 Now that we have changed our positions, I'll ask you my dear girl, just as I was asking, will you be so kind as to turn over the other half of the chart? I would not care to take any bold steps, but, I might remind you, you are holding something which would warrant my risking almost anything to obtain."
 Gwyn, as he rode at a rapid gait down the trail, looked back once or twice to assure himself that all was well at the barn. He did not fear leaving Nan alone with Von Bleck, for the prisoner had been securely bound and could scarcely move, he thought, let alone escape. Suddenly, as he rounded another turn in the trail, his horse stopped short. Gwyn's hand, almost automatically, reached down to his holster. But a few feet ahead, riding leisurely along the trail, was Cut-Deep Rawls, the man Gwyn was on his way to town to meet—the man, in fact, that Von Bleck had confessed, held the other part of the chart to a cinabar mine.
 Rawls' horse stopped almost as abruptly as had Gwyn's, but its rider was not as alert. When he lifted his eyes to see what had caused the unexpected halt, he found himself looking directly into the business end of Gwyn's revolver. He started, surprised and frightened, and obeyed Gwyn's command to Reluctantly Rawls allowed Gwyn to remove his revolver from his belt and then, from the bosom of his shirt, he extracted the half of the chart. Gwyn took it from him, glanced at it to make sure that he had obtained what he desired and not a blank sheet of paper, and put it in his pocket. Then, ordering Rawls to walk ahead, he turned his horse about and drove slowly back toward the barn where he had left Von Bleck and Nan.

Try BEAVER FLOUR Both Ways

Make up a batch of Bread and Rolls with it. Then bake a Pie and Cake.

Notice the fine, even texture—the absence of holes—the delicate, nutlike flavor, of the Bread.
 Then consider the lightness and flakiness of the Pastry. You'll never go back to the coarse, almost tasteless western wheat flours, after once enjoying the flavor of the good things made with Beaver Flour.

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C.B.
 "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.
 In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

tune and was still searching.
 "We located the mine this afternoon," Gwyn said, and his smile reflected the enthusiasm revealed in his voice. "It's now imperative that I arrange for the shipment of the cinabar to New York. The organization which I am representing is eager that no time be lost, and the days that have been consumed by our strife with the Central Powers, in the form of Von Bleck, have been precious ones. We must catch up now."
 "Mr. Casey, since you are at the head of the vigilance committee hunting down the murderers of Don Carlos and Yaqui Joe, the developments of the future will depend greatly upon you."
 "My warrants," replied Casey. "call for only Rawls and Drant. Von Bleck, for some reason beyond my jurisdiction, is not included."
 "If you get the men you are after—it's a pity that I didn't hold Rawls when I had him—Von Bleck will be practically helpless to interfere with us," Gwyn said. "As soon as operations are begun I am going to install you as manager of the mine. Nan will be my wife. We plan to be married within the next few weeks, you know."

During the few months that immediately followed the little town of Lost Mine enjoyed the greatest boom in its history. It was fairly alive with busy, bustling humanity, hurrying to and fro, each absorbed with his own important mission. The village, from the town proper to the mine, lost, as it was, amidst the wilds of the unsettled and dismal Sierras, resembled a busy ant-hill with thousands of scurrying ants, set in the center of an open field. And prosperity came with the new life. The opening of the mine had created a demand for men, and the majority of the town's idle population was employed in the task of taking the cinabar from the mine and preparing it for shipment to the East. As a result, the neighborhood was scattered over with little wooden houses, built in the quickest and cheapest manner possible. Gwyn and Nan, who had married, lived in a picturesque cabin but a short distance from the main shaft of the mine. Their wedding had been one of the most important, and surely the gayest, event of the year. Practically the entire town had turned out at the Lost Mine hotel, and from that time on, the young couple had been the most popular folk in town.
