Midsummer Clearing

Our motto has always been to keep all the short ends of dry goods and odd pairs of shoes sold out, and thus keep our stock clean, new and complete.
Following above plan, we are offering the balance of our Muslins, Lawn Waists, Cambric Underwear, etc., at specially low prices.

We have several lots of Ladies and Misses' Oxford Shoes, in which the sizes have become broken and to clean the odd sizes we offer $1.50, $1.40, $1.35 and $1.25 shoes at $1.00; $1.00 Oxfords at 75c.

Try us for Shoe Dressing. Our stock is very complete in both liquid and paste dressings in all the different makes—black, tan, chocolate and white.

Mr Jere Coughlin, the well-known journalist of Watertown, N. Y., a native of this district, died on Wednesday last, aged 54 years.

Miss Edna Steacy has purchased the millinery business successfully conducted here by Miss Falkner. The continued illness of her father prompted Miss Falkner to make the sale.

Kingston License Inspector caused a writ to be issued charging Rev T. E. Burke, pastor of Brock street church, with defamatory libel. The inspector was accused by Mr Burke of secret ly drinking in licensed houses.

Cheese ruled at 11½ in Brockville on Thursday and there was the largest offering of the season. There is again an agitation to have the day of meeting changed to Saturday, and this question will probably be debated this week.

Haying has been in progress under very favorable conditions during the past week. The crop is not above the average, but it is much better than last year and as there are not so many animals to feed there will probably be enough to meet home needs.

Messrs. Claude Laforta and Fred Rockwood, employed in a factory down east, are now enjoying a holiday at their homes here. Their employer had failed to furnish and equip the factory as required by the inspector, and it was condemned and closed until improvements are made.

The Reporter has been asked as to whether a student who wrote on the exam to qualify for the teaching profession might justly demand a return of the money paid for writing, in view of the fact that the government with drew, after the money had been paid, the privilege of attending the model school. The money was paid on the unreserved assurance of the Minister of Education that the Model would be continued this year; the right to "model" here was an important part of the consideration for which the money was paid; and since the government is not willing to "deliver the goods" it would appear only fair that the money should be returned.

Pain will depart in exactly 20 minutes if one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets is taken. Pain anywhere. Remember! Pain always means congestion, blood pressure—nothing else. Headache is blood pressure; toothache is blood pressure on the sensitive nerve. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets also called Pink Pain Tablets—quickly and safely coax this blood pressure away from pain centres. Painful periods with women get instant relief. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by All Dealers.

It is the Imperial Life Assurance Co. that Mr Leslie Wyse is representing in this district, and it is one of the very best of the standard companies.

It is now positively stated that the new electric road connecting Brockville and Ottawa is assured and that work on the line will begin next September. An hourly service is to be given between the two points.

The July number of the Canadian Pictorial (142 Peter St., Montreal) devotes special attention to the historic features of the great Tercentenary Celebration at Quebec, and it will be one of the most valued souvenirs of that event, which has aroused world wide interest. Every feature of the great demonstration will be illustrated.

The money for Adam Emmons lacks some ten or eleven dollars of the required fifty. Will those desiring to help, send, or give, their offering to Mr Donnelly, the Reporter Editor, or to O. M. Eaton. The feet are now in course of construction, and the money will therefore soon be needed, also, a list of subscribers can be printed, when the fund is completed.

Smith's Falls people are elated over the discovery of a bed of marl near the town, and speak of a company being formed to manufacture cement from the material. An immense bed of marl, white as snow, lies three feet below the surface of the land recently acquired by Mr A. N. Sherman, within the corporate limits of Athens; but, we understand, the economic production of cement requires comparatively cheap fuel.

Judgement has been given against the village of Morrisburg for $600 in an action brought by a citizen for injuries sustained by a hallow'en prank played by some boys. The latter had hung a gate upon a telephone pole and was allowed to remain there until it fell a couple of weeks later. In falling it struck and injured Mr Archambault who then instituted an action for damages against the municipality.

Senator Derbyshire called on friends in Athens on Monday. He leads a busy life, and at a time when most men similarly situated are content to drift gently down the stream of time we find him hustling in parliamentary, fraternal, social and commercial circles, figuring out his dates and train connections with all the energy of a boy of twenty-five years. Long may he wave!

Three Brockville young men are under arrest on the serious charge of train robbery.

The season at Charleston lake is now in full swing. About all the cottages are occupied and the hotels are receiving a good patronage.

Fire at Addison on Tuesday last week completely destroyed the dwelling of Joshua Rowson at Addison. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr and Mrs G. A. Chedbourne of Montreal have leased the handsome summer cottage just completed by Mr W. H. Jacob at Charleston Lake.

Mrs James Blair of Elliville and Mrs A. McVeigh of Glen Elbe were guests of their niece, Mrs Wm. A. Thornhill, for a few days last week.

Lack of rain is shortening the buckle berry crop. Few berries have reached Athens, though the price of $1.00 per peck is a substantial advance on old rates.

Miss Annie Hickey has been very ill at Cedar Park Hotel during the past week with appendicitis, but is now progressing favorably under treatment by Dr Harte.

Mr Clarence Carpenter and the Misses Lizzie and Maggie Roland of Morrisburg, N. Y., are the guests of Mr and Mrs E. Loverin at their Cottage at Charleston this week.

The Courier says that Perth was promised that its model school would be one of the "last to be closed," and calls upon all the powers, local and county, to make a determined effort to secure its continuance.

A fee is being demanded from those who seek to pick raspberries in the big patch in the Dobbs settlement. Docketing a fair amount for the time lost in collecting the fee, the controller is probably not very far ahead at the close of the day.

Running out of material for the new Parish block on Main Street, work has been suspended for a few days and a number of the men have been pleasantly and profitably employed in harvesting the blue berry crop at Charleston Lake.

Mr and Mrs W. F. Earl and family with their guest, Miss K. McLean, left on Monday for Charleston Lake for a sojourn of three weeks in their summer cottage, "Sunnyside." Mr Earl is making many improvements in this property, including the installation of an acetylene lighting plant and piping spring water into the house.

WILSON H. WILTSE, Secy.

He Was The Parents
Lille Bertram had always longed for a live pet, as he lived in an apartment building he had to be satisfied with toy animals.
Later his parents moved to the country and Bertram became the happy possessor of a kitten. He hugged it close and remarked, "At last, I am the parents of a living creature!"
The August DELINEATOR.

Put More In
One morning, just before starting to school, little Bobbie aged six years was watching his mama put up his noon lunch. Suddenly he said: "Ma ma, I wish you'd let Katie put up my lunch instead of doin' it yourself. Won't you."
"It's no trouble, my dear."
"I know."
"Then why—"
Cause, mama, she's got a better appetite than you an' she puts more in."
The August DELINEATOR.

The Houseboat, Lah-ne-o-tah, has been repaired, repainted and refurbished and will be rented by the day or week for the season at reasonable rates.
