Local Happenings.

Items of Local Interest Carefully Prepared by the Gazette's "Man About Town."

SCHOOL BLANKS.—Mr. Angus Daulton, Chipman, has for sale District School Assessment Lists and School Tax Notices.

FARMING.—Nearly every farmer in this vicinity has commenced seeding. Quite a lot of potatoes were planted last week.

Great interest is being manifested among housekeepers generally in the Union Blend Tea Key.

THE GRAND LAKE.—The ice has not moved out of Grand Lake yet; but there is open water in several places and the breaking up of the ice is daily looked for.

THE SEA BIRD.—Captain Albert Vail is again afloat in the old reliable Sea Bird. On Monday he put 17 passengers aboard the Star Line Steamer.

RECENT DEATH.—The remains of Mr. Leonard, who died in St. John, in March last, are to arrive here by the St. Mary Queen-to-day, for interment in St. John's cemetery.

OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS.—A surgical operation for appendicitis was performed on Mr. John Beacom, on Tuesday last, by Dr. Caswell, assisted by Dr. E. A. Thompson, and Dr. McKeen, of St. John. The patient is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

THE WATER.—The water in the river has risen about three inches a day during the past three days. It is a few inches higher here now than at the highest mark reached last year. If a warm rain should set in here is no doubt but there will be a very high freshet this year as a large quantity of snow still remains in the woods.

ARBOR DAY.—In accordance with the provisions of Regulation 20 (2) of the School Law Manual, I hereby appoint Friday, May 10th, to be observed as Arbor Day. Teachers will please to observe the conditions referred to in this section above named, Sub-Section (b).

R. P. STEVENS,
Inspector of District No. 3,
April 24, 1899.

DEATH AT LINCOLN.—Mrs. Angus Gilchrist died suddenly at her home at Lincoln Monday from heart failure. The dead summons came while she was discharging her household duties, and was a great shock to her relatives and friends. She was 54 years of age and leaves a husband, three daughters and one son.

THE CHEAPEST STORE IN ST. JOHN.—Every visitor to St. John in need of dry goods should call at D. A. Kennedy's, 32-36 King Square, south side. He is successor to the well-known firm of Walter Scott. Every customer can save twenty-five cents on every dollar invested. Read his advertisement in to-day's paper and save money.

THE MAY QUEEN.—The genial countenance of Capt. Brannan and his crew of St. Mary Queen were welcomed here by our citizens on Wednesday last. The May Queen has been thoroughly repaired and repainted during the winter and looks neat and clean. She will make three trips a week from St. John to Jemseg, calling here each day until the ice leaves the Grand Lake. She arrives from St. John on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning to the city on Tuesday Thursday and Saturday.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—War or no war I am still in the front rank in fitting trim, having lately secured the services of Mr. J. A. McKinnon, a late graduate of Mr. J. Mitchell's cutting school of New York. I am now fully prepared to give my numerous customers a first class fit, workmanship unexcelled, style perfect, and prices that will astonish you. I respectfully invite you to call and inspect my large stock, no trouble to show goods and give you quotations at Joseph Walker's, Merchant Tailor, second door above People's Bank, Queen Street, Fredericton, West End.

THE MAILS.—The mails were transferred to the Steamers on Thursday last.

GATTEBAUX PRESENT.—Mr. Almer Bulyea on Monday night caught several barrels of Gattebaux. He reports the fish very plentiful.

A SURPRISE.—Mr. James Barnett was agreeably surprised on going to his hog pen on Tuesday morning to find a litter of fifteen young pigs.

GOOD FREIGHT.—The May Queen took a good freight from here on Tuesday morning, consisting of potatoes and other farm produce and a number of beef cattle.

HORSE PHOTOGRAPH.—The business of the Legislature was concluded Friday afternoon and at 8 o'clock in the evening the Lieut. Governor, attended by his suite, came down and gave his assent to the measures passed and prorogued the House.

BROKE HIS LEG.—Mr. Wm. McKay of Lawfield, while helping raise a building on Friday last, had the misfortune to break his leg above the knee. He has a couple of other men were heaving on a pry when it broke and came in contact with his leg. He also received other injuries but not of a serious nature.

LOST, STAYED, OR STOLEN.—Between Lower Cambridge and Lower Jemseg three of Jemseg's finest young ladies, that formed part of a boat load, that attended service at Lower Cambridge Sunday evening. When last seen one was on the (Wright) road home, and the other two have never been seen since.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.—Queens—Patrick Walsh to be a Justice of the Peace. Sunbury—James Powers of Northfield, to be a Commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court, also to be Commissioner of the Parish of Northfield Civil Court, in the room of James Miller resigned. Charles Brown, of the parish of Mansfield to be a Commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court. Harvey S. Upton to be a Justice of the Peace.

MARRIED IN ST. JOHN.—On Wednesday evening the home of the bride's father, Wm. McKinnon, No. 24 Main street, North end, was the scene of a quiet wedding, when Frank Jordan, son of Leonard Jordan, yellowster, was united in marriage to Miss Annie McKinnon by Rev. R. P. McKinnon, rector of St. Luke's church. Only near relatives of the contracting parties were in attendance. A wedding repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan will reside in Capt. Leonard's house on Holly street. The happy couple received a large number of gifts.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident occurred at Upper Hamstead, on Monday morning, resulting in the death of an old man, who was a respected resident of that place, in the person of Mr. Robert Cameron. Mr. Cameron was in his 87th year when he died of the stroke of the heart. He was on his way to work on Monday morning, when he was struck by a horse and cart. The horse was a white horse, and the cart was a heavy one. The accident occurred at the corner of the road leading to the farm of Mr. Cameron. The horse was driven by a man named John Smith. The cart was loaded with hay. The accident occurred at about 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Cameron was found lying on the ground, and was taken to the hospital. He died at about 11 o'clock.
