

Clementsport.

Clementsport, Aug. 13.—Mr. Wm. N. Stronach, wife and daughter, of Clarence, Mass., and Miss Titus, of Boston, who were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wade, have returned home.

Granville Centre

Granville Centre, Aug. 13th.—Mrs. Nickerson and little son of Marblehead, Mass., and Miss Titus, of Boston, who were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wade, have returned home.

Bear River

Bear River, Aug. 13th.—Mrs. Howard Kelly and daughter Irene came from Boston on Wednesday and will occupy her house for a few weeks.

Lawrencetown.

Lawrencetown, August 13th.—Mrs. Rupert Dodge, of Granville is visiting her brother, Mr. W. W. Bent.

STRONG & WHITMAN'S AUGUST CLEARANCE SALE

Will continue until AUGUST 17th inclusive.

See our 5 1/2c. and 9c.

DRESS MUSLINS

These Two Lines Less than Cost.

Upper Granville

Upper Granville, Aug. 12th.—Mr. and Mrs. Hood with two little sons and the Misses Chute of Berwick have been recent guests of Mr and Mrs. Adam Clarke.

LEOPARD MOTH NOW.

Boston trees are being attacked by the leopard moth. Says a Boston paper: "The precarious perch of a 'bosun's chair' rigged on a ninety-foot spar, with tackle ropes to watch pruning shears to handle, and perhaps a very high wind swaying the seat at varying and dangerous tilts, while ridding the trees on the Common of the leopard moth pest, is a job that closely approaches a steeple jacks' or thrills and has excited the interest of passers-by for the past few weeks.

PEDESTRIAN TOURISTS.

Two ladies arrived in town on Monday afternoon on foot and stopped over night at the Hotel Spa, says the Outlook. They registered as Mrs. Martin and Miss Martin of Chicago, and stated that they started on Thursday from Lour Lodge, Digby, to walk to Kent Lodge, Wolfville.

Parkers Cove

Parkers Cove, August 6th.—Sch. Ethel May, Capt. R. E. Hudson, arrived from St. John, Aug. 2nd, with a general cargo of merchandise.

Port Wade

Port Wade, Aug. 13.—Haying and fishing are very dull pursuits at present. No weather for cutting either hay or fish. It is expected that large quantities of fish will be damaged by the incessant wet weather.

Granville Ferry

Granville Ferry, August 12th.—Mrs. Willie Troop has returned from her visit with friends in Smiths Cove.

Clarence.

Clarence, Aug. 12.—Miss Edwina Elliott obtained her B certificate at the Provincial examinations, making a total of 366.

North Williamston

North Williamston, Aug. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. O. DeLancey entertained the following visitors quite recently: Mr. and Mrs. Rankine and two children of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, and children of Bridgetown.

Paradise

Paradise, August 12th.—Miss Louise Starratt, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. S.K. Morse, returned to her home in the United States on Monday.

Belleisle

Belleisle, Aug. 13th.—Dr. Fred Primrose, of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Edward Primrose of Boston and Mrs. James Primrose of Bridgetown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A.W.D. Parker over last Wednesday.

St. Croix Cove

St. Croix, Aug. 8th.—Haymakers are rushing business, which has been much retarded by dull weather. Garden and grain crops are looking fine.

Lower Granville

Lower Granville, Aug. 13th.—Capt. W. D. Bogart and wife of Fernandina, Fla., are spending a few weeks with relatives here.

Upper Granville

LEOPARD MOTH NOW.

PEDESTRIAN TOURISTS.

Upper Granville, Aug. 12th.—Mr. and Mrs. Hood with two little sons and the Misses Chute of Berwick have been recent guests of Mr and Mrs. Adam Clarke.

Boston trees are being attacked by the leopard moth. Says a Boston paper: "The precarious perch of a 'bosun's chair' rigged on a ninety-foot spar, with tackle ropes to watch pruning shears to handle, and perhaps a very high wind swaying the seat at varying and dangerous tilts, while ridding the trees on the Common of the leopard moth pest, is a job that closely approaches a steeple jacks' or thrills and has excited the interest of passers-by for the past few weeks.

Two ladies arrived in town on Monday afternoon on foot and stopped over night at the Hotel Spa, says the Outlook. They registered as Mrs. Martin and Miss Martin of Chicago, and stated that they started on Thursday from Lour Lodge, Digby, to walk to Kent Lodge, Wolfville.

The Misses Maggie Chute, Mabel Troop, Jennie Fellows and Laura Graves left on Wednesday, Aug. 7th, for the West, where they carry with them best wishes of many friends for continued happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. Jennie Parker is making her annual visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fellows.

These ladies are fond of walking tours, having frequently made journeys on foot in England, Bavaria and other European countries. They are afraid to travel unattended in the United States, but very enthusiastic in commendation of the security as well as the beauty of the Annapolis Valley and the hospitality of its people.

Miss May Mills, teacher in Chesley Section for past year, has secured a position at Lequille for the coming year.

Weather conditions have been somewhat improved during the past week and farmers have made hay while the sun shone, with more than usual thankfulness.

WALKED OFF MOVING TRAIN. As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Capt. and Mrs. John D. Apt came home last week. Mrs. Apt from a pleasant visit at different points of Massachusetts, and the Captain with his vessel, the Albert J. Lutz, which he is now getting into shape for the Regatta at Digby on the 17th.

Monday afternoon a new car being driven by Mr. Frank Lent, who had with him Mr. James Merkel, went off the south side of the Raquette bridge at high water. The car was somewhat injured and the escape of the occupants from being killed was almost miraculous. Their fall, of course, was checked by the tide.—Digby Courier.

Dr. Burns was quickly called and rendered assistance to the injured woman, who was unconscious for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Fleet and Mrs. Williams and son returned to their respective homes in Lynn, last Saturday, after a pleasant visit with Mr and Mrs. Herbert Johnson.

As Mr. Albert Gray was proceeding in his auto last evening along Commercial street, the machine ran into a post. His sister Hazel was thrown into the air by the concussion. Her feet were caught by one of the occupants, but in the attempt her back was injured and she was rendered unconscious. She was reported much better this morning.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barnes and children returned home to Mt. Pleasant, Digby Co., on Monday, 12th, after a three-week visit at Granville Ferry and Port Wade.

An ox belonging to a Mr. Purdy, of Plymouth, whilst lying in the road last night got up just as an auto from town was approaching it, and in attempting to cross to the side was struck by the car and so badly injured that it had to be killed.—Yarmouth Herald.

The strikers hope to bring about a series of walkouts in other factories to enforce the demand for a rule that foremen and others be instructed that no profanity or abusive language shall be used in the workrooms at any time, no matter what the provocation.

Miss Roberts of Philadelphia is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Freeman.

Miss Sadie Balcom of Shirley, Mass is spending her vacation at the home of her brother, L.S. Balcom.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Miss Bessie Durling of Prince Albert, Sask., and sister, Marie, of Lawrencetown were guests of Mr and Mrs. R. S. Leonard on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Clarke, after a fortnight's visit with relatives, have returned to their home in Shirley, Mass.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Miss Viola Whitman, accompanied by her brothers, Roy and Arthur, left on Monday for the West, where she expects to engage in her profession of teaching.

On Wednesday, last Mrs. A. C. Clements of Yarmouth and Miss Charlotte Fisk of Salem, Mass., were in Kentville. They had walked all the way from Yarmouth to Wolfville and returning to Kentville, took a drive around with Dr. P. C. Woodworth, who is a relative of Mrs. Clements.

The body of a man found floating Monday in the Hudson River and taken to a morgue in Hoboken was identified as that of Nathan Swartz, indicted for the murder of the child Julia Connors, in the Bronx on July 7th. The identification was made by Frank Alexander, Swartz's brother-in-law. Swartz was indicted yesterday when his father, Samuel Swartz, appeared before the Grand Jury and acknowledged that his son had confessed to him that he had killed the child. The father stated that he had told his son that the only thing for him to do was to go and commit suicide.

Mr. Wm. Morris of New Brunswick, was a recent guest at the home of Mr and Mrs. Geo. Beals.

Mr. and Mrs. Percival Marshall of Attleboro, Mass., returned home last Saturday, having spent two weeks with their parents here.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and family of Lynn are visiting relatives in this place.

There is chivalry in humbler places than on the palatial decks of the Titanic. Two workmen were buried in a trench at Cincinnati Saturday, and as the rescuers were at work to save them one cried out: "Don't mind me, save the other fellow. He has a wife and children." Fortunately, they were both saved, but the "women and children first" spirit was as strong in grimy overalls as in spotless broad cloth.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Mr. R. L. Dodge is visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. Bent, at Lawrencetown.

Mr. J. Howe Ray, with a party of friends, is attending Camp Meeting at Berwick.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Mr. George Morrisey of Boston, is visiting her father, Mr. Robert Gesner.

Mr. Harry Bogart of Salem, Mass. is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bogart.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Capt. Avery Johnson returned to St. John on Saturday.

Capt. Harvey Hudson came from Philadelphia on Thursday to visit his family for a couple of weeks.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.

Frank Covert is home from sea for a short time.

Yours truly, A. E. ROY, Carriage Maker, St. Antoine, P. Q.

As the Bluenose express from Halifax was drawing into Kentville last Wednesday, says the Kentville Chronicle, making fairly good time, a woman named Patterson from Fallmouth, attempted to step from the car at the Cornwallis Street crossing and was thrown violently to the ground, striking on the back of her head, and sustaining scalp injuries and a slight concussion of the brain.