COBALT STOCKS.

Discounting favorable action by the Ontario Government, in the request for a reduction of mineral royalties, the Cobalt issues awakened from the holiday lethargy on Saturday and the Toronto market was more active than for many days. It was tipped off that the authorities were disposed to look with a favorable eye on the plaint of the mine owners and it was believed that a flat rate would be granted. Almost all the stocks on the list showed increased strength. Beaver was the most active stock, twenty-nine thousand shares changing hands for a net gain of two points, it closing at 321-2. Rochester was also active and strong, closing at 17. Little Nipissing went to 181-2, and Silver Leaf fluttered around 13 and a fraction, reaching 5-8 at the close. City of Cobalt jumped to 50 and went a point lower, and Temiskaming went up to 72.

Transactions for the week ending Fri-Transactions for the week ending Firday on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange, as compiled by Heron & Coangounted to 415,691 shares, and on the Toronto Curb. 49,403, in all 464,494 shares, having a value of $199,367,65
