Moitreal, Nov. 20.—In the Hebert case this morning the plaintiff appeared and formally withdrew from the case. The counsel for Mrs. Hebert thereupon asked for a judgment by default, and Judge Archer express, which is seen at the Grand Saturday for now not necessary, in view of the fact that in the eyes of the law the marriage was a legal one, and Mrs. Hebert s status was the same as before the action was first taken.

The defence then entered a formal demand for judgment by default with costs, and this motion goes over for consideration. The date of judgment on this point was not fixed.

NEW DEPARTURE BY R. H. & J. DOWLER

The defence concludes with a side-splitting after-piece, "Henderson Busbee's Raggery," which discloses a typical dance hall. A number of specialities are introduced in this scene.
