

clo 29, and shall be presented to the presbytery at every examination of the student ordinary or special.

100. In the case of removal of a student to the charge of a new superintendent, his register of private studies or examinations shall be transferred to the new superintendent, and in the case of transference to another presbytery, the students presbyterial register shall be forwarded to the clerk of that presbytery.

APPENDIX A.

Form of Tabular statement of studies to be presented by every student to his superintendent at least two days before the time appointed for private monthly examination.

STUDIES.	A. B. Student in Literary class. Studies from 15th November, to 15th Dec. 1839.
Latin.	Virgil Æneid B. III. from line 121, to end. Sallust Catiline, from chap. XIV. to XLVII. inclusive. Mair's introduction 15 pages of the Ancient History written.
Greek.	New Testament Luke chap. X. to end. Collectanea majora I vol. page 1, to 15 inclusive. Grammar revised from page 51 to 96.
History.	Adam's Antiquities page 235 to 390.
Geography.	Ancient Geography of Asia Minor.
Elocution.	One hour a day.
English Composition.	Irving's elements read from page to page. The two exercises prescribed written.
General reading.
Remarks.

Signed A. B

Along with the tabular statement the student shall give in a list of the difficulties he may have met with in any of the authors he is studying, in the following form.

Difficulties in Latin studies.

Virgil, Æneid B. III. line 211, the Scanning line 489.

Sallust, Catiline chap. XXV. last sentence, chap. XLV. sent. 2.

Mair's Introduction page 241 line 16.

Difficulties in Greek studies.

New Testament Luke chap. — and V. —

Collectanea Majora vol. 1 page 2 line 17. page 5 line 2. page 14 line 24. page 14 line 26.

After examination the superintendent or the student under his inspection, shall transcribe the tabular statement into the Register of private examinations, and the superintendent shall subjoin his remarks, as follows :

Latin, well studied, to proceed with IV. Book of Æneid, and to endeavour to furnish it by next examination—On concluding Sallust's Catiline, to revise it from the beginning.

Greek, rather neglected since last examination, to proceed with the Gospel according to St. John and Collectanea and to write the exercises in Dunbar from page 15 to 32 inclusive.

History, well studied.

Geography, well studied, but too little done.

Exercises in composition 1st good, 2d subject misunderstood, and composition too hasty. The following prescribed for next examination.

One week's vacation allowed.

Signed C. D. Minister of —

The form above given may serve, mutatis mutandis, for tabular statements presented at presbyterial examinations, and for students in philosophy and divinity at both private and presbyterial examinations. And the note subjoined to the tabular statement may serve as a guide to clerks of presbyteries in making entries in the register of presbyterial examinations.

APPENDIX B.

Statement to be submitted to the presbytery by a student presenting himself for special presbyterial examination :

To the Reverend the Presbytery of H.

I. M. N. Student in the Literary (or philosophi-