- I. Note, en date du 26 janvier 1951, adressée par le Premier Ministre du Canada au Haut Commissaire suppléant de l'Inde ..... 5
- II. Note, en date du 26 janvier 1951, adressée par le Haut Commissaire suppléant de l'Inde au Secrétaire d'État aux Affaires extérieures ..... 7 at first in the twelve month period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1951, and in each succeeding twelve month period thereafter, the number of Indians for permanent residence of one husband and one wife shall be limited to five, including both sexes, and all cases shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Canadian Immigration Act.

(2) In addition to the status of India whose entry to Canada for permanent residence is authorized in accordance with paragraph (1) above, a class of India who can otherwise comply with the provisions of the Canadian Immigration Act may be admitted to Canada for permanent residence if he or she is the husband, wife or unmarried child under twenty-one years of age of any Canadian citizen lawfully admitted to and resident in Canada and if the settlement arrangements in Canada are shown to the Canadian authorities to be satisfactory.

(3) The provisions of Canadian Order-in-Council P.C. 215 dated the 15th day of September, 1950, as amended by Order-in-Council P.C. 229 of the 28th day of December, 1950, shall not apply to citizens of India.

(4) The admission to Canada as non-immigrants of citizens of India shall not be affected by the preceding paragraphs.

If the Government of India accepts the foregoing provisions, the Government of Canada has the honour to suggest that the present note and the reply thereto of the Government of India shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments which may be terminated by either Government on giving six months' notice.

I have the honour to be Sir

Your obedient servant
