

The Weekly Monitor

Featuring the News of Annapolis and Digby Counties

VOL. XLVII—No 27.

BRIDGETOWN, ANNAPOLIS COUNTY, N. S., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1919 TERMS:—$1.50 per Year in Advance.

Single Copies 5 cents

ONE CASE PARISIAN CORSETS, EN ROUTE

Good 29-inch Prints, 19c.; 32 inch, 22c.
Pure Indigo Blue, 32 inch, 28 cents

Good 32 inch Cotton, 16c.; 40 inch, 20c.
36 and 40 inch Sheeting, only 25 cents

White Cottons, 18 to 35 cents. Grand Values
White Shakers, 22 cents up

A splendid range of Striped Flannelettes, Very Special Values

White and Grey Flannelette Blankets, supply limited, all sizes

Genuine Bannockburn Pants, guaranteed pure wool, all sizes
Harvest Pants, 30 pairs only, $2.25 and $2.50 per pair
Boys' Pants, sizes 6 to 14 years. A Rousing Bargain!

Men's Overalls, 36 to 44 inch, $1.50 per pair upward

Genuine Bargains in Men's Fine Shirts and Work Shirts
Sizes 14 to 17 inches

Men's ribbed wool Shirts and Drawers, all sizes } Very Men's fleece lined Shirts and Drawers } Special
Penman's, 32 to 46 inch } Values
Men's fall weight Shirts and Drawers, all sizes }

Balance of Summer Shirts and Drawers at less than Cost Price

Men's Night Shirts in Cotton and Flannelette, all sizes, at much less than present cost of the materials

Boys' Braces, 10 cents up; Men's Braces, Boston Garters, Armlets, Ties and Handkerchiefs

Pure Linen Crash 45 cent quality for 36 cents.

Boys' and Girls' Ribbed Black Cotton Stockings, good quality, 20 to 30 cents per pair

"Hercules" and "Rock Rib" stockings, 5 to 7½ inch, 40c. 8 to 10 inch, 45c. per pair

"Buster Brown" Ribbed Hose, sizes 8 to 11 inch, only 50 cents per pair

Balance of fine Ribbed and Plain Silk Lisle Hose in White, Mahogany and Black, Less Than Cost

White Cotton Hose, Children's and Women's sizes
Sale Price, 20 cents per pair

Balance of Ladies' Silk Hose, your choice for 75 cents

Ladies' Silk Lisle Hose in black, white, mahogany and champagne. Bargains

Heavy Fleece Lined Hose, sizes 8½ to 10 inch. Grand values

Men's Good Black Cotton Sox, 19c., or 3 pairs for 55c.

Men's best black and colored Cotton Sox, very special prices.

Men's Heavy Sox, Cotton and Wool and Pure Wool

Heavy Fleece lined Undervests and Drawers, open or closed

Balance of Night Dresses and Underskirts. Great Bargains

Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Laces and Pearl Buttons.
No Such Values Elsewhere!

Misses' and Women's Pure Wool Sweaters
A Splendid Range Specially Reduced for This Sale

Coats' Mercer Crochet, numbers 20 to 80, Large Balls, "20 gramme," only 17 cents

Clark's Best six-cord 300 yard spools, black or white
Nos. 10 to 40, only 10 cents

White or Black Snaps, best quality, all sizes, 2 doz. for 9c.

COME PREPARED TO BUY YOUR FALL SUPPLY AND SAVE MONEY

To enable all of my customers to secure a share of the ROUSING BARGAINS I am offering, my store will be open EVERY DAY from 12 o'clock noon until 6 o'clock p. m. RAILWAY TIME. Open Saturday Evening until 11 o'clock.

WALTER SCOTT, "the Keen Kutter"

RECENT DEATHS

JAMES MESSINGER
We regret to chronicle this week the death of Mr. James Messinger who fell from an apple tree near his residence on South St. Thursday bruising his head and shoulders and causing internal injuries, from which he failed to recover, passing away at an early hour on Saturday morning, aged 78 years. The deceased was the son of the late Daniel Messinger, by his first wife, and leaves one sister, Mrs. George Smith, formerly Mrs. Dukeshire, of West Paradise. He is also survived by several half brothers and sisters, Mrs. George Allan, Mrs. Major, Stoumth, Mrs. N. E. Chute, Lemuel, Elias, Henry, Daniel and William Messinger.

Besides a grief stricken widow, he leaves one son, Frank, of Paradise, and two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Bent, of Carleton Place and Miss Cora, at home.

Mr. Messinger by hard work, and keen business tact, had accumulated considerable property.

About 15 years ago he purchased from Mr. B. Hovey, who now resides in Digby, the Rev. J. Hartt property on South St., which he occupied until his death.

The funeral, which was largely attended, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, took place Monday with interment in the Riverside Cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his large circle of friends.

JOHN WESLEY WADE

John Wesley Wade, one of Granville Centre's best known and most highly respected residents, died in that village, Wednesday morning, aged 73 years, after an illness of five days, caused by a stroke of paralysis. He was a member of the Methodist church, a prominent Liberal and an enthusiastic member of the Sons of Temperance. He leaves a widow and six children, Ernest, of Granville Centre; Norman, on the farm; Fred, in Quebec; Reginald, in Vancouver; Chester, in Halifax and Mrs. F. B. Duffield, of Marblehead. The deceased was a brother of the late Fletcher Wade after whom Port Wade was named, and is survived by his brother, Alfred, in Winnipeg and three sisters, Mrs. Wm. Allan, of Boston; Mrs. John Roney, of Granville Ferry and Miss Olivia Wade, at home.

The funeral took place on Friday, the service being conducted by W. J. W. Swetnam, followed by a very impressive service conducted by the officers and members of Seymour division, S. of T. The pall bearers were four sons. The floral tributes were many showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his friends and neighbours.

GILBERT A. RAY

Another aged and highly respected resident of Upper Granville has passed away, Mr. Gilbert A. Ray, having died at his home in that village, Friday morning, aged 72 years.

Twenty-three years ago the deceased was seriously injured in a driving accident from which he never recovered and for the past thirteen years had been confined to his bed. He was a member of the Methodist church and bore his suffering with much patience. Mr. Ray is survived by his widow, one son, Ernest and one daughter, Mrs. B. C. Goodwin. He also leaves five brothers, Richard and Howe in Upper Granville; D. Chesley, S. Bamford and Fred in Yarmouth and one sister, Mrs. John O. Turnbull, Lighthouse Road, Digby.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place Sunday morning with interment in the Upper Granville cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam, pastor of the Bridgetown Methodist church. The pall bearers were Boyd Tanch, Joseph Troop, Walter Milbury and Ray Goodwin, three nephews and a grand son, of the deceased. The floral tributes were beautiful.

CAPT. JAMES W. DUNHAM

Word has reached here of the death of Capt. James W. Dunham, which occurred at his residence at 57 Fern Grove, Sefton Park, Liverpool, England, September 9th after a few weeks' illness. Capt. Dunham was born in Barton, Digby, County, N. S. 82 years ago where he married Miss Elizabeth Hilton, who survives him. He also leaves several sons and daughters, all of whom reside in England, one sister, Mrs. Abbie Churchill, of Yarmouth, N. S. and several nieces and nephews in Digby and Annapolis counties, among whom is the Editor of the MONITOR.

Capt. Dunham, before retiring from sea, was a very successful master mariner, his last Canadian command being the ship Alexander Yeates of St. John, N. B. His last visit to his native province was in 1891. His family took a prominent part in the late war, both on land, in the air, and on the sea, more than one being awarded distinguished medals.

MRS. W. J. AGATE

Her many friends in Digby, St. John and elsewhere, will regret to learn of the death of Sarah, wife of Mr. William J. Agate, of the Waverly Hotel, Digby, which took place early Monday morning. The deceased had been ill for several months and had been a very patient sufferer. She is survived by her husband, two sons, William, at present in England, Frank, at home and one daughter, Miss Emily. She also leaves her mother and several sisters and brothers. The remains were conveyed to St. John where burial took place in the R. C. Cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful.

JENNIE CHUTE

The remains arrived here from Halifax via Friday's express, of the late Jennie Chute, who died in that city, aged 32 years. The deceased, was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Chute, of this town. Funeral took place Saturday afternoon, with interment in the Riverside Cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson assisted by W. J. W. Swetnam. A large number of Mr. and Mrs. Chute's friends from out of town attended the funeral, people being present from along the line as far east as Windsor, many of whom sent beautiful floral tributes.

Sanatorium Jottings

(From the Kentville Advertiser)
Mr. Edward Stewart has finished his treatment and returned to his home in Bridgetown.

We wish to extend many thanks to Mrs. C. F. Rockwell, Kentville, for two barrels of excellent apples. Mrs. Rockwell offered two trees of apples to the boys who gathered them last week, and are now enjoying them thoroughly. Needless to say such thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

WEDDING BELLS

MILLER-ELLIOTT

At noon Wednesday, September 25th, a quiet wedding took place at the house of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Elliott, of Mount Hanley, Annapolis County, when Rev. M. W. Brown united in marriage their only daughter, Minnie Estella to Ross Brown Miller, B. Sc. the double ring service being used. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. J. Howe Ray, the bride on the arm of her father, and preceded by the ring bearer, Master Roy Elliott, took her place beside the groom, beneath an arch of clematis and dahlias arranged across a corner of the living room.

The room was tastefully decorated with hawthorne and cut flowers. The bride was dressed in a simple gown of white silk crepe-de-chene trimmed in silver embroidered net. She wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern.

After congratulations a delicious luncheon was served.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received, consisting of money, solid silver, cut glass, china and many other things.

The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum La Valiere set with diamonds, pearls and aquamarine.

The bride's travelling dress was a suit of navy blue silver tone, with hat to match. Amid showers of confetti and the good wishes of the guests the wedding party left by automobile for New Germany. Then the bride and groom took train for a trip along the southern coast of Nova Scotia.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Peck

LONGWORTH-AUSTIN

Another very pretty wedding took place in Smith's Cove on Wednesday of last week, when Miss Stella Betrand Brodie, the youngest daughter of Captain and Mrs. Robert Austin, became the bride of Mark Fielden Longworth, son of Ellis and May Longworth, of Bolton Lancashire, England.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. L. Smith and took place in St. Anne's chapel, which had been artistically trimmed for the occasion with clematis and hydrangeas. As the bride entered the church, "Oh! Perfect Love" was sweetly rendered by Mrs. Reginald Weir. The bride looked very attractive in a suit of navy blue cloth with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Austin, who was dressed in navy blue satin, while Karl Brooks, of Weymouth, performed the duties of best man.

As the bridal party left the church Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Laura Ditmars, of Deep Brook.

Mr. Longworth was engaged in the florist business in the west for some years until he joined the C.A. M. C. when he was attached to the 2nd Field Ambulance and served three years overseas. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth left on the west bound train for Yarmouth and other points and on their return will take up their residence in Smith's Cove.

BROOKS-VANBLARCOM

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Van Blarcom, Montague Row, when their youngest daughter, Susie, was united in marriage to Karl W. Brooks, of Weymouth. The bride looked very pretty in a tailored suit of blue with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Edmonton, Alberta, via St. John where they will reside. The bride has many friends in Digby who wish them much happiness and prosperity.

CARTER-WOODWORTH

At the home of the bride on Sept. 30th, Rev. J. A. Gardner united in marriage John Wilfred Carter, of St. John, N. B. and Miss Jennie Beatrice Woodworth, of Bear River. The bride was becomingly gowned in a travelling suit of navy blue serge and black velvet hat with rose trimmings. After an extended trip to Toronto the happy couple will reside in St. John, where Mr. Carter is engaged in the heating and plumbing business.

Coming Entertainment at Belleisle

We would remind our readers of the entertainment to be given tomorrow (Thursday) evening in the Belleisle Hall under auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Church. The entertainment will be a party of Bridgetown friends assisted by local talent who are preparing a pleasing, musical and literary programme. The entertainment will commence at 8 o'clock.

Canada's Pensions

Canada is now paying war pensions to nearly ninety thousand individuals at an annual cost of over $24,000,000, and under the Pension Act, which became effective on September 1, the majority of these will receive bonuses and increases which in the aggregate, will create an additional annual expenditure of roughly $4,000,000.

Good News

Members of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, in session at Chicago, predict a slump in the price of clothing before long. One delegate optimistically declared that "lower prices are on the way." This is joyful news. Those prewar fabrics were good, but there is a limit to the turning and pressing they will stand.

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows.

