Sandy

By ALICE HEGAN RICE

Author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary."

"Sandy" shows the same clever turn of witty phrase which made "Mrs. Wiggs" so popular, and with an advance in both plot and characterization over that notable story. There is also a finish and sureness which mark the maturer work of an earnest worker who is not content to give as little as she can, but must have each volume better than the last.—Montreal Courier-Journal.

Illustrated by Jacobs. 16mo, 275 pages, $1.00.

Woodmyth and Fable

By ERNEST THOMPSON SETON.

Author of "Wild Animals I Have Known," "The Biography of a Grizzly," etc.

There is nothing just like Mr. Seton's books; they are not only interesting, but they are beautifully made, and "Woodmyth and Fable" is about the most beautiful of all. It is a collection of fables about animals and others, with a number of clever morals, like "A Bull can paw more earth than an A-1, but he leaves no monument."

Tall 12mo, about 200 pages, richly illustrated by the author, $1.25 net.
