SUNSHINE SOLDIERS. Nova Scotlan Officers Whose Glory Their Uniforms. The Halifax correspondent of th Chiquecto (Sackville, N.B.,) Post writing April 8 says, with reference to the want o

For three mortal hours he ate with the rest of the dominion in the ly officers; various were the excuses given but sickness was the main argument. Among those who were not in good health were the sons of Mr. Mackenzie's last minister of war, and those of one or two leaders of the party. Mr. Jones himself has openly and somewhat loudly declaimed against the policy of taking Halliax men to fight the battles of the Dominion. He says this is the West's business, not ours. It has been thought by some that a primary councillor of Canada and an ex-minister is stopped from protesting against Canadian r themselves o his worship. But their emis-sary was doomed to disappointment. The oity council broke up in a flurry at 10.30 Ald, Piper rose to his feet and insisted that Captain Carter be heard. The captain shouted lustily: "Mr. Mayor, Mr. Mayor, hear what I has to say, sah!" Then the colored gentleman would repeat his little speech and Ald, Piper insisted that Captain Carter should be heard. But Mayor Man-ning was deaf to all of these importunities, hurriedly left the council chamber, entered hurriedly left the council chamber, entered a carriage and was driven to the Queen's stopped from protesting against Canadian unity. However, it is currently reported that this gentleman has declared that if hotel, leaving Captain Carter a very mad not respond to the call of his country he need never come near her afterward. The admonition was not needed, for Capt. Henry was anxious to go to the front. As an offset to the alleged gentleman's sons who were great soldiers in time of peace and most peaceful in time of war, there are many who did not trouble themselves with soldiering till now, but have volunteered for the expedition. A son of Sir Charles Tupper, a son of the chief justice (of Nova Scotia) and the grand nephew and probable helr of Sir William Young are among these. meeting, although the owner swore the horse had not been unnecessarily harshly The Athletic lacrosse club held a meeting on Saturday, April 11, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year : President, A.
