

Adding to the Honor Roll.

A POLICY which is good in retailing as it is in any other phase of life is to try all things and hold fast that which is best. In many years of seeking for "good things" we have found, selected and perfected certain articles of merchandise that we know and have proved to be without equal in value. The list is not a long one, but it is of high honor. It is with great satisfaction we mention the goods we carry for sale:

Hats, Caps, House Jackets, Dressing Gowns, Bath Robes, Hosiery, Gloves, Underwear, Shirts, Collars, Braces, Night Shirts, Umbrellas, Neckwear, Water-proof Coats, Ordered Clothing, and all kinds of Men's and Ladies' Furs.

When You Get It In the Neck,

Surely life is not worth living. Peaceful men are made to brawl when the collar with the saw-edge turns their honey into gall. It may look so good, so perfect, so timid, though so tall, yet the collar with the saw-edge has cruel teeth for all. We make them smooth at the
