

ound ?

ock er

earther and a searth and a searth and a search and a sear

Searment and an antique and antique and an antique and antique and an antique antique and an antique and antique antique and antique and antique and antique and antique and antique and antique anti by her The W St. chur auxiliary S. auxiliary of the Eric will entertain the Zion he home of Mrs. W. W. the second Tuesday in Those having parcels for the Christmas bale being packed by Erie st.

2

auxiliary will kindly leave them at Mrs. White's, Erie st.

The special holiday attraction at the Lycom, Christmas Eve, will be Colleen Moore and a big all star cast in Edna Ferber's famous masterpiece "So Big."

We like competition because as before it has always proved our radio are the best, clearest and most life-like at remarkable price values.—Chas. M. Fitzgerald. Watford.

The local Junior Hockey Club has entered the O.H.A. and is now grouped with London and Windsor. London duniors will play in Watford an Friday, January 185th, and the return came in London on the 20th.

Mr. W. Eallard is confined to the house this week with except as on the face. It is very painful, particularly about the eyes. He hoppes, however, to be back to business next week.

Do your Christmas buying in Wat-ford. You will find that Watford stores are carrying tremendous stocks of Christmas goods to satisfy every taste and prices will prove to be lower than in the cities. Most local merchants are today carrying as regular stock, lines which formerly were obtainable only in the large cities. You'll do better in Warford.

The C.N.R. will operate a Christmas Special between Detroit and Toronto via Port Huron on Thursday, Dec. 24th, leaving Detroit at 3 p.m., stopping at Watford at 7.09 and arriving in Toronto at 11.25. This extra service will relieve the traffic extra service will relieve the traffic congestion and provide improved ac-commodation between these points. Shop in the mornings, if possible; in the evenings, if necessary. Wate evenings, if necessary. Wat-stores will be open evenings next week.

The fine weather for the past week has been highly acceptable to the average individual but, disastrous to the directors of the skating rink, have been endeavoring to make rile the sun shone and have failed in their attempts. A good founda-tion has been secured, however, and with a few days of real cold weather, ice surface will be readily

The December meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. Coke on Wednesday, Dec. 9th, at eight o'clock, with 20 members present. An excellent paper, "Christmas in Other Lands," was read by Mrs. R. McIntosh. Roll call was answered by "Current Events" was answered by "Current Events' was answered by "Current Events" proved very interesting. A practical demonstration of home-made candy was given by Mrs. Millar and Mrs. Adams and home-made candy made by Mrs. W. Willoughby was enjoyed by all. A successful handkerchief shower for the Armenian boys was given at this meeting. given at this meeting.

Watford has the distinction of bebug the first town in Western Untario to boast an iceless refrigerator cab-met for ice cream. Silverwoods Ltd. on Saturday installed a new type Frigidaire ice cream cabinet in F. W. Rogars' store which will enable him Frigidaire ice cream cabinet in F. W. Rogers' store, which will enable him to carry ice cream throughout the year. The plant which is operated by small electric motor and a series of coils and condensers, will accommodate eight tubs of cream at a temperature from 6 to 8 below zero, is entirely automatic control. and while the first cost is about $700, the hydro power for operation will be practically negligible.

"So Big" showing at the Lycous

"So Big" showing at the Lyceum on Christmas Eve, featuring Colleen toore, is a story of a girl with an inconquerable soul. Life tramps on the but could not hold her down.

WHEN it could not hold her down.

WHEN it comes to Skates, we can uply a model, size and price to ease every member of the family, hether for Hockey, Pleasure, Speed ating or the Fancy Figure work. I of them in the well known C.C.M. which means the best to be had the money. Drop in now while the ge of models and sizes is complete.

tended by neighbors, friends, was held from dence at 1.30 p.m., S. H. V. Workman of church, officiating. Inte

The pallbearers were: the John Spalding, 2nd line ser Freeman Spalding, Arm; at John A. and Albert Spal an ford, (all nephews), and Jy goon, Main road, Warwick.

Rev. Rayner Pursed by Congregation

At the close of the contact meeting of the Pilgrim Unit church on Thursday evening, Dec. th, a short social time was spent win Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Rayner before their department for their new horse in Western and Mrs. T. D. Rayner before their department of their new horse in Western and Mrs. Mrs. T. D. Rayner before their denarture for their new bme in Wallacetown. Mr. and Mrs. Rayner were requested to come forward when an address was read by M. Russel Duncan and a presentation made by Mr.
Cecil McNaughton. Appropriate replies were made by Mr. and Mrs. Rayner, both expressing regret at leaving the many friends they have made during their pastorate here.
A dainty lund was then served by the ladies of he congregation, fol-

the ladies of he congregation, followed by an horr of social fellowship. The meeting was then brought to a close by all joining hands and singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds", after which the benediction was pronounced by Mr. Rayner.

Inducted at Wallacetown

Mr. Rayner was inducted into the Wallacetown-West Lorne charges on Tuesday afternoon, after which ceremony a most bounteous turkey din-ner was enjoyed with his new members, and a reception tendered the new pastor and his wife at the

Pilgrim Congregation Will not

Was Raised in Watford

Capt. Mansell James grew to manhood in Watford, where he lived with his uncle, Mr. E. A. Brown, following the death of his parents when he was a small boy, and is known throughout the entire district as Watford's distinguished was avaitable.

Watford's distinguished war avaitor He served four years overseas in the Flying Corps on the French and Italian fronts, and attained the brilliant record of eighteen enemy planes to his credit.

The Dominion Parliament will meet on January 7th.

There are now 1,100 non-concur-

town next year.

Hy-Lo Jacks, Ltd., the new manufactory which started operations in Strathroy about a year ago, are pulling up stakes and moving to Belle-be put into effect by order of the Government, sweet milk having been added to the porridge ration in the morning and rice and jam to the

Oisband
Although the regular Sunday services will be discontinued the congregation of Pilgrim church will not disband for the present, and the church will be used each week by the Young People's Society for their meetings meetings.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE FAREWELL TO MRS. RAYNER

Members of the Women's Institute and friends to the number of thirty and friends to the number of thirty took the Congregational Parsonage by storm on Monday evening, to say goodbye to Mrs. Rayner, prior to her departure for her new home.

Community singing which included an original version of the Institute Ode complimentary to Mrs. Rayner, and several very clever contests arranged by the program committee, were first enjoyed. Following these an address was read by Mrs. T. G. were first enjoyed. Following these an address was read by Mrs. T. G. Mitchell expressing the regret of the Institute at losing so faithful a member and stressing the fact that Mrs. Rayner's kindly activities had not been bounded by the confines of her own church but that in every way she had been a real neighbor and friend to all in sorrow and need. The president, Mrs. J. D. Brown, presented to Mrs. Rayner a beautiful framed motto, and Mrs. H. Humphries, vice-president, emphasizing the practical side of the Institute with an excellent oil mop.

The Attorney-General of Alberta, Hon. J. E. Brownlee, is a son of W. J. Brownlee, of Brigden, publisher of the Brigden Progress before it ceased publication.

Perth county is like. oil mop.

Luncheon was served by the ladies and "Auld Lang Syne" sung in farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Rayner..

Our Christmas oranges have just arrived, at prices from 28c to 60c per dozen.—J.R.McCormick.

Publication.

Perth county jail inmates will in future get a more varied menu for breakfast and supper than has been the case heretofore. The change will the case heretofore of the Mayor Mitchell, of Windsor, has issued a warning telling men to keep away from the border cities, because there are already more men than jobs.

Bruce Marwick Shot at Target Practice

Fornty Watford Boy in Chitical Condition. Surgeons
Unable to Extract Bullet

Word was received in Watford on aturday that Mr. Bruce Marwick, he is this year principal of Kempt-lie High School, had been accidently shot at cadet practice and was in attical condition in an Ottawa hos-

Later information, however, to and this week indicates that although Bruce has been in a very serious condition, fair progress is now being made and it is hoped he will be able to resume his duties after the New Year.

The following news item from the Kemptville Advance gives details of the accident:—

The following news item from the Kemptville Advance gives details of the accident:

Tuesday evening about five o'clock in a certain afternoons after school. A steel try a peculiar accident. It has been to campbell has returning the body of the hunt barty, will head an expedition the hunt barty, will head an expedition the hunt barty will head an expedition to care the weekage an possibly the body of Cambell reported that the tail and wings of the plane were intact. A rotted tree lay near it and bushes had grown up around it, indicating that it fell some time ago.

The Disappearance.

Boston, Mass, Dec. 16—Capt. Mansell R. James, Canaglian avaitor, of Watford, Ont., who wrecked plane was reported today as having been found in the wood near Tyringham, disappeared on in e. 2, 1919, while making a flight from Boston to Atlantic City. A revard for information regarding him was offered by his relatives, but nobody was ever able to claim it. Capt. James in the last week in May, 1919, won a competitive flight from Atlantic City to Boston, a distance of 360 miles for a cun offer-distance of 360 miles for a cun offer-distance in May, 1919, won a competitive flight from Atlantic City to Boston, a distance of 360 miles, for a cup offered by The Boston Globe, and a cash prize of $1,000. On June 1, the day the winner of the competition was announced, he started on the return flight Mrs. R. L. Harper, of Tuberose, Sask., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Cowan, sixth line.

BROOKE

The Christmas services on the Brooke charge will be held on Dec. 27th. Special Christmas music and warder at each appointment. flight. "On leaving the vicinty of Boston the avaitor picked up the Boston the avaitor picked up the Boston the Albany Railway tracks instead of the New York. New Haven & Hartford line, as he had intended, and lost his bearings. He landed that night in Ty-program at each appointment.

Why not buy a radio made-to-order suit your ta and incorporating any new good features before they appear on the Standard Home Market

—C. M. Fitzgerald, Watford.

Bethesda United Church Sunday School Christmas Entertainment, on Christmas Eve, Thursday, Dec. 24th.

A splendid entertainment consisting of a Pageant (with over 20 taking of a Pa pearings. He landed that night in Ty-ringham, purchased gasoline and re-newed the flight next morning. With perfect weather conditions and a gentle northwest wind he took off in the direction of Great Barrington, in-tending to follow the railroad line from that point.

"He was never seen again. In the A splendid entertainment consisting of a Pageant (with over 20 taking part), recitations, songs and Panto-mine and Junior Cantata. Admission 25c and 15c. You are invited. The Brooke Women's Institute "He was never seen again. In the months that followed reports were received from many points that the wreckage of his plane had been found, but all clues proved to be baseless." Institute

The Brooke Women's Institute was held Thursday, Dec. 10th, at the home of the president, Mrs. A. Rundle. Having received an appeal for boys' handkerchiefs from the Armenam Farm, Georgetown, the ladies decided to donate one dozen. ladies decided to donate one dozen, it was decided at a previous meeting to take a collection for the flower fund, during the winter months. During the past month flowers have been sent to three "shut-ins." The The travelling library has been received and any members wishing to make use of it may apply to the liberarian, Mrs. H. Lett. The following program was given: paper, "What we may do to make Christmas haprarian, Mrs. H. Lett. The following program was given: paper, "What we may do to make Christmas happier for others", by Mrs. C. Lucas; readings by Mrs. Shugg and Miss R. Clark. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess and her assistant, after which the meeting adjourned to meet in January at the home of Mrs. M. J. Campbell. There are now 1,100 non-concurrent Presbyterian congregations in the Dominion.

According to a recent municipal survey, there are 83,685 Canadians living in Detroit.

Strathroy has 341 street lamps in use, more than any other town of its size in Ontario, it is believed.

It is predicted that within the next generation half of the United States railway traffic will be moved by electric power.

"Patty Makes Things Hum" Will be presented by the young people of Sutorville in S. S. No. 17, on Wednesday evening next, Dec. 23, to which everyone in invited. Cast of characters:—Capt. Braithewaite, who characters:—Capt. Braithewaite, who wasn't so slow after all. Serle Lucas; Capt. Little, who had a little misunderstanding, Wilbert Parker; Mr. Greene, who played the host, Irwin Lucas; Mr. Smith, a neighbor worth while, Sanford Lucas; Mrs. Smith, who proved herself a true friend, Wionie Parker; Mrs. Greene, Captain Little's sister, who entertained under difficulties, Irene Lucas; Patience Little, "Patty", who managed to make things hus, Alice Weed; Helen Braithwaite, engaged to Capt. Little, Helen Williamson; Hope Dunbar, who is still hoping, Verlie Lucas Hyacinth, a loquacious colored maid. Mrs. Serle Lucas. railway trains tric power.

It is expected that the pavement on the Talbot provincial highway will be extended from Shedden to Wallace-

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Butler announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion Irene Butler, to Grant Weldon Ross of Warwick Twp. the marriage to take place quietly in

Christmas Entertainments

St. James' church S. S. Christmas Entertainment on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22nd, in the schoolhouse, sec-tion 1 and 13, Brooke and Warwick.

tion 1 and 13, Brooke and Warwick.

St. Andrew's United church, Watford will hold its Christmas Tree on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd at 8 p.m., in the Lyceum. A good program consisting of a short play, fancy drills, pantomines, choruses and recitations. Admission, adults 25c, children of the Sabbath school free, others 15 cents.

Date changed:—On Wednesday evening, Dec. 23rd, a Chotmas concert will be presented in the Wisbeach school-house including dialogues, drills, pantomines, etc. The Kertch Dramatic Club will stage a 3-act play entitled. "The Jonah," assisteded by the Kertch orchestra. Program will commence promptly at 8.15. Remember the date.

GRAND CHRISTMAS EXCURSION TO SANTA CLAUS' HOME

The Eric Street. United Church Sunday School will start on this remarkable journey, leaving by Special Limited Train, on the Great Arctic R. R., on Monday evening, Dec. 21st, at the Lyceum, starting at 8.15.

Round trip fare 25c, and 15c, plus amusement tax.

Be on time or you may miss the train.

WARWICK

Sidney Moore, of Simpson, Sasta, spent the past week at J. F. Parker's and renewed old acquaintances on the 2nd line. He sailed on the 15th the 2nd line. He sailed on the 15th to spend the winter at his old home in England.

Zion United Church Sunday school will observe the anniversary of the school next Sunday afternoon at 2.36. The pastor will preach a special sermon and an offering will be taken for the funds of the school.

Is radio a mystery to you? Then buy where you can get expert service promptly and locally.—C. M. Fitzgerald, Watford.

The annual Christmas Tree of St. Mary's church, Warwick will be held in the L.O.L. hall, on Dec. 23rd. Good program, tree and prizes, plays, etc. Bring the family. Admission adults 25c, children other tham S. S. scholars 15c.

-Study the Christmas Ads

WANT COLUMN One cent per word each insertion Card of Thanks 50c,

CARD OF THANKS—The relatives of the late Isabel M. J. Spalding wish to express their sincere appre-ciation and thanks for the many acts of kindness extended during her illness and at the time of her death.

CARD OF THANKS-Mrs. J. Tomlin desires to convey her deep grati-tude and appreciation to the many friends and neighbors for the numer-ous acts of kindness extended during Mr. Tomlin's long illness, including Rev. and Mrs. Rayner, the Watford Women's Institute, I.O.D.E., and the staff of C.E.E. Hospital, Petrolia.

WANTED

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES sharpened. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refuned. Single edge 3c, Double edge 4c.—J. McKercher, Hardware, Watford. d-mar18

HORSES WANTED

Heavy or Light Horses, from 1100 lbs up. Must be in good condition, and five years old, and over.—Williamson & Hollingsworth. Apply to G. Hollingsworth, P.O. Box 65, Watford. d18-2t

LIVE AND LET LIVE
SHOE REPAIRING and General
Work at the following prices:—
(Best Oak-Tanned Leather used), Men's Half-Soles, 90c pair; Women's Half-Soles 60c; Women's Rubber Heels 30c; Men's Rubber Heels 40c; smaller shoes and Patching at prosmaller shoes and portionate low prices.

B. H. PARKER.

FOR SALE

HOUSE AND LOT, on Eric St., to rent or for sale. Brick house in good condition. Apply Mrs. Lowry.

FOR SALE—Two Young Bulls Durham, fit for service. Apply W. B Annett, Navoo Road, Phone Alvi ston 48-13.

HOUSE AND LOT, Front s HOUSE AND LOCA, Watford, also good piano, a new.—Apply Miss Mary Mans
d18

Why not buy a radio lik would a car, where you can gutmost in expert service and a 14 years' experience back us M. Fitzgerald, Watford.