GAME AT STRATFORD

STRATFORD. Oct. 27.—A good tight game of football is assured the fans tomorrow afternoon, when the London G. T. R. apprentice team meets the local kads at 3 o'clock on the Colegiate flats. The Classic apprentices played a tie game in London, so that a stiff battle will be put up by the visitors tomorrow. Clarke will referee the game. The football will be followed by a baseball game between the Cubs and the Giants, of the Shops League.

FRACTURED IN TUMBLE

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 27.—Meuse, with Leo Coney, a colored jockey, up, fell in the fifth race to-day at Laurel, and Coney is at a Baltimore hospital, his skull probably fractured. Frank Coltiletti is charged by the Laurel Park stewards with being responsible for the fall. Coltiletti is alleged to have driven his mount, Sedge, at an angle that put Coney on the fence. Sedge was disqualified and Coltiletti set down for the rest of the meeting.

Mr. Croker is a true Irishman, and like the majority of his race, has a keen sense of humor. At 80 his mind is as unclouded as a boy's, which he possesses a physical vigor amazing in one of his years. He enjoys recalling the incidents in connection with Orby's Derby. 'Orby was a great horse,' said Mr. Croker, in his suite at the Savoy a few days ago, 'and if he hadn't been raced as a two-year-old, would have trained on to greater things.
