

down quite as nicely as a professional carpet-layer could have done. They are planning what occupation they would like to have when they are men. Sam thinks a shoemaker would be the best trade, as he is not very strong, being deformed. Joseph wants to be a blacksmith, Richard and Alfred carpenters. In watching them from day to day I think they show aptitude for these occupations. We are delighted with the desks, they are so very neat and pretty.

---

NOTE.—Fuller information concerning all our fields will be furnished in the annual report, and it is hoped all our members will procure a copy as soon as printed.

---

Published monthly by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Canada. Subscription price, 5 cents a year. Communications and orders should be addressed to

MISS M. WILKES,

84 GLOUCESTER ST.,

TORONTO, ONT.