The Nickel Shows.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I have read with some interest the letter which appeared in your issue of Tuesday, the 9th inst., in criticism of the nickel shows, signed "J. N. Oscar Rogers." I have also read the replies of Mr. Frank Myers, of the Unique Theatre and Mr. J. W. Shaw.

The letter of Mr. Myers is at least courteous, and fairly and truthfully presents the case for the nickel shows from the national and educational standpoints. I have seen the pictures illustrative of The Nickel Shows.

"Old Glory," and thought them admirable. It would seem to be a cheap able. It would seem to be a cheap brand of patriotism that could not enthuse over the heroic struggles of a neighboring republic, and with which canada has long been at peace. mer months, but in view of the gravity from the situation with Spain it would airs, and makes a poor attempt to heap ridicule of the cheapest kind upon Mr. appear that the papal secretary had deliberately delayed another meeting with Marquis Deganzales counseller to "the old homestead," yet we are all deliberately delayed another meeting with Marquis Deganzales, counsellor to the Spanish embassy at the Vatican, rather than to have afforded the marquis an epportunity to show his friendliness as he did last Tuesday, when he attended high mass celebrated in honor of the anniversary of the coronation of Pius X. Whether the Spanish counsellor would have attended the reception today was a matter. ed the reception today was a matter sufficiently in doubt to evelte keep in

> On a former occasion I tried to defend the nickel shows as vigorously as I could in the local press when a section of the pulpit made sweeping charges against them as an agency calculated to debase the young. I was not at the time altegether blind to certain features of the shows that were objectionable, though minor ones were alluded to. I fel-
