowardly strategy to prevent us from attacking them; they forced the women and children to march in front of their ranks. Unable to fire upon our own people, we withdrew as far as Korvingrad, where a new battle began and where the Hungarians attacked us from behind. We made an opening and took refuge in the mountains. Since I was dead from fatigue, I was taken prisoner, and with a dozen other insurgents was condemned to be hanged. Waiting while the gibbet was prepared, we were incarcerated in the prison of Prokupatz, but one of our band killed the garrison and rescued us."

Children Committed to Slavery
"So here I am in the mountain of ——. It may be that when you read these lines I shall no longer be among the living, but the insurrection cannot be snuffed out so easily, for the Bulgarians are proceeding systematically to exterminate our nation. On the 25th of April they placed aboard trains at Belotintze 5,000 children between the ages of 12 and 15, bound for Constantinople. Many of the children jumped from the cars along the way, and found death in that manner."

"The Bulgarians gather the entire population for the purpose of vaccinating everyone. But instead of injecting serum against cholera or smallpox, they inoculated them with contagious diseases. One of the doctors admitted that to those who had

*The Immortal Cry of Canada at the Second

The defence of Ypres following the first ghastly gas attack April 22, 1915, exalts all history. By it our men were transfigured and the undying, imperishable Soul of Canada revealed.

In the name of these Heroes of Ypres, Festubert, Givenchy, Vimy Ridge, Lens, The Somme, Verdun—aye and the Deathless "Old Contemptibles"—we beseech you, Women of Canada, to Dedicate Yourself and Your Families to War Service by signing the Food Service Pledge.

The sacrifice is not great. We merely want you to substitute other foods for part of the white bread, beef and bacon your family now eat.

"What follows almost defies description. The effect of these poisonous gases was so virulent as to render the whole of the line held by the French Division practically incapable of any action at all."
The Stand of the Canadians
"The left flank of the Canadian Division was thus left dangerously exposed to serious attack in flank; and there appeared to be a prospect of their being overwhelmed and of a successful attempt by the Germans to cut off the British troops occupying the salient to the East."
"In spite of the danger to which they were exposed the Canadians held their ground with a magnificent display of tenacity and courage; and it is not too much to say the bearing and conduct of these splendid troops averted a disaster which might have been attended with the most serious consequences."

When baking use one-third oatmeal, corn, barley or rye flour. Or, order some brown bread from your baker each day. Substitute for beef and bacon such equally nutritious foods as fish, peas, lentils, potatoes, nuts, bananas, etc. Third, and this is most important—positively prevent the waste of a single ounce of food in your home. Next week a Food Service Pledge and Window Card will be delivered to you. The Pledge is your Dedication to War Service—The Window Card is your Emblem of Honour. Sign the one and display the other.

to the mountains with their children.
"The Bulgarians have raised gibbets on the bridge at Peskovatz, at Belotintze, Vlasotintze, Lebane, Nish, Knjagevatz and at other places, and on them have hung people, women and children, compelling the others to help them in their torturous."
Torture is Heinous
One of the notable Serbs who was hanged, the writer states, was a certain Jordan, registrar of a municipality, who, in reward, was hanged by the tongue. The writer continued:
"I have neither time nor space to describe my misfortune, but I can tell you briefly that if you do not come by the month of September, it will not be worth while coming at all. It will be too late.

"The hanging of twelve Serbian soldiers, made prisoner on the Saloniki front, was a sad sight. Their sentence was read to them, including the words: "Because you have abandoned your flag and your Bulgarian brothers, you cannot longer be loyal Bulgarian subjects." So it should be told our soldiers who are fighting on the Saloniki front that they had best kill themselves rather than let themselves be taken prisoner, for these savages hang their prisoners of war, after having tortured them."
"There, my dear —, is a faint picture of all that is going on in our unfortunate Serbia. No power could ever stifle the Serbian insurrection, which is spreading about the entire country. There are even among us Bulgarians who have fled from their own army."

OBJECT TO VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY
Montreal Frenchman Exonerated From Charge of Killing
By Courier-Local Wire
Montreal, Sept. 12.—Exception was taken yesterday to the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Henry Haines, who died from a fractured skull after being struck by Arthur Houle at the Angus' shop, by Haines' two sons.

Houle was excused and one of the Haines brothers is alleged to have said that the jury, which was composed of French-Canadian men, had been influenced by the spirit of nationality in excusing Houle.
The evidence showed Haines, boss of a gang of railway workmen, called Houle to duty Frenchman and a coward, and challenged him to fight. Houle hit Haines under the jaw and he fell to the ground, striking his head. Houle said he had hit his head, but did not mean to kill Haines.
The coroner's jury explained the circumstances were against Houle, but the jury decided they would probably have done the same under the circumstances.
