INTRODUCTION.

OTCD

We are glad to be able to report that Ottawa is steadily increasing in population, and is advancing as a city should, without any boom, and at its present rate of progress, it will be ere long, the third city in the Dominion in importance, as well as in population.

We have 1,265 individual names more in our 1895-6 Directory than there were in the previous issue. This, according to Directory Publishers' estimate, would give the Capital of the Dominion a population of about 60,000, independent of the suburbs, and Hull City.

We again take the liberty of warning our patrons against unscrupulous Directory publishers. See that the Might Directory Co.'s name is printed on the order before signing.

Although we are later in issuing than we expected, we flatter ourselves that our patrons will have the best directory this year they have ever perused.

Thanking all those who so kindly assisted us in procuring the necessary information, we now trust that the collections will come in freely, as time is money.

Yours Truly,

The Might Directory Company of Toronto, Limited.

J. M. Might, President and Managing Director.
