* A Very Old Letter

Mr. Miles Tenders The Planet a Communication Which He Wrote To His Sister When He Was 15 Years of Age-A Remarkable Document

******** }************

J. W. Miles has shown to The Planet a letter which he wrote to his sister in 1842 when he was a boy fifteen years of age. The penmanship is almost perfect, and has the appearance more of a copper plate rather than original handwriting. The composition of the letter, it will be seen, is something unusual, and rarely found in a fifteen year old boy of the present day. The letter is in a good state of preservation and reads as follows:

50 Portman Place,

27th May, 1842

My Dear Sister,—I beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of your ietter, and must return you my hearty thanks for it. I won home last Sunday and found all quite well, and I am now anxiously looking forward to Midsummer. We have this week begun Poetry, which we repeat at the end of the half year, for which three separate days are allotted. I Picturesque Parasols Are Charming Accessories For Summer.

SMART EFFECT FOR THE FACE

White Linen Sunshades Decorated With Embroidery Matching the Gown Are Winners This Summer—The Ferrule Is Now the Most Important Part of the Stick.

Parasols are a very necessary addi-tion to the summer girl's equipment, and in these days one or two are by no means enough for the average wardmeans enough for the average wardrobe. The tailored parasol and the afternoon parasol are as clearly differentiated as the tailored gown and the lingerie gown, and, according to strict laws of harmony, every outdoor gown

very smart, indeed, for wear with a

There are of course hosts of separate articles—little gold mirrors of all kinds, gold lip salve tubes only a few inches long and rouge boxes of the same style and leather or silver or gold cases for books of powder laves.

PROMER WITH RED TAPPETA BORDER. beauty standpoint a parasol is a distinct success if one really studies the question. A becoming shade is quite as necessary in a sunshade as in a gown—more so, in fact, because every one knows the effect of a glint from a brilliant green sunshade upon a sallow complexion or a red glare upon an already rubleund countenance, but as a background to a pretty toilet a well chosen sunshade is very attractive. Some of the styles are so flimsy that their efficacy as a shade from the sun is rather to be questioned, but since they are pretty when raised or carried in the hand and a decided touch, to the whole costume it is not well to inquire too closely into their usefulness, particularly since wide brimmed picture hats are in vogue.

On the other hand, the sunshade for morning use amply justifies its name, whether it be of linen or silk. The white is too glaring it may be softened by a pale colored lining. This is more usual this season than the use of colored linen.

Beautiful studies in plain colors are seen, and in this order are found many in browns, black and with white. The combination of chiffon and silk or moire is noticed in many cases among the more elaborate sunshades. Quillings of ribbon also are utilized in many ways.

Two sunshades for morning are shown. The plain pongee, with the captain of our Salvation, leads the way, yet abiding in spirit with His own. In Moses' morning prayer, "Rise up, O Jehovah and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee"—if God is for us who is against us—Rom. 8, 31—and the evening prayer, "Return, O Jehovah, unto the ten thousands of Israel," we have the daily fight of faith and the rest of faith, spiritual energy and activity and calm repose; we need Jehovah's presence for both.

BABY'S HOLD ON LIFE

Baby's Own Tablets cost 25 cents a box. A box bought now may save your baby's life. Summer complaints come often without warning, and thousands of little ones die from them every summer. If children's stourach and bowels are kept in order there is little danger of these troubles, and that is just what Baby's Own Tablets do. They are good for the new born baby or the well grown child—and they are absolutely safe. Give your child an occasional dose of Tablets and you will keep it well. If you have not got a box of Tablets in the house send for them at once, and you may feel that your little once are safe. Mrs. Wm. Parrott, Myrtle, Ont, says—'My little boy suffered greatly from colic and cried almost continuously. A' few doses of the Tablets coarsionally to prevent the trouble returning.' Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brocykville, Ont.

Quite a Difference.

"Yee, sir."
"But doesn't your conscience hurt you when you do something wrong?"
Yes, sir, but not in the same place you do."

Easily Arranged.

"Did you mail that package?"

"Yep."

"How much postage did it take?"

"Three cents."

"What did you do? There weren's any three cent stampe in the box."

"Well, there was a five cent stamp there, you know. I put it on, pasted a two cent stamp right beside it and made a minus sign between 'em."
