

To-Day's Messages.

20,000 REPATRIATES.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 10. Twenty thousand Galicians will return home this winter from Western Canada, according to local steamship agents. Many of them will not return. They intend to get home in time to take part in voting as to whether Galicia is dissatisfied with Polish rule or will join the British Empire.

BOLSHEVICKS MURDER AMERICANS

LONDON, Nov. 9. Capt. Emmett Kilpatrick, representative of the American Red Cross in South Russia, and two nurses, were brutally killed during a Bolshevik cavalry raid on Salkova station, says a Sebastopol despatch to Reuters Ltd. tonight.

FRANCE'S FORCES INCREASING.

PARIS, Nov. 9. The French Foreign Office hears that General Wrangel, commander of anti-Bolshevik forces in Southern Russia, has declared to the French High Commissioner that his army returned to the Crimea three times more numerous and stronger than when it entered Lauria five months ago.

LLOYD GEORGE AT GUILDFHALL.

LONDON, Nov. 9. Lloyd George, in his address at the Guildhall, discussed briefly and pointedly the various problems with which the Government is dealing. With regard to Germany, he declared himself personally pleased with the proposals of that country for liquidation of her obligations. Coincidentally the Chancellor of the ex-Chequer, Austen Chamberlain, announced in the House of Commons that Germany had placed a large amount of bonds in the hands of reparations commission. The Premier spoke optimistically of Ireland, intimating that the situation there was well in hand. Referring to questions between Germany and the Allies, Lloyd George said that the real test of Germany's sincerity was disarmament, and he added the report, given on that subject, is very satisfactory. The German army is rapidly being reduced to a hundred thousand, but there are still too many rifles at large in Germany, but they are greater menace to German internal peace than to Germany's neighbors, especially where we have to do with men, professing the Red, crazy temper of Bolshevism, who fail to realize how important it is they should respect their obligations. He referred briefly to the industrial situation and the recent coal strike, expressing the belief that there is better temper now all around. Speaking of the Irish situation the Premier said, "unless I am mistaken by the steps we have taken, we have made the situation better. Do not pay too much attention to detailed accounts of disturbances, and what are called the horrors of reprisals, given out by partisans, who stir horrors of murder. There will be no real peace, no reconciliation, until this murder conspiracy is scattered. We are getting tight hold of the men and are dispersing the terrorists. The Government will seek further powers, if necessary, to deal with the situation. If it is war, as terrorists say, then they cannot complain if the Government employs some of the rules of war against them." He referred to his offer to discuss any proposals with any one able to speak in behalf of Ireland, saying, "If I had given that invitation to Germany in the middle of the war, I would have had a response, but giving it to Ireland, no man dare respond, because they are intimidated. You must break the terror before you can get peace. What the Government is offering Ireland is a partnership in the Greatest Empire the world has ever known to the height of its power."

O'DOWD GETS DECISION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. Mike O'Dowd, former middleweight boxing champion, outpointed Jeff Smith in a fifteen round match at Madison Square Garden here tonight. The judges disagreed and the referee awarded the bout to O'Dowd.

TURKISH CONTUMACY.

PARIS, Nov. 9. A despatch to the Havas agency from Constantinople says as Turkey Government continues to postpone the execution of certain undertakings required by the Allies, notably ratification of the Treaty of Sevres, by the Imperial Government, trade and financial aid given Ottoman Treasury will be curtailed, and if that measure does not produce results, delivery of an ultimatum is being considered.

SHOCKING CONDITIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Conditions in Armenia, as a result of the pressure of Turkish troops, are reported to be desperate. Tens of thousands of refugees are fleeing in a futile state, for want of food, clothing and transport.

GERMANS CELEBRATE.

BERLIN, Nov. 10. After a proclamation, unexpectedly issued by the General Federation of Labor Unions, Greater Berlin's labor celebrated the second anniversary of the German revolution yesterday. The middle classes did not take a holiday.

NOT DEAD YET.

VIENNA, Nov. 10. The Austrian Government has formulated a memorial, requesting the admission of Austria to the League of Nations.

The Great War Veterans' Dinner.

On to-morrow night the grand dinner of all veterans of the Great War will take place in the Mechanics' (C. C.) Hall at 7.45 p.m. to celebrate the anniversary of "Armistice." The night itself, the toast list, the meeting of old friends, the concert with the old-time songs and the familiar regimental marches give promise of a notable occasion. The catering will be in the hands of one time Mess Sergeant John Robinson, whose catering abilities were so well known on the other side.

His Excellency the Governor will be present, and a representative of the Government and of the Opposition will propose the "Army and Navy" respectively.

All those who intend to be present are asked to be at the Hall at 7.30 so that it will be possible to start the dinner without delay on the arrival of the Governor.

When all are seated the old familiar and often long-wished for "Come to the Cook-House Door," will be sounded by three buglers.

After dinner the Concert will take place and such old time musicians as Mike Smyth, the Tait trio, Gus Summers, Lloyd Woods, and "Jakey" Seymour will once again be to the fore. The Jazzola Orchestra will give the old selections that were known so well during the war. All the choruses have been printed and all will join in so that once again the old refrains will be shouted in their old time vigour.

All who were given tickets to sell are requested to report to the Secretary of the G.W.V.A. Attention is drawn to the fact that the dinner is for all those who served in the Great War.

More Appointments.

It is now reported that Mr. L. E. Earle has been appointed Trade Commissioner to the Pacific coast. There is some doubt about his territory overlapping that of Mr. F. Hue. A directory with the names and locations of our Trade Commissioners is next in order and an opening awaits some enterprising person. A directory will be an absolute necessity as with the possible collapse of the Coaker Regime, it may be difficult to locate many who are situated in far away outposts. In any case it will be necessary to have a "staff clerk" to keep tab on them.

Serious Conditions.

Passengers who arrived by S.S. Prospero report conditions North as very serious. Many of the places in White Bay are in a state of semi starvation. At Jackson's Arm, a once prosperous place, the people are without food. Help will be needed if the northern section of the coast, is not to become depopulated.

Coastal Boats.

GOVERNMENT. S.S. Portia arrived at Belleoram at 5 a.m. and left at 10 a.m., going west. S.S. Prospero is expected to get away from here on Friday morning. GOVT. RAILWAY COMMISSION. Arkyle left Flat Islands 5.05 p.m. yesterday. Clyde left Little Bay Islands 5.35 p.m. yesterday. Seft left Herring Neck 7.10 p.m. yesterday, inward to Lewisporte. Glencoe at Grand Bank yesterday. Home arrived Lewisporte 5 p.m. yesterday.

Meigle, no report since leaving North Sydney. Kyle at Port aux Basques. Watchful arrived Port Blandford on way out. Sebastopol left Flower's Cove 4.35 p.m. yesterday, coming to Humbermouth.

Earl of Devon left St. Anthony 2.50 p.m. yesterday, inward to Lewisporte.

Not a Member of Union.

Dear Sir.—There seems to be an impression that it was one of the regular Truckmen that was caught with those 3 barrels of beef one night last week. I would like to state for the benefit of the Truckmen's Union, that it was not a member of the Truckmen's Union that carted said beef.

Yours sincerely,
J. BARTER,
President T.P.U.
Nov. 9, 1920.

STILL DELAYED.—The new ruler for the s.s. Delco, expected by s.s. Rosalind yesterday, did not arrive, but it will come by s.s. Tashmore which is due here Friday morning. The Tashmore belongs to Moore & McCormack, New York, and is bound to Belfast with general cargo.

Mina's Linctament Cures Diphtheria.

Police Court.

A young man belonging to Catalina, and who arrived here yesterday with that "she qua non," a script, got gloriously drunk, entered a woman's house and falling through the cellar hatch, went to sleep amongst the coals. He was removed by two members of the police force from his comfortable resting place, and deposited in the lock-up for the night. He was discharged.

A halfwitted girl, who arrived from LaSalle yesterday by the Prospero, was found wandering about the streets by two ladies and brought to the police station, where she was placed in a cell for safekeeping. The court gleaned from her statements, many of which were incoherent, that she had been sent on to St. John's by the magistrate of LaSalle to enter the Poor House, in the care of a business man of LaSalle, whom she had lost track of after arrival here. His Honor expressed his disgust at the idea of the unfortunate girl being sent to the Poor House, and said that she would be better in some unsophisticated outport home. In the meantime he committed her to the charge of the Supt. of Police, until something could be done for her by the Poor Commissioner.

A young man belonging to Foxtrap, was charged with drunkenness. He had been picked up on the Waterford Bridge Road, where he said he had been going to work.

His Honor: "Go in and go to work."

The next case to occupy the court's attention was rather a complicated one, three different summons being issued, all in connection with the one case. The first two were issued against a man for assaulting an old woman and doing damage to a door. The third was issued by the defendant in the first two cases against the plaintiff in the second one for assault. The first count was dismissed, on the second the defendant had to pay $2 damage, and the defendant in the third charge was fined $2 or seven days.

Express Passengers.

The following passengers are on the incoming express:—R. Collins, Miss D. Ryan, Mrs. M. Read, Jno. Baggs, J. and Mrs. Poundan, Ensign Roberts, Adjt. French, Capt. A. Parsons, A. Gosse, Rev. F. Baird, Miss H. Rowsell, Thos. Cole, Mrs. M. Powell and son, Miss H. Meek, John Moore, Mrs. A. Moore, Miss I. Moore, Miss J. Shea, W. Baldwin, J. and Mrs. Cox, E. Chalk, A. Saunders, Miss E. Snow, Mrs. McKay and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. St. John and two daughters, Mrs. A. Garcin, C. and Mrs. Reid, F. Lewis, H. S. Crowe, J. H. Coll, J. T. Andrews, Mrs. M. Barry, Thos. Farrell, S. Higgins.

What New Yorkers Think.

Several gentlemen who arrived by the Rosalind from New York, being interviewed regarding our trade connections with that centre, told us that they would give information absolutely correct, that does not reflect creditably on us as business people, but that the Star and Advocate would quickly hound them should they do so. However, Mr. Shipman, who had also been in New York, referring to conditions there said that trade was little dull, though commodities were beginning to pile in. He said that New York business men laugh at our methods which are decidedly the reverse of any other peoples with a staple to sell. The regulations, although killing Newfoundland so far as trade with New York is concerned, did not prevent the concerns there getting off the coast and cured itself for the market have been sold to Greece, and while at Boston Mr. Shipman saw the third shipment, some 600 casks of this fish, being sent to that market. There are also some 200,000 qts. of Lunenburg fish still unsold, most of which will go to the West India market where we are rapidly losing our hold.

Dominion Night Sports.

It is expected that Mr. Jack Kavanagh who met with a slight accident on Friday night last while practising in the Prince's Ring, will be able to have a spin to-night. Quite a number of runners are now going over the course, and as the night of the Sports draws near enthusiasm increases. Arrangements to have three crack runners from Grand Falls participate, are being finalized. A slight ridge on the floor of the rink will be removed and the management hope in a day or two to have everything in first class order.

Susu's Passengers.

S.S. Susu called for points as far as Cartwright at 10 this morning, taking the following passengers: K. Atwood, Miss Minnie Moulton, Rev. and Mrs. Davies, Mr. Welshire, Mrs. D. MacRoberts, E. P. Parrott, G. Gibbons, Stephen Angel, Miss L. Hudson, Jabez Abbott.

Japanese White Nape.

A sample of fish, over a year old, was to be seen at the Board of Trade Rooms to-day, it having been sent there by a member. The fish came from far Japan, and is white nape, obviously in imitation of the Coaker white nape Labrador. It had evidently been split by machinery; the top of the nape and neck are also squared. The sample will likely be sent to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries with the object of having the imitation improved upon. We, with fear, venture to suggest that the indefatigable minister get his regulations copyrighted and the White Nape fish process patented.

Shipping Notes.

S.S. Vivian Ruth, 11 days from Halifax, to the Imperial Oil Co., has arrived in port.
S.S. Corunna, 6 days from Montreal, arrived this morning with a general cargo to Harvey & Co.
S.S. Rosalind sails for Halifax on Friday or Saturday morning next.
S.S. Canadian Miller leaves Montreal on the 8th.
S.S. Prospero hauled to Bowring's Southside premises this morning to take bunker coal.

Personal.

Mr. Carl Trapnell, lately of R. H. Trapnell & Son, will shortly start in business as an optician in St. John's. Capt. Tom Connors, of the s.s. Portia, who met with a nasty accident when his ship was in Burin, has greatly improved.

Business Dull.

Business was dull along Water Street to-day, although many people were about viewing the different bargain sales offered. Amongst the displays may be seen a barrel of flour in the window of a hardware dealer, evidently the owner having secured one is making his luck known. A pair of boots made 44 years ago by the Newfoundland Boot and Shoe Factory is another display. The motto "Encourage Home Industry" is attached. Many articles are, however, reduced to cost, the only exception being Fireless Cookers, there being such a demand for these owing to the high cost of coal ($21.00 per ton), that there is no necessity for cutting their price.

One of the greatest worries to be faced to-day is the choice of gifts for friends, as we do get and give such useless things. A great society leader once said, "There is safety in Flowers for all occasions." We agree with her, and suggest a bunch of our beautiful Chrysanthemums, several colors, or Carnations, or a pot of Snapdragons, etc., many other kinds soon ready.
Try Valley sun seasoned Tomatoes for Sandwiches, they are the rage. Bouquets, Wreaths, etc., quickly supplied.
Say it with flowers.

Wedding Bells.

FINLAY—McNEIL.

St. Shotts was the scene of a quiet, pretty wedding on the morning of October 28th, when Mr. George Finlay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Finlay, of that place, led to the altar Miss Madeline McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McNeil, Trepasser, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by the parish priest, Rev. Wm. O'Flaherty. The bride was attired in a pretty costume of saxe blue with hat and veil and bouquet of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister Mary, and the groom's sister, Josephine, both of whom were attired in white. Messrs. Thomas Finlay and Augustus McNeil, brothers of the contracting parties, ably supported the groom. After the nuptials was performed and congratulations extended by the host of people present, breakfast was partaken of at the home of Mr. Finlay's parents. Late in the afternoon the bride and groom proceeded to their residence, Farm Hill, where a sumptuous tea was served to the immediate relatives and friends and an informal dance was held. Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Finlay. May their journey down life's pathway be strewn with the roses of happiness, prosperity and success.—Com.

TWO TYPHOID CASES.—Shortly after noon to-day the Public Health Department received word that two women of Cuddahy Street were stricken with Typhoid fever. They were immediately taken to the hospital.

CAB COLLIDES WITH STREET CAR.—Last night, whilst Mr. Matt Kelly, the well known caddy, was turning his vehicle on Water St., near the City Club, the rubber slipped off one of the wheels and caused the cab to collide with a street car which was approaching. One of the shafts of the cab was damaged, but otherwise no harm was done.
