SADLIER & CO'S. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A NEW WORK, BY MRS. SADLIER.

JUST PUBLISHED, "THE BLAKES AND FLANIGANS." A Tale illustrative of Irish Life in the United States.

Although this Work has only been published a few weeks, the first edition of two THOUSAND copies have already been sold.

"In its permanent and corrected form, we wish 'The Blakes and Flanigans' a place in every household, and we could not wish an Irish household a better guide, or a more accurate social chart, of the dangers and temptations with which they especially have to combat in this state of society."

"We earnestly hope it may find a place in every Catholic household, and that it may be carefully read by every Catholic father and mother in the Province."

"We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this Work, which, like all Mrs. Sadlier's writings, can be read with interest and profit."

"Mrs. Sadlier has been the successful authoress of several pleasing stories published heretofore, and we have no doubt, that the Work the Sadliers have just published will add to her reputation."

"Independent, however, of the principle which it inculcates, the story is interesting and well-told, and is of a nature to please persons of all creeds and countries."

"The accomplished Authoress has put the Catholics of America under a strong obligation by this most excellent Work, the best ever written by her. We wish it to be wide spread."

"The tale is well written and graphically told, and maintains the high position Mrs. Sadlier has already attained in the world of letters."

NEW EDITIONS.

THE BEST and CHEAPEST CATECHISM for Schools and Families published, is the

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices.

The Press of Europe and America are unanimous in praise of this work.

"Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction."

"Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature."

"Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholar and general reader."

"We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them from the perusal of 'Fabiola'; we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work."
