can stand these dis-

ods and quete prices

gal.

IS, BARRISTERS,

Lawis. 1907. SOLICITOR &c., the square and West r Butler's bookstore. st rates of interest. ROUDFOOT, BAR orneys, Solicitors, etc.

LT & CAMERON. tors in Chancery, &c. un. M. C. Cameron, Queron, Goderich W. E 1751.

dical.

D., C.M., M.C.P.S.,

M.D., C.M., PHYn. Accoucheur, etc., M. be—The Square, 2 doors Store, up stairs. 1993: PHYSICIAN, SUR-&c. Office and residence ad door west of Victoria 1751.

IN & HAMILTON. geons, Account, n's residence, near the SHANNON, J. C. HAMIL 1751.

meering.

AUCTIONEER FOR anty. Address orders to

GENERAL AUC-

d' Insurance.

NDING MONEY AT redit Foncier." SEACER & LEWIS.
th, 1885. OAN. APPLY TO LT & CAMERON, Gode 1759.

END.-A LARGE ate Funds for investment st-class Mortgages. Apply JUDFOOT. TE FUNDS TO LEND wn Property at lowest in-urchased, no Commission Icing Fees reasonable n obtain money in one day y.—DA VISON & JOHN c.. Goderich. E, FIRE, MARINE, cident Insurance Agent.
ass Companies. Also agent
E STOCK INSURANCE Co. ortgage, either in Town or ny way to suit the borrow
s) Kay's block Goderich

nd town property, at low-ages purchased. No com-ints for the Trust and Loan da, the Canada Landed e London Loan Company t, 6, 6; and 7 per cent, can obtain money in one-lory. k JOHNSTON, & JOHNSTON, Barristers, &c., Goderick

ATE FUNDS

LOAN AT 6 PER ENT. ENERAL TRUSTS CO'Y 1 money at 6 per cent., pay UIT BORROWERS, HOLT & CAMERON. Barristers, Goderich, ronto General Trusts Co's, 7, Holf & Cameron have to f private funds to loan security.

1883.

1911-tf 1911-45 CARD.

F. FOOT, larine Insurance Agent, DERICH. DEETICH. te Oolborne Hotel.
rance," incorporated 1728.
tablished 1822.
id," the only Company
mre plate glass, in the first-class and old estab

th, 1884. CARD.

e above first-class Office at HORACE HORTON. l is also Appraiser of the DAN AND SAVINGS CO. of in first-class security, from MATERIA MODERATE HOLTON,

YY, TORONTO-Established Y, of LONDON England)-CO'Y, of HARTFORD CORR

* The * D DEVOTED COUNTY NEWS

HIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

GODERICH, ONT., FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1885.

THE HURON SIGNAL Is published every Friday Morning, by Mc Stray Thoughts on Stray Subjects at GELLICODDY BROS., at their Office, North St GODERICH, ONTARIO

inforced.

RATES OF ADVENTISING.—Eight cents per line for first insertion; three cents per line for subsequent insertion? Yearly, half-yearly and quarterly contracts at reduced rates.

JOH PRINTING.—We have also a first-class shading department in connection, and nossess—shading department in connection, and nossess. obbing department in connection, and possessing the most complete out-fit and best facilities ar turning out work in Goderich, are prepared usiness in that line at prices that can ton, and of a quality that cannot sed.—Terms Cash

FRIDAY, APRIL 3RD, 1885.

OTTAWA MISRULE.

The responsibility for the blood-shed and rapine in the Northwest territories must be placed at the door of the Dominion Cabinet.

place. The man who gave a written to sell him a large plump owl instead. petent, must be a rascal unfit for a Cabi-

The blood of the toyal Canadians who have fallen, and will fall in this rebel- is the chief topic of discussion, and I find lion, must be avenged by sending the many men in this section who could eas-Macdonalds, the Dewdneys, the Mac-phersons and the Wilkinsons from power with a newspaper in his hand, who begets into the hands of such a man as him to the same belief. He has spent a David Mills, the better for the Dominrascally officials in the Northwest, must know that the party which he represents when Long Lodge, chief of the Assimi west is to be redeemed indeed.

THE French have been defeated by the Chinese, and the Ferry ministry has fallen. France has made overtures for peace, which China has accepted.

COL. OTTER, commander of the To Col. OTTER, commander of the Toronto contingent, is an old Goderich boy.

His companions of thirty years ago here at the expense of the Teutons. The Indians should eat the bacon or die, and will watch his career with interest.

campaign thus far is as follows :-Contests won by the Temperance party.... Contests won by the Anti-Temperance Total number of contests.

ON THE WING.

condition of the Eastern question is lost the village grants. More anon. sight of, and the sanguinary conflicts in the Northwest between the mounted police and the half breeds are unthought of. A couple of merchants are discussing the unsatisfactory state of trade, and night, the fellowing incident took endeavoring to fix the cause thereof. place :-That cool, calculating individual on the minded of the story of the man who gigantic pile of flesh and bone, is too ex- lies to be had, and the would-be purchaspensive an ornament to be continued in Ould Erin, stopped him and endeavored pledge to "Big Push" Wilkinson to ap- The customer teld the vendor he wanted point himself or any other scoundrel to a singing bird, and asked if the owl could the registrarship of the capital of the dis- sing, to which the dealer replied, a divil av a lot av thinkin.

THE NORTHWEST RESELLION lieves himself to be a regular Sir Oracle, The sooner the Interior department and would like to convert those around leng life at farm work, and has now re- Dewdney's god. The incapables at Ottawa, and their and delights in letting all within earshot rascally officials in the Northwest, must be dismissed from power if the Northwest is the backbone of loyalty in this Canada when Long Lodge, chief of the Assimbones, who were camping last summer of ours. It isn't likely that he will join near Indian Head, complained that the miles from the scene of war.

One of the lecal shoemakers is other day a stranger drove up to his be d—ato them." This was not said shoe shop and enquired if a certain shoe. The aggregate result of the Scott act maker was working there. He was treater who have a stranger drove up to his be d—ato them." This was not said in haste but at his honour's leisure. He did not say it because his friend the central treater who have and to he in a least treater who have a stranger drove up to his because his friend the central treater who have a stranger drove up to his because his friend the central treater who have a stranger drove up to his because his friend the central treater who have a stranger drove up to his bed—ato them." This was not said in haste but at his honour's leisure. short and stout in appearance, and with-short and stout in appearance, and with-syndicate with him, had 90,000 pounds al presented a Dutchy shape. When he of that bacon to dispose of had gone two of the Crispins got up a but because he wished to indeed the matter the traveller was called in.

tials to good living hold their ewn equal ly well.

And now, as curfew has tolled, an it is time all law-abiding folk were fold And is despatched to all parts of the surround lag country by the earliest mails and trains.

By general admission it has a larger circulation than any other newspaper in this part of the country, d is one of the raciest, newsiest and mos i reliable journals in Ontario powersing, as it does, the fore-going essentials and being in addition to the above, a first-classian deing in the sitting-room, and the bar has seried, and lay in wait for another tweethed the loafers into the hostelry. At the week to take up some other phase of life in this section of the moral vine-powersing, as it does, the fore-going essentials and the loafers into the hostelry. At the loafers into the hostelry. At the loafers into the loafers into the hostelry. At the loafers into the loafers into the hostelry. At the loafers into the hostelry. At the loafers into the loafers int The long winter appears to be drawing ling their hands to rest, I will close this ressions of countenance go far to show yearning desire to be the possessor of that for the time being the unsettled that enjoyment which the seclusion of

> D. McG. A OUESTION OF PRIVILEGE. In the House of Commons on Monday

Hon. Mr. Blake arose and said :tilted chair is the banker, and he listens desire, for the first time since I have to everything that is going on around him, but does not express himself too freely. When asked a question he reissue the banker, and he listens desired for the brist time since I have been in parliament, to refer to a newspaper article, namely, one which appeared in the Hamilton Spectator of the 27th inst., headed "The real criminals." Sir, plies in monosyllables, but he is looked if this paper had referred to myself alone upon by the community at large as a I should have followed my invariable Nothing but rascality or incompetency man who holds a firm opinion of his could bring about so deplorable a result own. As he sat beside me while a couple of the prevince of Ontario; it refers to a party of as loyal and devoted Canadians and admixture of both. as any set of men that are to be found in this wide Canada. I say that that The colossal figure of Macpherson, who went to the Irish bird dealer's to get article is a gross and an atrocious and a adores the Interior department by his a singing canary. There were no canar-malignant insult. I say that no viler calumny was ever perpetrated than this monstrous slander; false, to the knowledge of those who uttered it. As for myself, individually, the blood of my cousin already stains the snews of the Northwest; a nephew of mine and six men out of my office are on the train today with the volunteers, and my son, and my brother's sen have offered their affected territories, if not a weak incom"Bedad as for that, I'll tell yez the services to the country. (Cheera.) Sir, trooth, and that is that he can't sing; I cannot control myself when I think that a newspaper claiming to be decent and the organ of the honorable gentlemen opposite should dare to say such things as I have just now read. Sir Jehn Macdenald—I can only say, Mr. Speaker, that I totally disagree with the spirit of that article, and I quite sympathize with the honorable gentleman in the indignation he has just ex-A Conservative Opinion of Dewdney.

tired to realize reat in his declining philanthropist. His delight is to advance If it be true it would be on account of the interests of the savage and promote their having been on the verge of star-the welfare of the more wretched white varion for the past three months.

the Huron legion for the Northwest, but | contracter's bacon, costing the Canadian the Huron legion for the Northwest, but he'll be sure to accompany the "bowld sojer boys" to the station, and advise them with regard to the dispessal of Riel in the event of hiscapture by them. The old man will remain on the home guard. shilling a pound dead weight, in place of at 12:15, the pound of bacon costing nineteen cents; fecting one. when Long Lodge said the bacon was bet upon his nationality, and to settle trinate the savage with the tastes of the average white man. Mr. Dewdney, let tured, and the Indians are in possession The meanest fellow in the world is the One had bet that he was a Dutchman; Piapot witness, is the Indian's friend. of the houses. The inhabitants escaped to the police barracks, where they await would-be wit who sends bogus notices of weddings, births, etc., to the local newsweddings, births, etc., to the local newspapers. In the first place such an act is a forgery, and can be punished in the courts, and in the second place much pain and annoyance is caused to those who are libelled. The writers of those

OVER THE PIRST PORTAGE shape. BATTLEFORD CAPTURED.

Clarissa?"

What? Go to a ball in Lent? Of course not, Charles."

"May I call on you, then?"

"May I call on you, then?"

"No, Charles, come up tomorrew night. I am going to the skating rink tenight."

The porridge is porridge, found in precisely the same position having set in, and not "burgoe;" the milk is from the interminable for months, or until he course the whole party with

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OUTBREAK, and there not being the slightest room in this respect will be considering it unfair to charge the whole party with

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OUTBREAK, and there not being the slightest room admit that it is the result of greas missions of the course and levelled their management than you do in the more pretentious and 3. Cottle accompanying him. It was a meng them.

Considering it unfair to charge the whole party with

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OUTBREAK, and there not being the slightest room admit that it is the result of greas missions of number of the course and levelled their management that the top overpowered by sheer, weight of num overpowered by sheer, weight overpowered by she Riel's Half-Breeds on the Offensive. A Number of Loyal White Men Sho and Killed.

4000 TROOPS CALLED OUT TO SUBDUE THEM.

A General Indian Uprising Imminent.

A Bad Lookout for Battleford

Rebel Indians Plundering the Settiers.

March 30, 6 p.m.

Winnigeg is greatly excited today over the outlook, as a general uprising of the Indians has been reported. Despatches from Qu'Appel'e report an outbreak among the Indians in File Hills reserve, 40 miles north-west of Qu'Appelle.

General Middleton having acertained that 300 Indians had joined the rebel movement there and killed Indian agent

Nichols, sent forward to that point four companies of the Winnipeg rifles, and one gun and a portion of the field bat-General Middleton will not move the main force until the arrival of the volunteers from the east, as the present ferce is not equal to the emergency should the Indians join Riel. News from Battleford is more pacific than it was yesterday. The telegraph line is still down beyond Battleford, and has been attributed to the emissaries of Riel rather than to the Indians. No news has been received from Col. Irvine since he left Carleton for Prince Albert. A courier may be despatched the courier may be despatched by him via Carrot River settlement.

The citizens of Calgarry are exorted the Upper Saskatchewan.

Riel is evidently acting on the defendence of his evidence of his evidently acting on the defendence of his evidence of his evide by him via Carrot River settlement. "But the dross of gold is not Mr. over the rumored uprising of the Black dewdney's god. He is eminetly a feet, but the report lacks confirmation

ONTARIO ONTARIO at 12:15, the scene was a stirring, yet af-that has to be traversed. The men with all their equipments got accross in good

March 30.-Battleford has been capto the police barracks, where they await two farm instructors previously telegraphed, is fully confirmed.

The Indians are from Peundmaker's A HALF-BREED'S ACCOUNT OF CROZIER

ernment expected an amicable arrange-ment would be arrived at with the Incate the uprising of the Stony Indians at South Battleford. The fate of the women and children who started for Battleford on Sunday from Swift Current station is anxiously awaited. The Indians seem to be pilliging the homesteads of the settlers who have sought refuge in the barracks at Battleford.

A half breed named Lariviere, living
Crossing
Crossing
Humbolt to Carleton, via Gaottee Humbolt to Carleton via Batoche's three weeks ago, in which he urged the Metis in Red River to join him or cross the boundary, as they were going to sweep the entire country.

The wires are still down between Battleford and Edmonton, and no informa-tion can be had as to the action in the sive, pending the success ries among the Indians.

The portion of the old town of Battleford abandoned has been burned by the Battleford via Gabriel's Indians and half breeds. The report that the File Hill Indians had risen and killed Instructor Nicholls pelle through Touchwood and Humb wan. His followers have swept up all the supplies and have unearthed the A Battery (Kingston) the supplies and have unearthed the government caches, that is secret stores. Poundmaker's rebellion is serious. His reserve lies thirty miles west of Battleford. He always has been lazy and troublesome. All the Indians of the country however have had a hard time of the lattle Retary (Winnipeg). OVER THE FIRST PORTAGE.

A and B batteries left Carlton Place it lately. The small game and whitefish Col. Williams' Batt. (No. 3 district) 380

Captain French is in command of the eighteen scouts who precede the expedition. There are only two half-br among them, the remainder being white. teamsters, of whom there are 240, will be under the command of Capt. Bedson and will be armed with Peabody rifles. The teaming alone will cost

OTTAWA, March 31.—In the house of commons shortly before midnight Sir Hector Langevin read the official news of to-night from the Northwest given in two despatches. The first depatch says that all the Indians—Crees and Stoneys—under Chief Red Pheasant are up in arms and that matters look most alarming. The second despatch says that Indian instructors Payne and Apple garth have been murdered by Indians. The house immediately adjourned on hearing the news. All the members appeared too sadly impressed to care about the most retreat, Dumont's the police began to retreat, Dumont's arms and that matters look most alarm ing. The second despatch says that Indian instructors Payne and Apple garth have been murdered by Indians. The house immediately adjourned on hearing the news. All the members appeared too sadly impressed to care about further business. The killing of two settlers at Battleford, in addition to the two farm instructors previously teleture for Carleton. Beardy is said raphed, is fully confirmed.

Poundmaker's tribe numbers 156 and to have made a bargain with Dumont Poundmaker's tribe numbers 156 and Little Pine's 421, or together 577, out of whom probably 250 warriors could be had. The total number of Indians, nearly all Crees, in the district to weigh the rebellion may extend is as follows:

At Fort Pitt 1190, at Edmonton 2821, and the country of the revine. When they saw no signs of snother force most of them raphad. The total number of Indians, nearly all Crees, in the district to weich the rebellion may extend is as follows:
At Fort Pitt 1190, at Edmonton 2821, at Carleton 1791, at Battleford 2423; a total of 8325—probably one half of whom are warriors. The post office department has made extra postal arrangements for the convenience of the expedition.

There are over 19,000 treaty Indians in the Northwest territories, and about 1190 non treaty Indians.

THE BLACKFEET LOYAL.

OTTAWA, March 31.—Sir John Macdonald communicated to the house this afternoon the intelligence that Crowfoot, afternoon the intelligence that Crowfoot, came up and had a big smoke with the Chief of the Blackfeet Indians, has Indians. Riel was not in the action, but assured the Government that he and his at or near Gabriel's Ferry, thirteen braves would remain loyal, and the Goymiles from Duck Lake. Chaffee, the Indian instructor, was allowed to go on towards Prince Albert. The news of dians at Battleford.

McGILLICUDDY BROS, PUBLISH $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Winnipao, Man., Murch 31.—Telegrams from the wst tonight would indiIndian as well as half breeds, forthwith dumont's victory was carried far and joined the rebels.

TABLE OF DISTANCES.

TRAIL DISTANCES. Qu'Appelle to Fort Qu'Appelle . . . . . 19 Fort Qu'Appelle to Touchwood hills . . 46 Touchwood hills to Humbolt ...... 81
Humbolt to Carleton, via Gabriei's

Crossing.
Prince Albert to Batoche's Crossing. Prince Albert to Carleton Qu'Appelle to Ciarke's Crossing.
Qu'Appelle to Battleford.
Clarke's Crossing to Prince Albert

DISTANCE FROM WINNIPEG. Fort Carleton

The telegraph line runs from Qu'Apis contradicted.

Riel is virtually king of the whole country north of the South Saskatche-

Total .....

Besides the foregoing, Cols. Stewart and Strange have been authorized to organize a company each of Northwest mounted rangers of from 160 to 200 men. Lieut. Col. Scott, M.P., will raise six companies of infantry at Winnipeg, numbering about 250. Lieut. Col. Osborae Smith, of Winni.

peg, a battalion of eight companies, about 340 strong.
Lieut. Col. Scott, Regina, one com

Adjusted in the second place much opanism of summer of the fight and sumprose in caused to these plans and sumprose in caused to the plans and summer of the fight and the plans and the pla