

riage in Cana of Galilee, when Mary the mother of Jesus apprised the Saviour that there was no wine, He answered her in these memorable words : " Woman, what have I to do with thee ? Mine hour is not yet come. (John ii, 4th and 5th verses.) " His mother saith unto the servants, whatsoever he saith unto you, do it." Mark you her strength lay in her humility, for she kept all these sayings in her heart. Again we find our Saviour when conversing with the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, speaking thus : " If thou knewest the gift of God and who it is that saith to thee give me to drink, thou wouldst have asked of him and he would have given thee living water." (John iv, 10.) " Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming went out and met him ; but Mary sat still in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know that, even now, whatsoever Thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. Jesus saith unto her thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her I am the resurrection and the life ; he that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this ?
