SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST

Whelan Convicted of the Assassination of D'Arcy McGee.

SENTENCE OF DEATH PASSED UPON HIM.

Canada.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—There was a large crowd outside the court room this morning, very few were admitted. The prisoner on being brought in looked pale and nervous. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The prisoner who heard the announcement with great composure then made a long address to the Court in which he emphatically and solemnly asserted his entire innocence of the crime. He denied having any connection with the Fenians, and he declared he had been condemned because he was a Roman Catholic and that the evidence had been deliberately concocted to convict him. He was going on to speak of the cruel treatment of Irishmen by England when he was interrupted by the Chief Justice, who pointed out that whatever might be the case elsewhere, in this country Irishmen and all other classes were treated alike before the law—he had no reasonable grounds for any complaint. After solemnly cautioning the prisoner against entertaining any hopes of pardon, and imploring him to prepare for the future, His Lordship sentenced him to be executed on Thursday the 10th day of December.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—Patrick Blakely, one of the accomplices in the McGee murder is said to be insane.

Whelan strongly protests that he did not shoot McGee; he knows who did it. It is expected he will make a full confession shortly.

Eastern States.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—The news from Maine says the vote was the largest ever polled. Almost all the larger cities and towns show the Republican gains as compared with last year's vote. The total Republican vote was seventy-five thousand; Democratic vote, fifty three thousand.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 15.—A bill was passed by the House yesterday excluding negroes from serving on juries. It is understood today that the House after a stormy debate declared negro members claiming only one eighth negro blood, to be ineligible by a unanimous vote; 69 Republicans refused to vote.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Mike McCool has accepted the challenge from Heenan to fight for $50,000 with a promise that the fight shall come off within fifty miles of St. Louis, and that Frank Queen shall not be stakeholder.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The Senate Chamber and half of the House are nearly ready for occupation for the winter. Furniture has been supplied, about sixty members are in the city. The impression prevails that there will be no quorum on Monday.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The weather is quite cold. There was a light frost last night.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Snow fell near Utica last night, frost is reported in various sections.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Letters have been received from the department of the North German Confederation, confirming the recent treaty, and instructing officers that no action must be taken against former German subjects for being naturalized Americans; who may produce proof of having become naturalized citizens of America.

WHEELING, Sept. 17.—The largest political meeting of the campaign was held to-day by the Democrats. The procession was miles in length. There was speaking from three stands, in English and German. At many places women formally demanded that their names be placed on the list of voters, on the ground that they possessed the property qualifications prescribed by the Reform Bill. The legal aspect of the question has excited much public interest on the subject; over six thousand women had claimed the right to be registered in Manchester alone. Their demands were urged in an able speech by the registering officials by Miss Lydia Becker. After the argument on both sides, the claim was disallowed; similar proceedings took place in other towns. The question is finally being brought before the Judges of Westminster, and they have over-ruled the application that women be registered as voters, on account of an amendment to the Reform Bill which was passed in the House of Commons by Mr. Mill, which substitutes the words "men and persons" for "men."

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The London Times contrasts the political canvass of Great Britain with the United States. In both cases electors are new; only here in England the many contests are between differing men and principles, which result in a confused hubbub; incidents thus far have been peaceful and even negative, but the eight weeks remaining before the election may warm into a contest not so quiet. The Times dwells on the violent animosity of the Presidential fight in the United States, and calls the American general election an American Carnival. The American people may be serious and interested, but they allow most eccentric and grotesque characters to represent the whole people, which does them some injustice, but less harm than is commonly thought.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The steamer Lady Thorne has been sold to Mr. Welch of Chestnut Hill for $17,500.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—There was a very large torchlight procession to-night comprising several thousand boys in Addresses were made at the Cooper Institute by Generals Sleikis, Kilpatrick and others.

Europe.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—The Emperor reviewed the troops at Châlons to-day, each regiment cheered him with great enthusiasm: Queen Victoria was the guest of Lord Lyons in this city; no ceremony was observed by Her Majesty, but privacy was strictly maintained.

Reports are circulated that the Emperor has consented to an interview with the Queen of Spain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 10.—The extraordinary concession made to Admiral Farragut by the Sultan in permitting the flagship Franklin to pass through the Dardanelles and enter the Bosphorus has given rise to a vast amount of comment in diplomatic circles. It is here reported that the permission which had been denied and which was extensively circulated a few days ago was without foundation. The consent of the Sultan was accorded in the most gracious manner as a compliment to the Admiral and the country he represented.

BERLIN, Sept. 11.—It is reported that Prussia will send a gunboat to the river Parana to protect German interests there.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The telegraphic report of the South American earthquake has caused much excitement in the commercial world, which was eager for full details. The Pall Mall Gazette has a leading article on the prospects of peace or war. It says that every capital of Europe the belief that a great and immediate war is pending grows daily. The best informed men say it will break out before the end of the year.

BREMEN, Sept. 12.—The International Congress of workmen adjourned yesterday. A resolution was adopted advising workmen to abstain from trade during the war. An address was adopted urging the workmen to oppose war and refuse to countenance assassination, and use their efforts to induce others to do the same.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—It is generally considered that the events of the last fortnight have made little change in the political condition of the continent, either to lessen or increase the chances of war; while on the one hand the press of Germany assumed a quiet tone as proof that they were confident of peace; on the other hand it is known that France has refused a formal demand made by Nigra, the Italian ambassador, for the recall of the French troops from Rome and at the same time the Prince Regent has brought to Paris a proposition from Spain to cement an alliance with France, by sending 30,000 soldiers to Rome. The proposition and the approaching election looks warlike.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The American Minister has sent a blank check to his Government to settle the Alabama claims. The case presents but little trouble. The only difficulty is the reticence of the American Government to settle the difficulty growing out of former resentments. No American statesman believed in the continuance of Great Britain. There might be a question as to the inadequate law making England answerable, but this could be easily settled. The real grievance of the United States was in the differences in the Civil War and the willingness of England to see the Union destroyed. They think we should have shown active sympathy with the North. He now sets the past aside, and the thing is as good as settled. The only thing to be ascertained is the responsibility of England to fix proper indemnity.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Monitor has a tranquillizing leader reviewing the relations of the Great Powers, and considers the situation calm and peaceful.

Registering voters for the forthcoming parliamentary elections which will commence about the 15th of November, is being prosecuted with great diligence throughout the British Isles. At many places women formally demanded that their names be placed on the list of voters, on the ground that they possessed the property qualifications prescribed by the Reform Bill. The legal aspect of the question has excited much public interest on the subject; over six thousand women had claimed the right to be registered in Manchester alone.
