The main facts of the case, which are fortunately unparalleled in the his-tory of the local Police Court, have already been published. Evidence given to-day showed that Mrs. Lajoic had for years half starved the child and had, without reason, most cruelly beaten her day after day. The latter, beaten her day after day. The latter, a frightened and stunted little waif, a frightened and stunted little waif, was called to give evidence, but evidently in awe of her mother, sobbingly told the court that the marks and bruises all over her body were caused by falls and not through being beaten. Neighbors, however, testified to having seen the child brutally beaten, and declared that Mrs. Lajoie had refused food to the little girl who, half famished, searched around the yard for old bones or potato peelings.

Medical testimony was to the effect that there were seventy scars and Annual Garden Party of Baptist Church-Other Events.

Dundas, June 29.-The annual garden party given by the Baptist Church came off last evening, and although the attendance was not as large as on some former occasions, the affair was a very enjoyable one. Three Hamiltonians were before Wm. Lawson, J. P., yesterday, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct on Sunday evening. They gave their names as follows: Harry Tufford, Walmut street; Chas. Beckett, Wellington street; John Carmichael, Walmut street. They were arrested by Officer Peaire. The Magistrate fined them each $2 and costs, the total in each case reaching about $5.50. They amused themselves by furious driving and vociferously singing "Don't take me home," but the constable took them to another place.

The Congregational Church at Sheffield held its anniversary services on Sunday, and yesterday evening a strawberry festival and concert was given in connection therewith. Mr. Robertson, of the Banner, was chairman at the festival, and Miss Hattie Quackenbush was one of the soloists. The attendance and proceeds was a record breaker.
