FESTIVAL.—We have omitted the festival to make room for "a few," which we give below.

The annual festival given to the All Saints Church Sabbath held on Friday last, at College Grove. The Scholars (about 100) were carried to the "locus sacrus" about half past three where they amused themselves play, manifesting much good groove situated upon the side of a pretty and interesting scenery, for a celebration of the kind, in the face of the earth is unbroken and swells here and there into runds so peculiar to the face of trees overgrowing at their tops, and form a canopy, as if in children—excluding the least sight. A gentle breeze rustle the fluttering leaves, more upon delightful odour, exhaled by the trees. But the view of the beneath, the thick-standing trees, the eye, narrow the landscape, from the grove a wider prospect unfolded. The St. Andrews its various romantic scenery, —its numerous beauties inducat cannot "equal nature's —the children were engaged their merry laugh resounding —the Lady Teachers of the pers, were busily employed in bles, which tastefully decorawith much commendation is due of the best," for their liberality in providing, and distributing.

lock, his Lordship the Bishop arrived and soon after His Excellency and Lady Coleman, the children being called to themselves round the table—being said by his Lordship, oration commenced, and was becoming zeal. To resplendsakes and buns, all due attention. In due time the carriage vigorous arms relaxed, ten had finished their repast, Hymn was sung Echoing is solemn lines, sent gravi-tance, where but just now sighed. When the singing op made some brief but important advantages, their duties, ties. The children now re-re the Teachers and Spec-of Tea." This being over leared—the dishes were removed off with the children themselves—the festival and
a. Nothing transpired to affect harmony, and all separated
py. His Excellency, Lady he Bishop were pleased with and the children orderly because teachers also pleased the children full of happiness.
