

sire them all to go to Church. When I was most diligent in going to Church, I always found the greatest blessings."

THERE are a good many pious people who are as careful of their religion as of their best service of china, only using it on holy day occasions, for fear it should get chipped or flawed in working-day wear.

THE Dean of Chichester has lately made from an Oxford Pulpit a good point against the Darwinians. "Ye men of science," he said, "ye men of science, leave me my ancestors in Paradise, and I do not grudge you yours in the Zoological Gardens."

A CHORAL SERVICE FOR CHILDREN, To which are added HYMNS FOR THE CHRISTIAN YEAR, And for special occasions, AND A METRICAL LITANY.

WE have received a copy of this little pamphlet, which is compiled by a clergyman of the Diocese of Illinois. Its object is to combine a bright, attractive children's service with religious instruction, and to familiarize the youthful mind with the idea of WORSHIP. The plan suggested by the compiler is half an hour's instruction by the Teachers, then the use of this office. The clergyman's part may be said or sung, the children joining chorally in the Creed, Lord's Prayer, Amens, &c., or the whole may be read. Then the catechizing begins on the Lessons imparted. We are glad to see the increased attention to the importance of Worship, as well as Instruction, in the Sunday School, and this little publication will be found a useful help.

Price—One copy, 10 cts.; 25 for $2.25; 50 for $4.00. Post free. Address Rev. G. C. STREET, 434 Dearborn Avenue, Chicago.
