The program opened with an overture by Zoellee, sorchestra, which called forth great applause. "The Maple Leaf" by the full chorus was then rendered, followed by a "Chinese Umbrella Drill" by the girls. This was one of the strong hits, as was also the Japanese Fan Drill. But the star of the evening was the Dwarf song by eight boys. This brought down the house, the curtain having to be lifted twice. "God save our cominion", the new patriotic, song was closed a very successful entertainment.

The Cummings Stock Company will begin a three night's and Wednesday matinee engagement at the Berlin opera house next Monday evening, when this excellent organization will be seen in the laughable organization will be seen in the laughable farce, Dr Bill. The comedy is one in which there are many furny situations, and keeps its audience in a continual roar of laughter from beginning to end. It is one of those farcical comedies with just sufficient of a story in it to hold together a series of incidents not altogether improbable and excruciatingly funny. On Tuesday evening extractatingly runny. On Tuesday evening the company will present "Pink Dominoes," another comedy of considerable humor, while the Wednesday matinee and night will be devoted to "All the Comforts of House," one of the cleverest farce comedies ever produced. Each play will be hand-somely staged, while the company is an exceptionally good one and promises a great treat. The sale of seats opened today, and there is every indication that this great organization will be greeted by large diences at every
