

Hotel Mossop, Toronto, which, both externally and internally, is of absolute fireproof construction. It stands on a foundation of 18 concrete wells, carried down to bed-rock, the first foundation of its kind to be installed in Toronto. J. P. Hynes, Architect.

View of Office of Hotel Mossop, Toronto, as seen from the ladies' entrance showing the detail of marble counter and columns and rich ceiling cornice. J. P. Hynes, Architect.