TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

RINGLEADERS EXECUTED.
DUBLIN, Dec. 8. Rory O'Connor and Liam Mellows were the two Irish rebels who were executed at Mount Joy Prison this morning. It was officially announced. These two were leaders of the insurgents who held Four Courts building against Free State troops last June, and were taken prisoners after three days' siege.

FREE STATE STANDING NO NON-SENSE.
DUBLIN, Dec. 8. Two other men executed, it was learned later, were named Joseph McKelvey and Richard Barrett, both prominent Republicans. An official army report states that four men were executed as a reprisal for the assassination of Sean Hailes, Deputy, shot yesterday, and as a solemn warning to those associated with them in "a conspiracy of assassination against representatives of the Irish people."

BOMB THROWING.
DUBLIN, Dec. 8. Three civilians were wounded when a bomb was thrown at a lorry full of Nationalist troops in Anglin Street last evening. The troops were uninjured.

NEW ZEALAND VOTES WET.
LONDON, Dec. 8. New Zealand gives a big vote against prohibition in the referendum taken concurrently with the Parliamentary elections, according to a despatch to the Daily Express.

NOT IN FAVOR.
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 8. A despatch from Guatemala City says the British Minister to Guatemala has been recalled on a charge of having mixed in the politics of the Republic.

CONTRARY TO AGREEMENT.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 8. Reports from Ankara indicate that Kemalists will deport Greek and Armenian inhabitants on Mediterranean and Black Sea coast lines, and in the vilayets of Konia, Angora, Brusa, Sivas, Diarbeck and Adana, to Van Erzurum and Bitlis.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.
PORTLAND, OREGON, Dec. 8. Fire raging at Astoria port, near mouth of Columbia River, had destroyed six business blocks early today, and threatened to wipe out the town. Buildings are being dynamited to check progress, and firefighters are rushing from neighboring towns. The fire started at three this morning, and at daybreak had done four millions worth of damage, according to police estimates.

DENOUNCING HEALY.
LONDON, Dec. 8. Irish Republicans, according to a Dublin despatch to the Evening Standard, issued a manifesto describing Governor General Timothy Healy as "the long enemy of the nation, adding 'the fight will go on as long as there is a man in Ireland. It is war to the death.'"

Schr. Nancy Lee, Captain Wiltshire, sailed for Bahia yesterday afternoon with a cargo of fish.

The Game.

A herd of between thirty caribou were seen in the marshes between Goose Bay and Kitty's Brook on Wednesday.

We have heard tall stories relative to the slaughter of One report says that fifteen summer traps were taken in country the past season, and a resident of Deer Lake says that there was some beaver hunting on Upper Fox past summer.

It is also reported that a beaver has been killed. We do not want of these stories but give them as they reach us. No doubt the wardens are doing the best but two or three men cannot the whole country, at one time is quite possible that what at one section of their area would occur at other points.
