A Live Business Town and a Budding Pleasure Resort.

The G. T. R. Company Gives the Rest. dents a Forty-Acre Park.

Sarnia, as the southern boundary of which the St. Claft tunnel takes its sear from the Canadian side, is a good at talked about these days, but it is a town which will be heard more of in the future. There is every reason to believe that it will continue to progress. In the part the additional attention of a splendid resort of the continue to progress. In the part the additional attention of a splendid resort of the store of the future. There is every reason to believe that it will continue to progress. A sound that the standard and appears the standard and appears the standard and the continue to progress. In the part the additional attention of the place of the pl of Port Huren, on the opposite banks of the river, and then Sarnia will be added to the list of progressive cities contained within the borders of Ontario. First will come Windsor, with Sandwich united, then Sarnia, with Point Edward as a northern suburb. At present, the only thing that separates the two places is Saruia's new park—a fine stretch of 40 acres, the northern confines of which lie contiguous to the borders of the Point." This park was recently donated to Sarnia by the Grand Trunk Railway Company, in and a splendid present it is. It leases on the bay shore, and is of especial value to citizens, inasmuch as it is two only strip of 8 unoccupied land on the water front between the lake shore and the vacant space below the St. Clair tunnel. The land is retair low-lying, but the enterprising park commissioners speedily devised a scheme that has not only thoroughly drained the park, but has added to its natural attractions, and they are considerable. With a steam of commonweight of the commonweight of the second control of the commonweight of t

With a steam diredge a commodified park, the fall in the land making it possible to have a steady stream, several feet deep running from the bay of the northern limits to the acothern end, where it again empties into the bay. With the earth obtained from the cutting a fine carriage drive is elsein built around the park, and all hollows have been filled up. The canal drainage is supplemented with the draina in various parts of the park, and the result is a beautiful pleasure resort in embryo, at infinitesimal cost. In the north-western corner a splendid half-mile track has been laid out. Further down nearer the lake, a pavilion, with all modern improvements, capable of accommodating 2,000 persons, has been constructed, from the top of which a magnificent view of the bay and surroundings can be obtained. There are several clumps of trees, under which places of the season of all sorts of bathers, are beathing houses for both sees. The street railway to Point Edward interfering with the symmetry of trees comed by the back, instead of along the shiring. When the park is completed, it will form one of the granting. A VOICE FROM THE FARM.

The High Tax Fraud Exposed By

To the Editor of the ADVERTIS ER:

A recent number of the Free Press states "that the Government cannot raise the price of the farmers' produce, as that is fixed by competition, but no one can deny that the Government can assist the industries." Very true; but the question that most interests us is, at whose expense is this assistance given? One case will illustrate both:

The Millers' Association had 50 ceats protection on a barrel of flour. This did not satisfy. They went to the Government to be assisted and got 75 cents per barrel. Now for the two questions:

1. Did to increase the price of the farmers' wheat? Cartainly not. The price of wheat (as the Free Press states) is fixed by foreign competition. Who then is benefited? The millers.

2. At whose expenses. Containly.
