-John S. Lytle of Pittsburg, a resident in Regina in the early days of the city, passed away yesterday at the advanced age of 81 years.

-R. B. Gordon, of Indian Head, a well-known Regina old-timer, is in the city attending the synod. He is at the King's.

-Arthur Chate representing the Winnipeg Elevator Co., Mr. Hume and Mr. Callum, of Winnipeg, were visitors to the city yesterday.

-Mr. Wallace, lately of the J. I. Case Co., Winnipeg, and who was formerly with the company here has been transferred back to Regina.

-Miss M. Wood, one of the head teachers of Haverall College, Toronto, arrived from the west on Tuesday evening, and is a guest of Mrs. Perry, at the Barracks.

-R. J. Gwynne, overseer of Grenfell, is in the city attending the synod. Mr. Gwynne has the reputation of being one of the most efficient overseers in the whole West.

-C. H. Brooks, who has a home-stead near Govan, has furnished The Leader with samples of wheat taken from that district which it is expected will be ready for cutting in a fortnight.

-Hon. Senator and Mrs. J. P. B. Casgrain, of Montreal, arrived in the city yesterday, and are guests at Government House. They are both much impressed with the appearance of the capital.

-His Honour the Lieutenant Governor returned from Winnipeg yesterday morning. While in Manitoba, he made a trip to St. Francis Xavier where he is erecting a monument in memory of his late brother.

-The provincial licensing commission met in the city yesterday to consider certain applications. The application for a license for the Wawota hotel was granted, those of the hotel at North Portal and McMillan, of Humboldt, being held over.

-The case of the man Mackie, charged in connection with certain cheese and land transactions, was mentioned before Magistrate Trant yesterday, but held over to be dealt with by Magistrate McLaughlin, by whom the case has already been partially heard.

-Mr. G. Campbell, of the law office of Donald McMaster, K. C., Montreal, who has been on a trip west as far as Victoria, arrived in the city on No. 96 yesterday afternoon, and left on the morning's No. 2 for the east. While here, he was a guest of Lieutenant Governor and Madame Forget.

-For some considerable time past an addition to Government House has been under consideration, and proposals to this end will likely be submitted at the next session of the legislature. The proposed extension would probably be built on the west side of the present building and would not be carried beyond the ground floor.

From Friday Morning's Leader.
-Hon. Senator and Mrs. J. P. B. Casgrain, who were guests at Government House for a day, left on the Trans-Canada yesterday afternoon for the west.

-Miss Edith Conlan of Regina, Sask., is visiting her cousin, E. J. H. Montgomery, 56 Cumberland street, accompanied by his sister, Miss P. Montgomery, Carleton Place, Ottawa Journal.

The non delivery of material is likely to cause some delay in the work to be carried out by the Municipal Construction Co. Meanwhile the company is carrying out some water-work extensions which the city had intended to do by day labor.

-H. Ramsey-Morton of Christchurch, New Zealand, is a visitor in the city en route west. When Mr. Morton reaches his far distant home he will have made the tour around the world no less than four times, and during his travels, have visited 27 different countries.

From Saturday's Morning Leader
-Sheriff Duncan left last evening for Yellow Grass.

-Judge Johnston left last evening for Moose Jaw to hold court.

-For all messages for the editorial department of The Leader ring up phone No. 617.

-Robert Sinton returned to the city on Saturday after judging at Fairmeade. Yesterday Mr. Sinton went north to Davidson.

-Mr. and Mrs. Begin, of Prince Albert, who have been guests at Government House for about a week, returned home yesterday morning.

-The contract for the new court house at Saskatoon has been awarded to the Saskatchewan Building and Construction Co., Ltd., Regina.

-Mr. Clifford Walker, eldest son of Mr. Harry Walker, and until quite lately a member of the R.N.W.M.P. Police, at Battleford, has left the force and returned to the capital.

The little six year old son of W. G. Pettigall had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon when he was knocked down by a passing rig. Fortunately beyond breaking his slate and scattering his books upon the roadway, no great damage was done.

-The Francis Board of Trade has issued a tastefully got up little booklet dealing with the prosperous little Arcola line town. The publication, which bears the imprint of the Francis Gazette, affords a good idea of the progress and prospects of one of Saskatchewan's numerous hunting centres which date back so far as 1900.

-That roses other than the wild variety indigenous to prairie soil can be successfully grown in the west has been amply demonstrated during the present season by Mr. Robson, who despite the unfavorable conditions which have prevailed this year has grown some splendid specimens roses out of doors. Yesterday Mr. Robson forwarded to eastern fields a specially fine bloom which would convince the most skeptical of easterners that the west is not a frozen desert.

-An ill-clad young coon named Josephine Turner took her stand nervously before Magistrate Trant yesterday morning, on the charge of having wandered about without visible means of subsistence, and only after a tiresome amount of explanation admitted that she understood what the summons meant. Her guileless replies and certain questions touching her recent doings roused the court to mirth, and incidentally convicted her of vagabondage. She was sentenced to a month's imprisonment.

-P. McAra, J.C., returned to the city on Sunday from Fort William, whether he went as the Saskatchewan representative to the recent convention of Canadian Municipalities, Mr. McAra originally intended proceeding eastward from Fort William on an extended vacation, but the weather was such that he decided to return home. Speaking of the storms experienced at the head of the lakes, Mr. McAra said that so severe were they that the street car and telephone and telegraph services were practically put out of business.

MEN LOOK AT THESE SHIRTS AT $1.00

You cannot equal this snap in soft front shirts. No, not if you want direct to the factory where they are made. Sterling Wash Fabrics of Madras, Chambrays, Cambrics, etc., in an exclusive array of patterns. Many of these patterns are so new and "good" according to the maker he is offering them in his Fall samples.

As one cannot sell people gold dollars at 65 cents without giving a reason, we must explain this special purchase of shirts. The makers had several dozens made up and as they were the last of his Summer's stock, a cash bid got us the lot.

In such cases we invariably turn the advantage over to our customers and here you are.

Regular $1.75 and $2.00 soft front shirt in a surprising big range of patterns and sizes. This week $1.00

HAND TAILORED CLOTHING FOR MEN NEVER WAS SO LOW IN PRICE

YOUR SIZE IS HERE IN SOME OF THE POPULAR PATTERNS BUT NOT IN ALL. This end of the season clearing sale of 20th Century and Fit-Rite suits at $11.95 and $15.95 and other good wearables at equally absurd prices, is lots of fun if we don't make much money at it. We see a lot of new people, and every one of them goes away with a bargain or two and a good opinion of us.

The good opinion is our best profit; and when you see these $20 and $15 suits we're selling at $15.95 and $11.95 respectively you'll say we deserve it.

Choice custom made and popular brand of shirts as high as $2.00 selling this week at $1.00
