The Churchman's Friend.

PROSPECTUS

The Churchyan's Friend is intended to sup-ply a want, which, we believe, every Canadian Clergyman must have often and painfully experienced. We cannot perhaps be surprised that in a land where the number of the mit isters of the Church is so disproportionate to the population and extent of the country, there should be a in mentation looms of importance, and Her orlinances. Yet it is plainly impossible to bring these subjects prominently forward from the put-pit; there we must needs speak on more gori-ous themes, and preach the glad tidings of our common redemption. The Churchman's Friend has been projected to meet this difficulty; it is thrended licerally to fulfil the promise made in the title; namely, to convey information, rela tive to the subjects and cated.

The Theology which we wish to impart is apt-'y and honestry expressed in the first motion which we placed at the head of our publication · Qued semper, quod ubique, quod ab omnibus creditum est, teneamus, "Lot us hote tast that, which always, which every where, which by all has been believed," for that only is the faith of the Catholic Church. Write the teneper and spiritin which we desire to convey these truths, is with equal simplicity and correctnes indicated by our second morto, In necessaria Unites, in dubiis liberatus, in omnibus caritas. "In necessary things unity, in doubtful things liberty, in all things charity."

With this object in view, we purpose to issue and Shenston's do. 12s. 6d ing on the 1st October; but we hope con siderably to enlarge, or to publish more frequently, as soon as we receive the requisite amount of encouragement. A large proportion of each number will be filled with original matte in the form of short tracts, dialogues, and tales with succeives, scraps of information and other selections, all strictly tending to illustrate the principles we wish to advocate, will mak up the contents. While we hope to offer matte sufficiently interesting as to make it not without value even to the more highly educated, it will be our endeavour to crothe it in such plain and simple language, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the farm bouse and th cottage, and a source of pressure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especi-ally, some portrin of our space will always be set any, some port in or our space with inways to set apart; and we venture to suggest to clergy men and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the advantage of encouraging their clerity sensities of evaluation unselves of the reduced terms offered to those who subscribe for a number of copies. They will thus be turnishing the young persons committed to their charge with a supply of reading, at once sound in his leaching and attractive to character, and at the same time be rightening their own labor.

We beg particluarly to call attention to our terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address for fifteen shiftings, currency, a period affice copies for £1 five shiftings. But as these sumsare so small that they will not pay for the trouble of coffeeting, it is adsolutely necessary that all substitutions.
