ing report upon the Eastlake and Ridley drain-I hereby beg leave to report as That having met Mr. Brien, commissioner for Howard, on the Eastlake and Ridley drain, we consider that the Harwich and Howard Town Line should do 30 rods of 5-inch tiling, or the amount of $15 should be divided between the two Townships .-

To the Municipal Council of the Township of Harwich:-I hereby beg leave to report as follows in regard to the painting of the iron bridges on the Creek, I re-ceived two tenders for the work— Ted. Reardon, $225.

A. M. Scarlett, 875. I gave the work to Scarlett.

The bridges were each given a steel

It is courting danger to stand under icy eaves. Not a few have learned this to their cost. Every winter injury and even death are reported as the result of this carelessness. But there is a far more popular way of courting danger. Every man or woman who neglects a cough is inviting sickness, and many a fatal sickness has its beginning in a slight

The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure the cough. Even when the cough is obstinate and there is hemorrhage with emaciation and weakness, "Golden Medical Discovery" always helps and almost always cures.

"I was troubled with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and left me with a miserable cough," writes Mr. Joseph D. Burns, of 318 Huestis Street, Ithaca, New York. "I used two bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' after which my cough disappeared entirely. I cannot recommend your medicine too highly." Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for dis-eases of the stomach, blood, and lungs. Substitution means a little more profit to the dealer but a loss to you. The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent

I also had Mr. Scarlett repair the Tobin bridge. We found in the upper part of the structure that nearly 50 3-4 bolts had been left out; these were put in, also 13 curbs. These, with other repairs, including work, cost $9.22. J. McCORMICK. (Signed) Moved by Buchanan and Wilson, that the above report be adopted .-

Moved by Wilson and Bentley, that the clerk notify the Creek commissioner for ward 2 to examine the Mc-Kinley drain, as complaint has been made to this council that the flow of water is stopped on account of said drain being blocked with rubbish, and by cattle crossing it .- Carried. There were also a number of accounts which were ordered paid. L. W. BAIRD.

Yellowstone National Park

This famous national park offers to the tourist and sightseer more novelties and curiosities than perhaps any other spot on earth. The stage ride from Monida is through scenery hardly inferior to the park itself, and this ride is one of the very many enjoyments of the trip. The new route to the Yellowstone is via the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line Railroads to Monida, Montana, thence daily by palatial Concord coaches of the Monida & Yellowstone Stage Company to all points in the Yellowstone National Park.

The Value of Flower Studies "As a lesson in composition, nothng that I can call to mind at the will equal two or three hours spent with a few sprays of any simple llowers as subjects for the camera. For studying lighting, as well as rendition of color values and textures, offe can hardly wish for better subjects. Good composition, good values, good texture and good lighting are a rare combination in this class of work. You may, perhaps, get two of these, but try for all four in the same picture and see how hard it is. The arrangement of the flowers will teach you lessons in composition that will be of value in making groups; the lighting is study that you can hardly overdo the effect of isochromatic plates and color screens is much better investigated in this way, while texture and its rendition, the strong point of our art, if we only realized it, is a serious study in itself. When you have mastered these four points, learn to get relief, roundness and atmosphere. If then you can secure, by the aid of knowledge obtained, a little "feeling," your photographs will be pictures and your pictures pleasing. Try, by your treatment, to suggest the bold assertiveness of this flower, the homely grace and sim-plicity of the other. The lighting, the arrangement of line, the choice of background and a dozen other things will all assist if employed intelligently. Even the tone of the print and mount will help. proper trimming of the print can make or mar the result. A little study and you will agree with me that flowers are worth a few hours'

time on a rainy afternoon. I quote the above from Western Camera Notes, because it seems to me that the photographing of flowers should appeal more strongly to the nature lover than to anyone else. If you are a sportsman, you must love the open air-nature, in short; and what excellent opportunities those tramps across the country afford for studying the flowers in their natural haunts. A few choice flower studies on the wall, neatly framed, would prove a source of much consolation when the green fields and trees are safely esconced in a mantle of snow.—Pharos in

Geese That Lay Golden Eggs. Once upon a time there was a promoter who owned a common, everyday goose who laid the usual, ordinary goose eggs. He conceived the scheme of syndicating the goose on a gold egg basis and proceeded to do so. He informed the trusting public that soon his goose would lay an egg of gold each day and offered for sale stock in the Golden Goose Egg company, limited, at bedrock prices. There was a wild rush for the stock, and the The Lake Brie Navigation Co., Ltd. promoter suddenly found himself

He continued to sell the stock as long as there were buyers, for he did not want to kill the goose that laid the egg. His goose continued the same ordinary fowl as before.

Moral.—There are featherless geese that lay golden eggs.

Ministers' Maids.

"Are you a minister's wife?" was a query encountered so frequently by a young matron in search of a maid that she scented a story. "Why this mania to live under the droppings of the sanctuary?" inquired the matron or words to that effect. Then it appeared that the minister's family is considered a most desirable place because of the opportunities for witness fees in wedding cases. There are few bridegrooms who come without a witness to be married who will not bestow a generous tip upon the girl who furnishes this small but necessary feature of the ceremony.

One of the sweetest things in the family is to see children helping on It isn't always resignation that makes the photographer take things as they come.
