Y. W. C. A. GETS NEW SECRETARY

Miss Marjory Morton Comes Here From Regina in September.

Took Prominent Part in Association Building Campaigns in West.

After waiting several months to appoint a general secretary to succeed Mrs. J. R. Henderson, the board of the London Y. W. C. A. is congratulating itself upon securing a trained and experienced worker who measures up to the high standard set, "ideal for the position."

Miss Marjory Morton, general secretary for the past twelve years of the Regina Young Women's Christian Association, has consented to accept the position. Miss Morton was in Toronto last week attending the Dominion triennial meeting, and members of the local association who met her there are rejoicing over the good luck coming to London. She will assume her new duties the beginning of September.

It is a coincidence that Miss Morton is coming to London just at the time of the launching of the new Y. W. C. A. Club and administration building plan. It has been her luck for years to be associated with "growing-up" of associations, and big forward movements. Going from Toronto to Winnipeg several years ago, she made a record for herself for the manner in which she took hold of the work of financial secretary, at a time when a large amount was to be raised to put the association there in a position to cope with the rapidly developing work.

As soon as an association was organized in Regina in April, 1910, the immediate choice for the general secretary was Miss Morton. The quick growth paralleled the overnight mushrooming-up of towns and cities of the prairies at that time. Seven hundred members were enrolled in a few weeks, and the first modest headquarters opened. But the Regina "Y" was firmly established, and its growth sure and speedy.

The rapid development under Miss Morton's guidance was the despair as well as joy of all connected with the young association's destiny.

The secretary saw the imperative need of prompt measures to secure an adequate building. A site was purchased at Western boom time, before the war-prices, a beautiful property overlooking the centre of the capital park. A grand campaign was inaugurated for funds, which went over the top without a struggle. The new building with its gymnasium and other up-to-the-minute features had just been formally opened when along came Regina's big cyclone and tore out one whole corner and side, smashing windows and battering things up generally.

There was no time to be downhearted with so much requiring to be done. Miss Morton, shoulder to shoulder with the board that had her own brand of vision, set to work on the reconstruction.

This is the woman that the board of the London Y. W. C. A. has secured as general secretary, to work with the industrial, girls' work, physical training, travelers' aid secretaries, whose achievements are every day winning added sympathy and support for the association.

Personals

Miss Beryl Boug spent the week-end in Detroit.

Lester MacGillivray has returned from California.

Mrs. (Dr.) C. C. Lick of Cleveland, and Mrs. W. R. Davidson of Pontiac, Mich., are guests with Mrs. Wilcox, 311 Dufferin avenue.

Lieutenant Harold C. White and charming bride have arrived home from England, accompanied by Miss Kathleen White, who went over with her brother to be bridesmaid at the wedding.

A happy event of Tuesday afternoon will be the garden fete, at the University grounds, given by the Western University Alumnae Association and the Faculty Club, in honor of the '22 graduates.

The engagement is announced of Edith May, daughter of Mrs. Ada C. Liddell, 321 Dufferin avenue, and the late Edmund L. Liddell, of this city, to Mr. Thomas A. Henderson, of Detroit, the marriage to take place quietly early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Graham, Woodburn Farm, Lobo, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vera Vinnetta, to Mr. Charles L. Tunks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tunks, of the second concession of Lobo, the marriage to take place early in June.

Miss Jean Leske, Central avenue, accompanied by Mrs. John Graham, and young daughter Jean, have left for a motor trip to Detroit, Mich., Dayton and Cincinnati, Ohio. While in Dayton they will be the guests of Mrs. Graham's daughter, Mrs. F. H. Brown and Mr. Brown.

Rev. A. W. Lochead, missionary on furlough from China, who recently addressed the Women's Canadian Club, has been enjoying a fortnight's holiday in Muskoka, a pleasant interlude in the midst of many demands on his time for lectures, church services, etc. He is staying with relatives of Mrs. Lochead's in Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Langford entertained at dinner the July class, 1922 graduates of Victoria Hospital, on Saturday, in honor of their daughter, Miss L. Vivian Langford.

The table was charming, centered with pink and white apple blossoms, surrounded with masses of pale green tulle, while at each cover were tiny cut glass vases of forget-me-nots. After dinner the guests were entertained at a theatre party.

A charming affair arranged in honor of the girl graduates '22 of Western University, was the party given by Miss Aileen Boomer, Miss Dona Waller and Miss Marjorie Dexter, at the home of Miss Boomer, Colborne street. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers, the university colors carried out with masses of purple and white lilacs and iris, which were tastefully arranged. The evening was spent in cards and dancing. A dainty supper was served at the small tables. The pretty group of graduates looked winsome in their graduating frocks.

Mrs. E. C. Bowker, "Cloverlea," has returned home after a most interesting week, filled to the brim with gaieties, spent in Toronto and Ottawa. Going to Toronto to meet an old friend, Hon. Mrs. Alfred Lytleton, who was traveling with Lord and Lady Astor, she proceeded with the party to Ottawa, where she stayed with her mother, Mrs. Kirchoff. She was a guest at the small luncheon given by Lady Borden and Lady Perley in honor of Lady Astor, and attended the reception in the evening for Lady Astor in the Russell Theatre with the box party, arranged by her aunt, Mrs. Harris. Referring to Lord Astor's obvious unbounded admiration for his brilliantly gifted and charming wife, she says, "A man might express his appreciation in words as Lord Astor did in Ottawa if he had the gift, because it was the thing to do. But he cannot look at her with such whole-souled admiration and adoration as he does if he didn't mean it. They are a beautifully happy couple."

In honor of Miss Lois Black and the girl graduates of Western, Mrs. A. D. Robertson entertained at tea Saturday afternoon at her home on St. James street. Spring flowers were used throughout the rooms, with rose tulips decking the tea table, where Mrs. W. E. Tamblin and Mrs. John C. Lamb presided, with Miss Helen Battle and Miss Margaret McIntosh as assistants.

The graduates included: Miss Blanche Tancock, Miss Catherine Campbell, Miss Rose Saunders, Miss Mary Granger, Miss Helen Carr.

Get Camp Equipment Same As Scouts

THE May number of the Ontario Provincial Girl Guide Bulletin, which has just been issued, makes the following interesting announcement to Girl Guide companies:

"The Canadian Council Girl Guides has been notified from Military Headquarters, Ottawa, that issues of loan of camp equipment may, during the present season, be extended to Girl Guide Associations under the same conditions as issues are being made to Boy Scout Associations, provided that the articles of camp equipment are actually available within the military district and are not required for military department purposes. Camp equipment cannot be moved from another military district for this purpose. Transportation and repairs are to be paid for by Girl Guides, as well as any deficiencies arising."

Others, Miss Velma Wilkey, Miss Gertrude Webster, Miss Shirley White, Miss Marjorie McKee and Miss Lois Black. A number of last year's graduates and students were included among the guests: Misses Agnes Tamblin, Lillian Black, Aileen Boomer, Dona Waller, Marjorie Dexter, Kathleen James, Edith James, Helen Allison, Margaret Gemmell, Catherine Sabine, Kathleen Braithwaite, Edith Anderson, Lillian Hill, Gladys Blewett, Jessie McFarlane, Agnes Campbell, Jean Walker, Helen McIntosh, Ruth Davis and Mary Kilbourne.

MAKES PRESENTATION TO GEN. AND MRS. PANET

Headquarters Staff Pays Tribute to Tea Given by Mrs. Mortimore.

Mrs. Thomas Mortimore, Central avenue, was the charming hostess of a farewell tea, Monday afternoon, in honor of General H. A. Panet, and Mrs. Panet. The other guests were the staff officers and their wives, including Colonel Murphy and Mrs. Murphy; Colonel Frank Ware and Mrs. Ware; Colonel Robinson and Mrs. Robinson; Colonel McCrimmon and Mrs. McCrimmon; Major Corrigall; Major Lawless; Captain Cooke and Mrs. Cooke; Captain Currie and Mrs. Currie; Captain Bradshaw and Mrs. Bradshaw and Major Mortimore; Major and Mrs. Passey. During the afternoon, Colonel Ware, on behalf of the staff, presented General Panet and Mrs. Panet, with two handsome pieces of silver suitably engraved, expressing their regret upon losing their esteemed general and his charming wife. At the tea hour, Mrs. Murphy poured at the attractive tea table decked with pink tulips and lily-of-the-valley, and Mrs. Ware cut the ices. General and Mrs. Panet are leaving for their new home in Toronto in a few days.

What Women Are Accomplishing in London.

L. C. MEETS THURSDAY. The meeting of the Local Council of Women called for 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at Lenmore, was postponed until Thursday this week at the same hour.

ST. GEORGE'S GUIDES ENTER-TAIN.

The Girl Guides of St. George's Anglican Church held a delightful mother and daughter banquet in the Sunday school room. The tables for the event were very daintily arranged with the colors of St. George, red and white, and centered with lilacs, tulips and other flowers. Mrs. Frank Humphries (lieut.), assisted by the Nightingale and Oriole patrols, served the guests.

Miss Edith M. Johnston, captain of the company, presided over the toast list, which was as follows: "The king," proposed by the toastmistress and responded to by all singing the National Anthem; "The church," replied to by Canon Sage; "The mothers," proposed by Miss Margaret Bowler and replied to by Mrs. Guymer; "The daughters," proposed by Mrs. Johansson and replied to by Miss Ena Sanham.

A delightful program was arranged under the convership of Miss Edna Linnell, including a reading by Edna Skinner; solo, M. Bowie; gypsy dance, Marion McLean; dialogue, Bluebirds; choruses, Bluebirds and Wrens; chorade, Indigo Bunting; Mrs. Sage, Mrs. Guymer and Mrs. Bowie, on behalf of the guests, expressed their appreciation of the happy evening.

WITH THE BRIDES

BARNES-STEPHENS.

A quiet wedding took place at 2:30 Friday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 827 Lovett street, this city, when Ada Gertrude, daughter of Wm. J. Stephens, was married to Dr. A. F. Barnes of this city, son of A. F. Barnes of 789 Hill street. Rev. R. J. McCormick officiated. The bride was becomingly dressed in a navy blue suit with grey hat and shoes. After luncheon the bridal party left on the 4:20 train for eastern points. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will be at home to their friends on Anderson avenue.

Why Let Moths Eat Up Your Sand-Pile? Store It For Sea son At Day Nursery

Does anybody own a first-hand or second-hand sand pile he or she would like to donate or loan to the Day Nursery? Is there such a thing as a nice, clean sand pile for which the family has no further use that might be passed along for the little folks who spend several hours a day at the King street creche?

Hands-up, readers of the Women's Department of The Advertiser, who have such an outgrown sand pile. You haven't the time or the inclination to play in it yourself? Why let it lie around getting moth-eaten this summer, when it would bring untold bliss to wet folks with pails and shovels, plump little folks, thin little girls, tiny girls with blue eyes, and tiny girls with brown, peachy, and cream-complexion boys, and bits of laddies with shining black eyes and kinky, woolly hair?

Can't you just see them reveling in that sand pile, and can't you imagine how much they are losing out of life without it?

Many good friends have sent in much valued donations to the Day

Nursery in the past few weeks, but nobody has come along wheeling a sand pile.

Among donations gratefully acknowledged, the board are the following: Mrs. F. P. Drake, children's linen books; Mrs. Smith, Talbot Street Mothers' Club, clothes; Friends' Class, per Miss Andrews, four laundry bags for children; First Methodist Sunday School, bread rolls; Mr. Gunn, toys; Mrs. Fisher, Gleanings, two dozen fresh eggs; Miss Kingsmill, two chairs for playroom; Count On Me Club, St. James' Presbyterian Church, through Miss McCrimmon, $10; Mrs. J. M. Bucke, $2; A Friend, $1; Mrs. Alex. Harvey, Talbot Street Mothers' Club, has distributed 30 empty fruit jars to the club members to be filled for the Day Nursery, and, it is stated, a number more are available at the nursery.

Those who are interested in promoting the happiness as well as health and general welfare of the creche girls and boys are hoping for good fairies to arrange some picnics and other outings for the little folks.

Finally we reached Great Salt Lake and to my surprise we crossed it on the train, about 32 miles, I heard someone say. Part of the way was on a made road and part of the way on foot. The water looked rather white with salt, I suppose, and little white spots were floating on the water.

About 30 hours after leaving "Frisco" we reached Ogden, which is quite a railway center.

Here I stayed all night and in the morning left on the Denver and Rio Grande R. R. for Denver. We soon passed through Salt Lake City and I may say it was a mountainous region nearly all the way to Denver.

By night we had reached the highest peak of the Rockies, the moon was full, one could put one's face against the car window and look up at the tremendous height in wonder and admiration. Such strange and wonderful shapes.

When crossing the line between Utah and Colorado, the line was shown by the names being printed on the smooth rock.

Pike's Peak, near Denver, is one of the highest mountains.

Denver was reached at 12:45 noon, and a very pleasant two days were spent in exploring the city and calling on friends there.

I went up to the top of a high tower in one store which is over three hundred feet high and from which a good view of the surrounding country was obtained. There are many fine stores and buildings there.

Good apples to be a fairly good state, also Nebraska. Coming on toward Chicago we crossed the Mississippi River, and at 9:30 Thursday evening we pulled into Chicago.

Here I spent three days with friends and saw some of the big stores and skyscrapers.

Sunday it rained all day and that night at 11 o'clock I left Chicago on the last lap of my long journey and the next day, about 11 a.m., I reached home.

MOLLY MAGUIRE.

WHAT SHALL I DO? Molly—I think the person you referred to considers you a good pal and friend, but nothing more. Why not treat him accordingly? "Certainly go out with him—don't cut off your nose to spite your face. I would ask him what he meant by his statement when leaving."

WANTS SLIPS.

Dear Miss Grey,—As this is my first visit to your Mail-Box I will not stay long. I would like to get some of those bulbs that Cinnamon Vine sent in, and am enclosing ten cents for same. I would also like to get some slips of house plants or vines, such as Wandering Jew, to make hanging baskets. I would pay postage on them. I am also enclosing a mite for the sick children's hospital.

COLESTON.

I have placed your name on file in case I am writing to ask for help for a very dear friend who is in great trouble. The Boxes will be saying another one asking for help, but if they knew this case as I do, I know many would be glad to help. I have helped some with food, but cannot afford to buy them any clothes, which they need so badly. There are three girls, 8, 6, 4, and all are big for their age. The mother is a brave little lady, but has nothing but a few rags. The father also needs clothes; suit size 38, and shoes No. 8. I shall be glad to call for any parcels in the case of anyone, and if possible, I will give Miss Grey her address.

HOPEFUL SYLVIA.

Yes, there have been numerous requests for clothes, and I think by this time the attic and store-rooms have been pretty well stripped; but I hope that you will be able to obtain a few clothes for your friend. Many thanks for remembering our hospital fund.

MOSA-NEWBURY W. I.

The annual meeting of the Mosanewbury W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. E. Redcraft on May 19.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. F. Robinson; first vice-president, Mrs. D. Stalker; second vice-president, Mrs. Ed. Haggitt; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida Haggitt; district director, Mrs. Watson; directors, Mrs. M. Armstrong, Mrs. D. Logan, Mrs. E. Aeyoratt.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Miss Jennie Ryeveart, Mora, on Thursday, June 15th.

On Thursday afternoon, May 25, the summer meeting of the Institute will be held in the Newbury Hall, when Miss Emily J. West, of Toronto, will be the speaker.

ZONE CENTRE W. I.

The query "Of What Benefit Are Women's Institutes?" was very pleasingly answered by Mrs. Sifton of Muirkirk on Wednesday evening last at the public meeting held by the Zone Centre branch of the Women's Institute.

The address dealt with the routine of the institute work. In the new business it was decided to hold an ice cream garden party in the school grounds adjoining the town hall on the evening of June 11. It was also decided to reply affirmatively to the offer made to supply a speaker during the month of June by the superintendent of the Women's Institute department, Toronto.

In making the year's program the motto, "Be ambitious—be practical," was adopted.

HONOR EMBRO BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Minnie Ross Embro, gave a shower in honor of the bride-elect, Miss May Cody, last week. During the evening the guest of honor was presented with a large basket prettily decorated and filled with gifts, including linen, china, cut-glass, and silverware. The first part of the evening was spent in a guessing contest, after which Mrs. W. Murray and Miss Maggie Smith, accompanied by Miss Helen Ross, sang much-appreciated songs. A tempting supper was served by the hostess.

GIVES FORKS AND KNIVES.

An Embro correspondent writes: Wednesday evening the members and adherents of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cody and presented Miss Eva Cody with a dozen silver knives and forks. Mr. J. Hutchinson acted as master of ceremonies, Mrs. W. Barker reading an address of appreciation. A program included songs by Messrs. D. R. Halladay and Roland Mabel, piano numbers by Miss Mabel Garner and several impromptu speeches.

END SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

A special meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the basement of St. George's Church on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Collins of Ancaster, the government representative, addressed the meeting on "Women's National Outlook." Miss Collins outlined the work that is being accomplished by the various institutes of Western Ontario, and showed the value of the Women's Institute in reaching the foreign-born women of Canada, who feel that the members of this organization are personally interested in their welfare.

For New Styles and Pretty Arms

(Beauty Notes.)

Women are fast learning the value of the use of delatone for removing hair or fuzz from face, neck or arms.

A paste is made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on the hairy surface. In 2 or 3 minutes it is rubbed off, the skin washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No failure will result if you are careful to buy genuine delatone and mix fresh as wanted.—Adv.

POPLAR HILL MISSION BAND.

Poplar Hill Junior Mission Band, of which Ralph Gray is president, has made arrangements with the Robinson Memorial Methodist choir to give the cantata "Paradise" in the Poplar Hill Baptist Church Friday, May 26, under the direction of Theodore Gray, organist and choirmaster.

This is the first public enterprise of the Mission Band, which is planning for further events along a similar line.

Really Removes Roots of Superfluous Hair

(Phelactine, the New Wonder-Worker.)

Without doubt the greatest thing yet discovered for hair-disfigured woman-kind is the wonderful phelactine method. It has none of the disadvantages of electrolysis or depilatories, and, best of all, it removes the hairs entire, roots and all; it does this instantly, leaving the skin so smooth and soft that no one can tell the user was ever the possessor of a moustache or other hairy growth.

"Phelactine is non-odorous, non-irritating, and so harmless a child could eat it without ill-effect. A stick of this remarkable substance, accompanied by simple instructions, can be obtained at any drug store. What woman would not be delighted after seeing those ugly hairs come out—including the roots—with her own eyes?—Adv.
