THE TWINS ON TRIAL

Opening of the Case Against the Hyams Brothers.

LITTLE NEW EVIDENCE THUS FAR

Mysterious Telegram the Wife of Dallas Sent.

The Magistrate Declines to Allow Attorney Francis Wellman of New York to Appear in the Case on the Ground That It Would Establish a Precedent—The Case for the Crown only commenced—Probability That the Investigation Will Continue for a Couple of Days.

The preliminary examination of Harry P. Hyams and Dallas Theodore Hyams, charged with the murder of William Chinnock Wells in the Colborne street case of the Hyams Bros. on January 16, 1912, was commenced at the Police Court yesterday before Police Magistrate Denison. Associated with his work as Police Magistrate Ellis of Toronto Junction, His Worship the Mayor, Hugh Miller, J.P., ex-Adm. Steiner and ex-Adm. Enoch Thompson. The interest evinced in the case was manifested by the immense throng which congregated to listen to the testimony. When the prisoners were arraigned they gazed nonchalantly about the courtroom, and even smiled at several acquaintances whom they observed in the room. It was plainly discernible, however, that they felt their position keenly.

HE VIEWS WITH ALARM.

Special Case Argued Before the Minister of Justice—Reports as the Cattle Embargo in Belgium—The Premier to be Banqueted in Belleville—Stocking Northwest Saline Lakes with Fish.

WILLIAM CHINNOCK WELLS.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—A somewhat unusual procedure occupied the attention of the Minister of Justice the whole of to-day. Some time ago the Government issued a fiat to enable Denis Ryan & Co. to sue to have set aside letters patent of incorporation granted to the Ontario and Western Lumber Co., on the ground that the statements made in the application for letters patent were untrue, both as regards amount of stock subscribed and amount paid in thereupon. Evidence was taken before Judge Ferguson at Rat Portage, in December, argument being fixed for a future day. Pending the delay and before the day set for argument was reached, the Imperial Bank, a large creditor of the Ontario and Western Lumber Company, fearing that judgment might go against the company, has asked to have the fiat withdrawn. It was on the application that Sir C. H. Tupper heard argument for nearly seven hours. The counsel for Ryan & Co. were R. B. Taylor, George Kappelle of Toronto for the bank, C. H. Ritchie, J.C., and J. S. Ewart, J.C., Winnipeg, for the Ontario and Western Lumber Co., and T. H. Gilmore, Winnipeg, for Ryan & Co. General Manager D. R. Willis was also present. George Burn, manager of the Bank of Ottawa, judgment was reserved.

They further allege and are seeking to prove that when the policies were placed on the life of Wells the Hyams brothers had in view the "removal" of young Wells; that they fixed upon Monday, Jan. 16, as the date of the tragedy, and arranged a plan whereby both Aylesworth and Miss Palmer would be absent from the warehouse when the murder was committed. It was also brought out that they will seek to prove that Wells was killed by a hammer, and that subsequently the weight of the bolt was placed upon his head in the condition in which it was found. The testimony of Mrs. Aylesworth that when Harry P. Hyams came to her house subsequent to the tragedy, complaining that his back was painful and reclined on the bed for several hours, is introduced to support the Crown's contention that he carried the immense weight from the

A Peculiar Telegram.

The first witness called was A. W. Barber, local manager of the C.P.R. Telegraph Company, who testified that this telegram was issued from the branch office of the company at Gerrard and Seaton streets on February 13, the day following the arrest of the Hyams brothers:

Mrs. Courmont, 100 East 17th-street, New York, N.Y.: To Mrs. A. Washco, my room, top apt. Find candy box. Do any letters and pictures. See Minde at once. Tell him never was married to I. Hyams. My hotel, 17th-street, New York, N.Y. Write to me at once, Richard, postoffice here. If impossible to save me, tell me.

Mr. Curry claims that this message was sent by the wife of Dallas T. Hyams. What the Crown has behind it all did not develop.

Mr. Aylesworth's Testimony.

E. W. H. Aylesworth, brother-in-law of the deceased and of Mrs. H. P. Hyams, was then called, and testified that he first met the prisoners five or six years ago at 55 Gouldstreet. He, conjointly with William Wells and Martha Wells, who subsequently married H. P. Hyams, deposited with the Hyams brothers $2700, a sum subsequently increased to $3000. Of this sum each of the three contributed about one-third. The sum was deposited with the Hyams brothers, as the result of the following agreement:

The Wells-Aylesworth-Hyams Agreement, February 18, 1892. William Wells, William Aylesworth, both of the City of Toronto, in the County of York, gentlemen, and Martha E. Wells, Dallas Theodore Hyams and H. P. Hyams, both of the said City of Toronto, gentlemen, hereby called the parties of the second part. Whereas the parties of the first part have agreed to advance to the said parties of the second part the sum of $2700, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set out:

RAN A MINT AT QUEENSTON

Three Men and a Woman in the Toll-Every Requisite for Turning Out Well-Milled Coins Found. Together With Forty Dollars in Bogus Silver Coins—All Caught Red-Handed.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Feb. 27.—Chief Young, with the assistance of Detective O'Loughlin of Buffalo, have been after a gang of counterfeiters, who, it was said, had a mill in full operation, turning out Canadian and United States silver coins by wholesale and passing them successfully.

The coins consisted of 25, 10 and 5 cent pieces, and the minting was done well. The metal used is said to be a composition of lead, alloyed with aluminum. Hundreds of dollars have been placed in circulation.

Caught Showing the Queer. This morning Sergt. Miller of the Niagara Falls, N.Y., Police, Chief Young and Detective Griffin of the Ontario police went to Queenston, and after covering the houses where the mill was supposed to be located watched it closely. They did not long to wait before two men, George Shaw and Edward Clancy, emerged and crossed to Lewiston. The officers shadowed the men and caught them in the act of passing their spurious coins.

Returning to Queenston, Shaw's home was raided. In one of the rear rooms they found Charles Bowers and wife in charge of the mill. Some $40 in quarters of both Canadian and United States coins in the rough was confiscated, also a quantity of the metal and plaster of Paris used in the manufacture of the coins in which the coins would be dressed in and polished.

The Ontario police took Bowers in charge. The United States marshal took Shaw and Clancy, as the latter two will be prosecuted by the Ontario police. Bowers will have a preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Hall.

Clancy and Shaw had full confession of their guilt, and state the spurious coins have been made at Shaw's village of Queenston since last October.

There was no reason to doubt that Mr. Bowers' successor will be Congressman William L. Wilson of West Virginia, author of the tariff law. It is also understood that Mr. Wilson's name will be proposed to succeed the present Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. C. M. Henderson.

MANITOBA INDIANS CAN VOTE IN THREE YEARS

An order in council just published has given rise to groundless talk of an election scheme to enfranchise the Indians of Manitoba. The official proclamation is to the effect that the Manitoba Indians, being far enough advanced to take advantage of the Indian Franchise Act, such of them as, after the legal terms provide themselves qualified, may be granted a franchise. The terms of the proclamation are three years from the date of its issue, and at least no immediate political significance, and, moreover, the order has special reference merely to the case of those aborigines. The First Minister has accepted the invitation of the Belleville Board of Trade and citizens of that town to a banquet to be given in his honor March 12.

Essex, Ont., Feb. 27.—A fatal accident occurred at Midland, Ontario, Monday, five miles from here, last night at 10 o'clock, by which a man named John McLaughlin, 30, bright barley, was killed. The horses died when approaching the track, and turned up the road, and the train coming along ran over him, cutting off one leg.

What are you doing? There are many breeds of ale, and some others are good, but East Kent is not equalled in Canada.

Prof. Hays, in his report, says, "East Kent Ale is perfectly pure." In the brewing of this ale only the purest water, the finest barley and the famous East Kent golden hops are used.

East Kent Ale is at all hotels, clubs and wine merchants.

A QUESTION OF COURTESY.

No Reason Why Mr. Wellman Should Be Allowed to Plead in a Canadian Court.

Considerable comment has taken place among members of the bar and citizens generally as to the refusal of Police Magistrate Denison to allow Attorney Francis Wellman of New York to appear for the Hyams brothers in the murder trial now pending at the Police Court.

Mr. Charles Moss, Q.C., of Moss, Barwick & Franks and a bench, said last night that it is purely in the discretion of a magistrate or judge to allow a lawyer from another country or province to plead in his court. There are no means provided, either in the law or the rules of the Law Society, by which permission may be given to a barrister from another jurisdiction to plead in Ontario courts, except, of course, if he passes the usual examinations.

As a matter of courtesy this privilege has occasionally been granted, for instance, in the McGreevy case, tried in 1893, Sir Thomas Galt allowed Mr. Fitzpatrick of Quebec to appear before him at Osgoode Hall. In extradition proceedings, also, the rule is to permit outsiders to appear before the court, if he passes the usual examinations.
