

Local News

ASKS DAMAGES.

The owner of property at 32 Rawdon street is asking for damages for the crushing of the sidewalk by one of the city trucks delivering coal.

THE MARKETS.

This morning on the market a few vendors arrived, and the number of buyers was very small. Apples were the principal line of produce offered for sale.

COURT OF REVISION.

The Court of Revision for the Township of Brantford will be held on the 8th of next month. There are about seventy appeals of the voters' list.

NAMES OMITTED.

In the list of flowers at the funeral of Miss Beatrice Garton, omission was made of sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Clark, and from the 3M bible class of Wesley Sunday school.

ON THE JOB.

Amid the many who have done excellent work in connection with the influenza epidemic mention can well be made of the splendid services rendered by Chief Lewis in connection with the ambulance work. He has been on the job night and day.

USE INCINERATOR.

Col. H. F. Leonard, city clerk, has received a communication from the North American Incinerator Co. recommending the use of an incinerator for hospital purposes. The machine is said to be particularly useful for the treatment of Spanish influenza.

DAMAGE ACTION.

A writ has been issued in a damage action by Mrs. Helen Andrews, of Dufferin Ave., claiming $2,000 from Elgin Cronkwright, of Teeterville, in respect of injuries received by Mrs. Andrews at Lorne bridge on 27th of July last, through being struck by defendant's motor truck. Jones and Hewitt issued the writ.

SCHOOLS STILL CLOSED.

According to a statement made yesterday afternoon by J. W. Shepperson, chairman of the Board of Education, the schools of the city will not open for at least another week and probably not then unless there is a subsiding of the influenza epidemic.

WORK GOING AHEAD.

The work on the Grace Church Parish Hall is well under way and big strides of progress are being made. The brick work has been commenced above the ground and the steel beams are being put in position for the support of the walls.

NO GREAT DEMAND.

According to Messrs. Glover and McCauley, who are in charge of the distribution of the city supply of Hall, there is no particularly heavy rush for the fiery liquid. The majority of the physicians of the city are reluctant to issue prescriptions calling for whiskey unless absolutely necessary.

Business Continued

The Offices of The Jarvis Optical Co.
Are Open For Business

JARVIS OPTICAL CO.
CONSULTING OPTOMETRISTS
128 Colborne Street
Phone 1283 for appointments

NEILL SHOE CO

Many Bargains Will Be Offered on Saturday

Here are a few:

- Child's patent button, cloth top, size 7 to 5 1-2. Regular $2.00. Saturday $1.48
- Misses' box kip lace boot, Neolin sole and rubber heel, size 11 to 2. Regular $3.50. Saturday $2.48
- Men's box kip blucher cut lace boot, size 6 to 10. Regular $3.50. Saturday $2.98
- Little gents' chocolate kid lace boot, size 8 to 10 1-2. Regular $2.50. Saturday $1.78

NEILL SHOE CO.
158 COLBORNE ST.

OBITUARY

REV. W. F. DERMODY.

Many Brantforders will regret to learn of the death of Rev. Father W. F. Dermody of St. Joseph's Church, Hamilton, who fell a victim to influenza Saturday. Rev. Father Dermody was well known in Brantford, having been temporary curate at St. Basil's Church during the summer of 1915. He was one of the youngest priests in the Hamilton diocese, being but 25 years of age, and had been for two years chaplain of the military hospital at Hamilton. He was born and bred in Hamilton. Rev. Dean Brady was in Hamilton yesterday, attending the funeral, and conducted the service at the grave.

MR. F. CUDMORE.

The death occurred last night at his residence, 179 Albion street, of Mr. Philip Cudmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cudmore. He was 25 years of age, and had lived in Brantford all his life, and was in the transfer business. He was seized with Spanish influenza two weeks ago, and the trouble developed into pneumonia. He leaves a wife and a father, mother, three sisters, Mrs. Dwyer, Peel St., Mrs. Twyman and Pearl at home, and two brothers, William at home, and Sydney, Park Ave.

R. CONWAY.

The death occurred this morning from Spanish influenza of Mr. Russell A. Conway, 36 Terrace Hill street. He had been ill for a couple of weeks from the malady. He was an employee of the Brantford Carriage Company. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his great loss.

A. W. AITKEN.

After a week's illness from influenza, Alfred W. Aitken, an enthusiastic bowler and one of the city's best known young men, died this morning at his home, 223 Park avenue. The late Mr. Aitken was a member of the office staff of Gould, Shapley and Muir, and was an active member of the Pastime Bowling Club. He was a member of one of the two firms which won the Penman Trophy at Paris some weeks ago, and had since been playing to defend the cup. A wide circle of friends will learn with regret of his passing, and will extend sympathy to his widow and child. The deceased was 31 years of age.

PERCY MARSH.

The death occurred yesterday of Percy Marsh, aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Marsh, Brantford Township. The funeral will take place to Mount Hope Cemetery.

BEATRICE EDWARDS.

The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Beatrice Edwards, aged 23 years, the beloved wife of Thomas Edwards. Spanish influenza was responsible for her death. The funeral will take place from the late family residence, 153 East avenue, to St. Joseph's Cemetery on Thursday.

CHARLES LAMB.

The death occurred yesterday of a member of the local Chinese community in the person of Charles Lamb, at his home, 124 Oxford street.

ELIZABETH JANE CARTER.

The death occurred yesterday of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben T. Carter. Elizabeth Jane, at the residence, 45 Rawdon street. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends.

MISS NEFF.

The death occurred at the general hospital this afternoon of Miss Neff, a graduate nurse of the institution some four years ago. She had since been practicing her profession in the city, and went to the hospital to help out when she became a victim of Spanish influenza and pneumonia. She had been in the city some time, and was possessed of a most kindly and lovable nature.

S. STEEDMAN.

There fell asleep this morning at his home, 46 Lyons Avenue, Mr. Stewart Steedman, one of the many employees of the Courier who have been suffering from the prevailing epidemic. He was seized a week ago last Saturday, and pneumonia subsequently developed. He was a native of Scotland, and had worked in this office for two years in the ad. department. He was thirty-two years of age, and leaves a wife to mourn his loss. He was a capable and efficient workman, and his passing is deeply mourned by all the members of the staff, whose respect and liking he had richly earned.

LOYD MCINTYRE.

The death occurred this morning of Mr. Lloyd McIntyre, 139 Erie avenue. He was taken ill with Spanish influenza last Tuesday, and the trouble developed into pneumonia. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McIntyre, 89 Erie avenue, and was born and lived all his life in this city. Since youth he had been a valued employee of the Massey-Harris Company. He leaves a wife and three children.

LAID AT REST.

MRS. R. H. ROBBINS. Many friends learned with regret of the death of Mildred A. Taylor, beloved wife of Robert H. Robbins, 113 Spring St. The deceased was but 23 years of age, and leaves a sorrowing husband, one son, Milton, to mourn the loss of his loving wife and mother. She also leaves her mother, Mrs. Perrot, of Milton, one sister, Mrs. Fred Whitaker, Sheridan St., city, and one brother, Milton Taylor, of Toronto. The funeral took place from the residence of her husband, at 113 Spring St., to St. Joseph's Cemetery, at 10 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Padden.

LEUT. J. KELLY.

The funeral took place yesterday morning of the late Leut. John Kelly from his late residence, 53 Serah street, to St. Joseph's Cemetery. The services were conducted

Brantford's Greatest Store

E. B. CROMPTON & CO. LIMITED.

There Will Be No Large Merchandise Advertising

by this store until the Epidemic has been conquered. In the meantime we shall try and distribute the business of the day more widely by offering each day different items of merchandise at exact cost or less. These items will not be advertised and will be on sale only in the morning. Watch for the green price tickets. We hope by this method to induce you to shop in the morning, when the aisles are not crowded. A well ventilated store with fresh air being forced through each floor every fifteen minutes, broad aisles, flooded with daylight and sunlight, and a wealth of new goods to supply your every demand.

NOBBY LITTLE HATS To Wear With the Coats

Smart Little Hats in velvet, tweed and hatter's plush, with drooping brim and soft crown, shown in a variety of shades. Priced specially from $1.25 to $3.50. Another Striking Example of Smart Creation is shown in the corded velvet, velours, in the popular colors about style, in colors of black, navy, cerise, brown and black and white. Priced at from $1.25 to $1.75. For the Boy's Hat of from 1 to 3 years is shown in cream velvet, doris, white corded silk and cream cashmere, prettily trimmed with bows of ribbon, and fur. Priced at .75c to $2.00. For the School Miss of 10 to 16 years is shown in soft drooping velvet shapes in various shades of the crushable tweeds, in colors of black and black and white checks. Priced at $1.50 to $4.50. —Second Floor.

PLENTY OF GOOD Warm Coats for the Kiddies to Snuggle Into. Priced from $5.50 Up

Mothers will find a splendid assortment of nobby little coats here. The cloths are corduroy, nice mixed tweeds, soft heather mixtures, plushes and blanket cloths. Numerous smart styles are shown, with high, close-fitting collars. All coats are well lined and interlined. Colors are navy, dark brown, Russian green, Belgian blue, light and dark grey.

Prices Commence at $5.50, $6.00, $6.50 up to $14.50

Children's Dept., Second Floor

Men's Ribbed Army Socks Good Fall weight and good sizes up to 11-inch. 50c Special, per pair. —Main Floor.

HANDKERCHIEFS Regularly 12 1/2c Each Wednesday, 3 for 25c One can not have too many handkerchiefs. Isn't that true? How about these? Dainty Handkerchiefs—Some of them all white with dainty border and embroidered corners. Some also with initials. Regularly 12 1-2c. Wednesday an extra special 25c 3 for —Main Floor.

Mourning Millinery

This is a specialty with us. We have experienced talent at work on this branch, one who has knowledge as to what is just right without undue conspicuousness.

FLAT SAILOR SHAPE—In mourning silk with pretty double fold around edge of brim, and trimmed with a pretty dressy bow of silk. Priced at $6.00

A BECOMING MUSHROOM—With its drooping brim and medium height crown, trimmed with tiny folds and buttons. Priced at $10.00

A DRESSY TURBAN—Of mourning silk, with rows of colored trimming and corded ornament. Priced at $9.00

White Repp Skirts for Nurses $1.65 up to $2.50 Made of good quality repp and twill. All sizes. —Second Floor.

Linen Handkerchiefs

With the prices mounting daily and pure linen scarcely procurable, you'll appreciate this sale of pure linen handkerchiefs at attractive prices.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs

—Plain hemstitched 'kerchiefs, with hems in various widths. Excellent value at the regular price, 20c each. Very special for Wednesday, 6 for .90c

Heavy Suiting Tweeds In handsome grey mixtures 40 to 42 inches wide. Value today $1.35. Special, yard. —Main Floor.

High-Class Corsets Values up to $5.00 At $2.98 and $3.95

Broken sizes representing the odd pairs of our best makers' goods.

Wool Cheviots and Serges

And when we say Wool we mean All-Wool, every thread—And 52 to 54 inches wide, in navy and French blue. Worth today $3.50. Special, yd. $2.48 —Main Floor.

E. B. Crompton & Co., Ltd.

by Rev. Father Padden.

T. P. IVENS.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon of the late Thomas Perkins Ivens from his late residence, 27 Brighton Row, to Greenwood Cemetery. Rev. St. E. Marshall conducted the services at the house and grave.

HAZEL SYRLE.

The remains of the late Hazel Syrle were laid to rest yesterday afternoon at Mount Hope Cemetery. Services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. St. E. Marshall.

MRS. MEGGITT AND DAUGHTER.

The double funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Meggitt and her daughter, took place yesterday from the family residence, 31 Altona street, to Mount Hope Cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. Fitzpatrick at the house and grave.

THOS. H. WOOD.

The funeral took place yesterday of the late Thomas Henry Wood, a victim of influenza. The remains were sent to Bronte, where interment will take place.

MRS. GARDNER.

The body of the late Mrs. John Gardner was tenderly laid away in Mount Hope yesterday afternoon. The deceased was only ill about a week. She was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1852, and would have been 56 years old the 25th of November. Her maiden name was Lavinia Henderson. Thirty-one years ago she was married to her late husband. Miss Ella May of Central school, Miss Ruby of Cook-shut Flow Co., Miss Pearl of American Radiator Co., are the three daughters left, and Mr. Jack of Studebaker garage, her only son, all of whom have the sympathy of their many friends in their sore bereavement. Mrs. Gardner was an old and esteemed member of the First Baptist church. Two sisters and two brothers survive her and reside in Alabama, U.S.A., and would have been 56 years of age the 25th of November. Mrs. Gardner was a devoted mother, an exemplary Christian woman, and a loyal citizen of Brantford, and will be greatly missed.

David Alexander, acting pastor of the church, was in charge of the service, and was assisted by Rev. J. H. Simon. The following deacons of the First Baptist acted as pall bearers: Mr. John P. Schultz, J. Dawson, C. Parsons, Q. B. Hitchon, W. Pierce, F. Chalcraft. The following floral tributes were laid on the grave: Wreaths, family Cockshut Flow Co. Miss Draper and Charlie Draper, Mr. and Mrs. R. Orichon and Franklin, Master Horshoers Association, Jos. Liporich, basket, Mrs. Heddie and Mrs. Sinder, cross, Central School teachers; sprays, Miss Gardner's Sunday school class, Harry and Norman Hopes, American Radiator Co., Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Ivey, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Minshall.

MRS. WILLIAMS. The late Mrs. Catherine Jane Williams was laid to rest in the family burying ground at Delhi yesterday afternoon. Rev. David Alexander, acting pastor of First Baptist church, conducted a funeral service at her daughter's Mrs. Elmore Kitchen's, West street. The deceased lady was ripe in years, being in her 83rd year, and was a life member of Delhi Baptist church, and a woman of fine Christian character, who will be greatly missed by her loved ones.

CLERK'S ADVERTISEMENT OF COURT IN NEWSPAPER. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Court will be held, pursuant to the Ontario Voters' List Act, by His Honor the Judge of the County Court of the County of Brant at Grandview School on the 8th day of November, 1918, at 10 o'clock a.m., to hear and determine complaints of errors and omissions in the Voters' List of the Municipality of the Township of Brantford for 1918.

Dated the 22nd day of October, 1918.

JOHN A. SMITH, Clerk of the Municipality of the Township of Brantford.

PROMINENT FIGURES AT BRITISH LABOR CONVENTION. From left to right, these figures at the recent convention of the British Trades Union Congress at Derby are: Havelock Wilson, head of the Sailors' organization; Premier Hughes of Australia; and Sam Gompers, the American Labor Leader.

PITY THE POOR INDIAN

This month the Alberta and Saskatchewan Indians will market 8,000 fat steers at top-of-the-market prices.

CITY CLERK TO BE POOR-BAR OF GUELPH

Under the form of city government to be introduced in Guelph with the new year, the direction of civic affairs will hereafter centre in the city clerk.

SHELBOURNE GLOATS OVER SOME PUMPKINS.

At Shelbourne, Frank Gabriel planted a single pumpkin seed in the spring. The present fruit, which are five pumpkins, the small est of which weighs 25 pounds, and the largest thirty-seven.

Plans mapped out by the strike committee are being carried out, despite the threat of the imprisonment of the workers. Yesterday the coachmen at the C.P.R. quit work.

Mrs. Alice Wellman, of Tupperville, was dismissed at Chatham on a charge of bigamy, the prosecution failing to prove that she had gone to Detroit with intent to marry a man named Taylor, whom she married in that city in September, 1913.

George Dewar of Timmins, succumbed to gunshot wounds while on a hunting trip. In some unknown way, his gun exploded while he was essential damage, most probably