REGINA KEEPS ON WINNING.

Moose Jaw, May 13—The thirteenth day of May was indeed unlucky for Moose Jaw. Stupid and costly errors were made at critical places. Gilchrist although not in form was very good and Hooker kept the hit well enough scattered.

The feature of the game was a double play for the home team, catching runner, at home plate. The eighth was disastrous for the Robins. A base on balls, hits, two sacrifices and two errors accounted for three runs in that period.

The box score: Summary—Three base hits, Grigware, Leicher; two base hits, Bell, McIntosh; sacrifice hits, McIntosh, Crocker, Hurley, Davis, Parker, Grigware, Elsey, McIntosh; hit by pitched ball, Gilchrist; BGI, Hoffman; struck out by Gilchrist 2, by Hooker 2; base on balls of Hooker 2, of Hooker 2; left on bases, Moose Jaw 10, Regina 6; passed ball, McNitt; Time 1:30, Umpire, Voss.

MINERS READY FOR HAT.

Lethbridge, May 13—Medicine Hat

romped into an easy victory here today at the ball park by outstriking, hitting and generally outclassing the home team. It was Medicine Hat all the way, the score ending 8 to 3. A high wind was blowing which made perfect playing impossible and errors on both sides were plenty enough. Leitch pitched for the Miners and was touched up for more than the usual amount of hits.

Gordon pitched good ball for the visitors and on more than one occasion pulled himself out of difficult predicament with admirable skill. Lethbridge lost several golden opportunities to score by failing to hit when the bases were occupied. To the eighth the home team had the bases full and one down, better hit infield fire which made a complicated decision arise through runners leaving their bases.

Umpire Flaherty's decision retired the side but Lethbridge could not see it that way and Manager Cox retired a written protest against his ruling. The score:

WREATH FROM FAMOUS TREES

Mount Vernon Women To Send Unique Floral Tribute for King Edward's Tomb

Washington, D. C., May 13—Upon the tomb of King Edward VII. will be placed a wreath made from ivy leaves from the Tomb of George Washington, oak leaves from trees which the late King planted at Mount Vernon, and magnolia leaves from a tree planted by Washington himself at his historic home.

Members of the Board of Regents of the Grand Council, Mount Vernon, ladies association of the Union, met today in the banquet room of the Mount Vernon home. Their first action was to adopt resolutions of sympathy for Queen Alexandra because of the death of King Edward. The resolution provided that a wreath from the tomb of Washington at the retirement to be placed upon the dead monarch's tomb.

The delegates then proceeded to pick from the ivy growing in Washington's tomb, from trees which King Edward, when Prince of Wales, planted at Mount Vernon, and from the magnolia tree planted by Washington, the leaves to be made into the wreath of his tribute.

New York, May 13—British Consul General Bennett announced today that the demand for tickets for the memorial service on May 17 for King Edward VII. is so great that not one in of the applicants who have sent in requests for tickets can be furnished with seats. Under these circumstances, Dr. Manning, the Rector of Trinity, has kindly consented to have an additional service at St. Paul's chapel at the same hour as the Trinity service, to accommodate those who cannot find places at the home church. The service at St. Paul's will be open to all without tickets.

London, May 13—From a life of comparative ease and retirement King George suddenly finds himself one of the hardest worked officials in the Kingdom. In addition to spending considerable time daily at Buckingham Palace, comforting his widowed mother, he has assumed a host of public duties, including the royal guests and arranging the difficult details of the funeral of his late father.

Seven o'clock each morning finds him exchanging at Marlborough House, the living in state involves a great addition to the work of arranging the program for the funeral, all of which must be completed before Sunday. The procession to Westminster Abbey, the funeral, and the burial in the vault will be almost on a great scale as the formal procession, the cortege will include King George and all the royal family, the Queen Mother and the Queen Mother and the royal ladies in carriages. The body will be received at the house of commons, while the chapel of Westminster Abbey and the choir of the abbey will be the scene of the funeral service. The procession will take part in the military service.

Business Will Be Suspended. When the funeral procession starts on Friday, every tramcar in London will come to a standstill for a quarter of an hour. It is also proposed that all the public houses in London should be closed while the procession is passing. The Queen Mother herself has been severely busy since the death of the King. She has received a great number of visitors, who have been privileged to enter the death chamber. These included, besides most of the members of the cabinet and the leaders of the opposition, many ambassadors and other officials connected with the court and prominent men who were the intimate friends of Edward VII. A note of disconsolation is everywhere. Tuesday, the day of mourning, will be a day of gloom and sorrow. At a meeting of the corporation today seven members of the royal household, the diplomatic corps and intimate friends of the late sovereign will be admitted to the throne room, which has been given the air of a private chapel. An altar has been erected on the dais where the chairs of state ordinarily stand.

The royal coffin was temporarily opened this evening to allow the Duke and Duchess of Connaught to take their last look at the dead King. The King's brother arrived in London for his African trip and was met on his arrival by King George and Queen Mary. It is officially stated that the royal ladies will participate in the funeral procession on Friday.
