IAN MACLAREN.

The King of Novelists to-day in the minds of the people of three countries is Ian Maclaren. The first instalment of his new Drumtochty story—a love story this time,— is published in this issue of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE. It will run through several numbers, and promises to be the most finished of all Mr. Maclaren's work. It will be illustrated throughout by the pen of F. C. Gordon, who has made a special study of the Scotch scenes and characters depicted in the tale.

THE CANADIAN has not procured the right to publish this story without considerable cost, yet, it is only one of the improvements which have recently been made, with a view to giving the Canadian public the very best literature that the English world affords, and a Magazine which may be the nation's pride and boast. In there will appear stories and articles which will be worthy of attention, and decidedly interesting and entertaining. THE CANADIAN is depending on its friends for further extension of its rapidly-growing subscription list.
