

THE WORLD

FOR 1878.

The change in the proprietorship (which took place May 1, 1878,) "The World" has been the brightest, sprightliest, most scholarly popular journal in the metropolis. It is entertaining, interesting, bright, decent, and truthful. It is wrong, wittingly, to no man, no creed, no party, and no party. It believes the Democratic Party to be for the good of the public service. It does not believe the public service to exist for the sake of the Party.

Sporting News

The World is fuller and more accurate than any other Daily Journal. During 1878 it will spare no trouble or expense to give the earliest and best accounts of Races, and trotting, Fox Hunting, Yachting, Base Ball, Cricket, Football, Lacrosse, Rifle Matches, Pigeon Matches, &c., &c. of interest to sportsmen will escape attention of THE WORLD. Agricultural Department of THE WORLD is in the charge of D. T. Moore, the founder of many years editor of THE RURAL NEW YORKER.
