Choir Boys Entertained.

The choir boys of the Christian Bros. Schools, St. Patrick's Hall, who were singing in the church during the evening devotion in May and October, were entertained yesterday by Brothers Kennedy and Ryan. A bountiful supply of candies, fruits, cake, etc., were set before the boys and they had a jolly good time for which they heartily thanked the good Brothers.

Denies the Statement.

A resident of Tor's Cove, now here, wishes to deny the statement made by "Coaster" in Saturday's Chronicle to the effect that everybody in the place knew that the station is only half a mile from the Harbor. This is a bluff and Coaster knows it and if he really does think it is the only one who harbours such an opinion.
He is well aware as are all the people of the place that "Tor's Cove Fishermen's" assertion in the Telegram as to this matter is indisputable.—Com.

FROSTY LAST NIGHT.—At Whitbourne last night the thermometer registered 12 degrees of frost, the lowest temperature recorded over the country this season.

BACK FROM SYDNEY.—The schr.
Helen Stewart, 4 days from Sydney, arrived in port last evening, having had a rough trip; she is consigned to A. S. Rendell & Co.

Miss Rose Greene, daughter of Constable Thomas Greene, of Bell Island, left by the Othello yesterday for New York where she will spend the winter with friends, returning in the spring.

PATIENT ARRIVES.—By yesterday's express a man named Oram arrived from Greenspond for Hospital.
He has a growth on his lip and will be operated on to have it removed.

EIGHT PRISONERS.—Last evening and night the police were again pretty busy as there were a number of drunks, and eight prisoners were jailed, most of them ordinary drunks.

ORGANS.—The famous Needham Organ—sold in tens of thousands of homes. Eight styles to select from.

A HELPLESS DRUNK.—Last night Constable Sheppard was called to a waterfront premises where he found a young chap lying helplessly drunk.
The officer put him into a cab and brought him to the police station. It is probable that he had succumbed from exposure had he not been picked up.

MEN STILL FISHING.—While the schooner Ophir was on her way here from Aquaforte yesterday forenoon some boats were engaged fishing off Cape Broyle and were doing well. It is that section of the Southern Shore that is still plentiful but scarcity of bait makes it difficult to catch it.

It is more than likely that the cargo steamer Simbad, which it was thought, went to Montreal to be dry docked for repairs, as a result of striking a shoal at Eastern Harbour, will make another trip here this season. She is now at Montreal and will proceed to P. E. Island to load produce for this port. The Simbad sustained only slight injuries by ground-

LONDON, Nov. 4.
The Turkish Ambassador, here has been directed by the Ottoman Government to inform Britain of Turkey's willingness to receive assistance in bringing about a suspension of hostilities. Tewfik Pasha, immediately went to the Foreign Office and conferred with Sir Edward Grey for four hours. The Balkan nations and Greece are persistent in their determination that Turkey must arrange directly with them the terms of peace, without intervention by the European Powers.

Special Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
A correspondent of the Chronicle, who was with the Turkish Commander-in-Chief, during part of the operations, calls the Battle of Thrace an appalling and terrible defeat, 40,000 of the flower of the Turkish troops having fallen, while Abdullah Pasha himself narrowly escaped the fate of 75 per cent of his artillery, who were made captives.

Special Evening Telegram.
PARIS, Nov. 4.
The French Government has refused the appeal of the Turkish government to take the initiative in bringing about intervention by the great Powers to stop hostilities and impose an armistice on the Balkan States. The French Foreign Office points out that for France to take the course suggested would be contrary to international law, and would make her appear as siding against the Balkan States. France can only it was added, consider, in accord with all the great Powers, a request for mediation, properly so called, if such a request be addressed to her.

Special Evening Telegram.
SOFIA, Nov. 4.
The Bulgarian troops have now occupied Buk, on the Saloniki-Constantinople railroad, and this, with the possession of Nevelop, finally cuts off communication between the Turkish army in Macedonia and the Turkish garrison of Adrianople. Turkish troops on Saturday attacked the Bulgarian left flank, but were repulsed and put to flight, the Bulgarians capturing five officers and 1,200 men, in addition to a quick-firing battery.
The spoils captured by the Bulgarians at Lule Burgas included depots of clothing, arms, stores, fifteen camels, search-lights, and telegraphic instruments. Prisoners taken by the Bulgarians say that a Prussian officer named Tentel, who held the rank of Colonel in the Turkish Army was killed by his own men after the disastrous action at Lule Burgas. The prisoners say they went into action in a famished condition. The meal had received only one biscuit or a half loaf of bread for three or four days.
Many of them deserted to the Bulgarians.

USKUB, Nov. 4.
Advances of the Servians toward Monastir and Saloniki are progressing successfully. The defeat of the Turks at Kumanova was so complete that the pursuing Servians found the Turkish troops had abandoned their impregnable positions of Katchanil-pass and Ovitopol where it was expected would be the scene of desperate resistance. When the Servians reached the Pass they found the Turks had fled in the wildest confusion, leaving twenty-one guns, num-ous rifles and piles of ammunition. At
and thirty field guns behind them.

PARIS, this a.m.
The French attitude in regard to the Turkish appeal for mediation is shared by England and Russia. The Turkish proposals are as follows:— First, that the Powers offer, and it need be, enforce an armistice on the belligerents; second, that the Powers profit by the armistice to invite the belligerents to make known to them the terms of peace necessary to harmonize the conflicting terms of the belligerents. In refusing to act Premier Poincaré declared France was unable to accept the suggestion about the armistice without guaranteeing the Balkan allies guarantees relative to conditions of peace. An armistice, Poincaré said, would check the advance of the allies at the height of their victories, and give the Turks time to re-organize and strengthen their armies.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Miss Nellie Williams, of Carbonar, stenographer with Messrs. W. Duff & Sons, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Gorman at the Telephone Central.

The family of the late Mrs. John Brazil are desirous of expressing their thanks to Messrs Bowring Bros., of St. John's, for their kindness in so kindly answering the telegraph inquiries of the S. S. Stephano's arrival on which her son was at the time.

Christ Church Missionary Meeting will take place on Thursday evening next, several visiting clergymen will address the gathering.

It is said that the Telephone Company will soon extend the time of their service from 9 p.m. to the present hour of closing, to 11 p.m. If it could be arranged by paying a small fee for calls after that hour, an all night service would be a great convenience. In cases of fire, sickness, and such cases of emergency, it is in the night that the service is of the greatest benefit. The company are evidently anxious to do their best.

A cargo of coal arrived this morning to Rutherford & Co. and is being discharged to-day.

We hear it has now been many decided not to have the cable landed here as was expected some time ago.
This is regrettable, as with the cable staff here quite a nice sum monthly would be put in circulation.
The Ladies of St. Andrew's Sewing Class intend holding a Sale of Work about the end of the present month. They request all their friends to keep this in view.

The Ladies of St. John's Now May Have Beautiful Hair—All First-Class Druggists Sell SALVIA and Guarantee It to Grow Hair or Refund Your Money.

Your druggist is backed up by the manufacturers of SALVIA, the great Hair Grower. It is guaranteed to grow hair.

SALVIA destroys dandruff in ter-days.
The roots of the hair are so nourished and fed that a new crop of hair springs up, to the amazement and delight of the user. The hair is made soft and fluffy. Like all American preparations SALVIA is daintily perfumed. It is hard to find an actress who does not use SALVIA continually.

Ladies of society and influence use no other.
SALVIA is a non-sticky preparation, and is the ladies' favorite. A large generous bottle 50c. Mc Murdo & Co., St. Bon's Bazaar.

The interest of a large section of the community is centered in the forthcoming bazaar to be held in the British Hall, on Nov. 13, under the auspices of the St. Bon's L. A. Nothing has been left undone to make it a success.

There will be a large and varied stock of fancy and rare needlework, including all kinds of dainty goods for women and children, besides useful household requisites, and goods for the use of every member of the household.
Afternoon teas will be served at nominal rates, partridge and meat suppers will be given at less than cost.
Of late it has been noticed that very few men patronize affairs of this kind, but the ladies of St. Bon's L. A. have decided to omit all these objectionable proceedings and make this bazaar such that all male friends of education can attend without fear of being fished.

In addition to Custom Tailoring, we have added an up-to-date Cleansing and Pressing Department. This department is in the hands of first-class men, and patrons are assured of careful attention to all orders. No job in the business too little or too big for us. Goods called for and delivered promptly. W. H.
JACKMAN, the West End Tailor. Phone 795. P. O. Box 186.

Here and There.

VESSELS SAILED AGAIN.—The fleet of schooners which sailed for the Northward on Saturday and had to return owing to an adverse wind, sailed again yesterday and will no doubt reach their destinations all right.

AN HONEST CHILD.—Saturday a little girl named Nichols, of the East End picked up a purse which contained $22 and some receipts, etc., from which latter she gleaned that the money was the property of Mr. Eli Whitway. She promptly returned it to him to his great relief.

BOYS CAUSE TROUBLE.—The people of Pleasant Street, Hamilton St., and other thoroughfares in that district complain of a crowd of boys who roam about there nightly, keep knocking at doors, windows and otherwise annoy residents. The appearance of an occasional policeman would soon put an end to this conduct.

RECEIVED NASTY CUT.—At dusk last evening as a boy named Parsons was running after some companions over Barter's Hill he tripped and fell, and a stick which he carried in his hand taking his face inflicted an ugly wound. The stick was sharp pointed at the end and barely escaped the eye. He had to be assisted home.
