The Vine of Sibmah

By Andrew Macphail. Cloth $1.50

This Montreal writer has here given us a very delightful story full of incident from the very first sentence. It treats of Cavaliers, Roundheads, Puritans, Pirates, Jesuits and others. The narrator has somewhat the same ingenuous style as John Ridd in "Lorna Doone."

The illustrations are rather unusual.

In Quest of Light

By Goldwin Smith. Cloth $1.25 Net

A reverent attempt by this modern philosopher to express his inmost convictions on the subject of immortality. Every thoughtful preacher and teacher should read it without delay.

BRIEF LITERARY CRITICISMS

By Richard Holt Hutton. $1.50

The last volume to appear from the hand of that stalwart champion of high thinking and pure living. Uniform with others in the Eversley Series.
