

- In 1986, the Canadian government supported the Canadian Chamber of Commerce's decision to open an office in Taipei to expand trade, investment and tourism ties with Taiwan. All Canadian government trade-development programs are available to Canadian companies pursuing trade and business opportunities in Taiwan.
- Canadian investment in Taiwan is valued at $100 million.
- Recent Canadian companies to achieve outstanding export performance in Taiwan include Internav Limited and CAE Electronics.