The Anniversary Dinner.

Temperance Column. The long diding room of the American House presented an interesting appearance last Tucsday evening when about fifty gentlemen assembled around the tastefully-decorated table to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the King's County Agricultural Society. The President of the Society, Capt. Tuzo, occupied the chair, and among the guests were the Hon. W. Fielding, Prov. Sec., Dr Borden, M. P., Mr Ilisley, Prest. of the West. Cornwallis Agr. Society. After justice had been done to the good things provided the chairman called the company to order and after a short speech proposed the one to ast of the evening, "The Queen," which was followed by the company singing "God Save the Company singing "God Save the collected in Scott Act elections in Fredericton last week resulted in the act being sustained for the fourth-time with a majority in 1885 of thirteen; in 1882 it had fortyone in its favor. It was first carried there in 1878 by a majority of one hundred and one. The Temperance people are jubilant over the result and held a special Thanksgiving meeting. This is not all of it. They have wisely set to work to enforce it. A fund for that purpose has already reached $3,000 Fredericton was the first place in Canada to adopt the net, and it looks as if they were going to stand by it till they get something better.

Moneton is also moving. $500 was collected in Scott Act fines during November. It is strange that fines can be collected in the eact being sustained for the fourth-time with a majority in 1885 of thirteen; in 1882 it had forty one in its favor. Mr J. I. Brown hauled on Monday last firm Wolfville station to Jehiel Duncanson's, at Gaspercau, with two horses, "General Gordon" and a three year old colt, a load of water pipe which weighed 6310 pounds, besides the wagon which weighed 880 pounds, in all 7190 pounds—over three and one half tons. This we believe to be the heaviest load ever drawn over this road by a two horse team.
