THE POPE THELDED—WAR AGAINST AUSTRIA DECLARED. The Fiedmontess Gazette of the 5th instant, sontains a letter from Civita Vecchia, of the 2ad inst., which sittes that the Pope had yielded to the persussions of the patriot Mauriana, who amounced to the people that the ministers re-mained, except Cardinal Antonelli, replaced by him, Mauriana. The ministers possess full govers over all temporal affairs, comprising the question of war. All the private correspondence of the Cardinala, which had been seized, were read to the public on the Capital by a Senator.
