Dear Sir: I took your Medical Discovery for one year for Scrofula on my knee. When I began I was told by the Doctors my limb would have to be amputated, but it cured me. Well, that was 13 years ago and no signs of it since. I thought you and the world ought to know it.

Yours very truly,

CEYLON TEA COMPANY

WHAT

"THE TIMES" OF CEYLON

Says of this Company, May 4th, 1880.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

A TEST OF ECCENTRICITY.—Lady (to applicant): "How much do you want a month?" Applicant: "Do you use Pearline?" Lady: "No, I never use it." Applicant: "Never use it. Well, I'd rather not engage myself to you. I don't like to have anything to do with eccentric people." —From "King's Jester," N. Y.

THE difference between a starving man and a glutton is that one longs to eat and the other eats too long.

"I HAD for years been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache and found but little relief until I got Burdock Blood Bitters which made a perfect cure. It is the best medicine I ever used in my life."—HATTIE DAVIS, Mary St., Clinton, Ont.

If you want your boy to love you don't make him hoe potatoes in the back yard while a brass band is passing the house.

SCISSOR-GRINDERS are exceptions to the general rule; they are the most prosperous when things are dull.

MRS. JOHN MARTIN, of Montague Bridge, P. E. I., writes: "I was troubled last summer with very bad headaches and constipation and sometimes could scarcely see. One bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters made a complete cure of my case, and I wish you every success."

THE extemporaneous preacher never thinks of his sermon before he goes to church, and the extemporaneous hearer never thinks of it after he leaves.

WHEN a girl elopes with her coachman, some other man is saved from getting a mighty poor wife.

FOR A DISORDERED LIVER try BEECHAM'S PILLS.

THE fear of being called a coward makes lots of cowards try to act like brave men.

THOUSANDS of men who were hard drinkers have quit for good. The majority of them are dead, however.

"I TOOK six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for liver complaint, headache and dull stupid feeling, but now I am entirely well and healthy, having also a good appetite which I did not have previously."—MRS. T. DAVIS, Regina, N.-W.T.

BEFORE marriage the question a girl asks her lover is: "Do you really love me?" After marriage the query becomes: "Is my hat on straight?"

REMEMBER, my son, that the owl's reputation for wisdom is not due to his staying out all night. It is rather due to the fact that he has too much sense to stay up all night and day too.

LIVES of children are often endangered by sudden and violent attacks of cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery and bowel complaints. A reasonable and certain precaution is to keep Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always at hand.

"WARM!" cried the fussy man. "Look at my back! I'm perspiring like a hired man when the boss is around!"

WHEN we consider the influence of the saloon in politics, we understand what is meant by the saying: "There is plenty of rum at the top."

BENJ. W. PATTON, of Globe Village, Mass., says: "Having sold WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for many years and used it in my family with the most satisfactory results, I can with confidence say that in my estimation it is the best remedy in the market for coughs, colds and throat and lung diseases."

IN order to fight the flies successfully a cow has to make a good many flank movements.

THE friend who cries with you finds out a great many things that you will regret when your eyes are dried.

GREAT and timely wisdom is shown by keeping Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry on hand. It has no equal for cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps, and all summer complaints or looseness of the bowels.

A MAN at a summer hotel always speaks of his bill in the highest terms.

"MR. HIGHWATER, how is it I find no cream on your milk?" Milkman: "Well, mum, I expect the cows are holding it back for strawberry time."

WHAT SAY THEY?—In popularity increasing. In reliability the standard. In merit the first. In fact, the best remedy for all summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, etc., is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All medicine dealers sell it.

A WORD in due season: There is that little bill.
