ATHENS, ONT., MARCH 3, 1889.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Staff of the Local Announcements Collected Night Down.

The best 25-cent tea in town, at James' grocery.

Saturday was a busy day with Athens merchants.

A large stock of spring goods have arrived at P. Wiltse & Co's.

For sap spouts, tapping bits and braces, go to G. W. Beach's.

Miss Judd, the evangelist, is holding revival services at Eganville.

Statements and note heads $1.75 per thousand at the Reporter's office.

New spring goods arriving in large quantities this week at G. W. Beach's.

The new Roman Catholic Church at Kempsville was dedicated on Wednesday last.

The midland fair, Kingston, will be held this year from August 23rd to September 7th.

Germ wheat meal, rolled wheat, desiccated wheat and Graham flour, at James' grocery.

On Wednesday evening a Branch of the Catholic Mutual Association was organized at Westport.

Just arrived, direct from the ocean, fresh cod fish, haddock and herring, only 54 cents per pound, at James' grocery.

A very old couple were lately married in Escot. The bridegroom, Mr. B. Mallory, was 70 years of age, and the bride, Mrs. Hutchinson, was over 80.

On Sunday next, at 7 p.m., Rev. Stuarne Lytle, of Leiston, will lecture at St. James' Church, Halleon.

There will be a musical entertainment in connection with the lecture.

We were unable to insert correspondence from Delta last week, and in the interim the information therein contained has been killed by the general.

Bills are out announcing a series of 27 Scott Act campaign meetings at various localities in the county of Leeds.

Athens meetings will be held on the 15th inst., and will be addressed by the Rev. D. Ross, M. A., and the Rev. A. McGillivray.

Phil Wiltse has two ladies' astrachan mittens and one extra fine coat robe left of his stock for the winter of 1888-9.

The lady or gentleman who calls and secures them will get the bargain given in Athens this season, and one that will surprise them.

The opening days of March were beautifully fine and mild. Our old friend Uiram Holmes says they remind him of the first week of March, 1834, when all the snow disappeared, followed by an early spring, marred, however, by a snow storm on the 15th of May.

Referring to Miss Maude Addison's appearance in the Charity Concert last Thursday evening, the Reporter says:—She is an exceedingly clever young lady, and is destined to make her mark on the stage. The same critic also says:—"Mr. C. C. Slack, a character singer, gave the audience a treat."

Owing to the unreasonable weather we find our stock of overcoats much too large for this season of the year. In order to clear them out we have cut the prices away down, regardless of cost. When in Brockville, see our $4 overcoats. W. E. Gilpinie, Nelson's old stand, King st., four doors east of Buell st., Brockville.

Fisher's Carriage works are this spring better than ever prepared to supply the wants of the public, in the line of fine carriages, light and heavy waggon, etc. Every vehicle is manufactured from good material by skilled workmen, under Mr. Fisher's personal supervision, and is sold under a positive guarantee for one year.

Persons wishing to have sale bills printed will please note the fact that we have made such arrangements with Mr. Dowsley as will enable us to fix the price at which his services are desired, thus saving the seller the trouble of consulting with him. Those who get their sale bills printed at this office will receive a free notice of the sale in the Reporter.

There died at Coleburg, on Wednesday, the 27th of February, Dr. R. Stedman, known to many of our readers, as he practiced his profession in Athens for several years. A short time ago he removed to Brockville and opened a drug store there. This not proving successful, he determined to try the west, and located at Coleburg, Delaware Co., Iowa, where, until his death, he carried on a successful practice. He leaves a wife, who has for years practiced with him, and a family of adult children.

A meeting of the Directors of the Brockville E. D. Farmers' Institute was held at the St. Lawrence Hall, Brockville, on Saturday, to make arrangements for the next meeting of the Institute which is to be held in Brockville the last of this month.

The president and secretary and a special committee to make the necessary arrangements, and to endeavor to make a change in the time of meeting given by the Professors who are expected to be present.

By G. G. A. Notes.

The secretary wishes us, on behalf of the association, to thank the following for the donations mentioned:—Albert Hagerman, a stove; Mr. J. H. Hays, two chairs and a lamp; J. Thompson, a lamp; D. Fisher, a chair; J. W. Koz, an arm chair; Mrs. Donovan, a picture; Stevens Bros., a table; J. E. Lamb, a chair; Mrs. Chamberlain, two chairs; G. K. Brennan, a chair. Many things are still wanted for the furnishing of the rooms, and the association respectfully asks for donations from more of their friends.
