WHAT ARE AMUSEMENTS FOR

"We need amusements in life. We ought to try and get along without them. But what are amusements for? They are for recreation; they should recreate our strength, mental and physical; and they should do this in a way that harms no one. They are not the chief business of life; they have a place in life in order that we may turn from them better able to do our best. There are plenty of amusements that fulfill these conditions. But card playing and dancing are not among them."

"Card playing while perhaps innocent in itself, has two objections. It is a game of chance. Skill enters into it also. But chance is a chief factor in the game; and card playing tends to place an unhealthy emphasis upon chance as a factor in life. Moreover, card playing has associations that are demoralizing. It is a game that, while played in all classes of society is peculiarly appropriated by the most disreputable. It would surprise everybody to see such men as D. L. Moody, or J. Wilbur Chapman, or Billy Sunday, or John G. Paton, or Robert E. Speer, playing a game of cards. Are the card players in any community conspicuous for their active evangelistic Christian service?"

"Dancing is openly disreputable. It sanctions physical liberties between men and women that would not be tolerated under any other circumstances. It would at once lose its grip on society if there were no dancing between the sexes—men dancing only with men, and women dancing only with women. Can we imagine our Lord Jesus Christ, while on earth as a man dancing?"—The S. S. Times

I SEE BY THE PAPER

(From the Bay City Times.)

About 28 million copies of newspapers are now sold daily in the United States. Practically everybody reads a newspaper.

Hence the average paper is read by four persons. In many communities the popular paper has an average of five readers for every paper sold.

That should interest advertisers. Incidentally, we wonder how many times a paper is read after you throw it into your waste basket and before it reaches the machine which makes it into pulp that in turn becomes strawboard or wrapping paper.

For who except a rag-picker, can resist glancing at the headlines of a newspaper, no matter how old it may be or where it is discovered.

Housewives who, in changing newspapers on pantry shelves, stop to read the headlines or look at the pictures, will vouch for that.

According to a report from the marriage license bureau most of the Boston women who marry to-day are between 27 and 33 years of age. Most of the bridegrooms are between 30 and 40.

The Monthly Cheque That Never Fails

How the Money was Lost

"You see I had only a few thousand dollars left after the estate was settled—" and my brother borrowed some to help him along; of course that went and then—

I simply had to help father with his business, he was so worried—and I thought it best to invest something in real estate at once. Well, that failed—and, really, if it were not for the monthly income cheque from the Canada Life I don't know how I should be getting along now."

It is all so simple and effective!

Just a few dollars set aside regularly, and the Canada Life will guarantee to your home a continuous monthly income.

While you will probably live to draw the proceeds of the policy yourself, what a relief to know that no matter what may happen, the monthly cheque that never fails, issued regularly by the Canada Life, will come to your home.

Your present Life Insurance will no doubt "clear the mortgage," pay off the obligations of your estate, and leave something for your family, but

Consider This:

In addition to a "lump sum" of money, you should provide a definite income that cannot fail.

A weekly or monthly income is the natural thing for most people.

A woman can keep a family together on even a small income, provided it is regular.

Financial problems should not be thrust upon a woman who is not used to business deals.

The hands of unscrupulous men are always outstretched for money held by the unwary.

The Monthly Income Plan

You will be surprised to learn what a reasonable proposition can be made to you; how only a few dollars saved and set aside from your regular earnings can be multiplied into a substantial income for your Beneficiary.
